Testimonies How To Evangelize People:

Missionaries in the witness box, personal testimonies from the foreign field Missionaries, 1897 The Gospel and Personal Evangelism (Foreword by C. J. Mahaney) Mark Dever, 2007-09-07 Evangelism is not only misunderstood it is often unpracticed Many Christians want to share the gospel with others but because those Christians don't grasp the fundamentals of witnessing they feel intimidated and incapable of sharing the truth of the gospel Yet those believers fail to recognize that God has already established who and how we are to evangelize In The Gospel and Personal Evangelism Dr Mark Dever seeks to answer the four basic questions about evangelism that many Christians ask Who should we evangelize How should we evangelize What is evangelism Why should we evangelize In his answers Dever draws on New Testament truths and helps believers apply those truths in practical ways As readers understand the fundamentals of evangelism they will begin to develop a culture of evangelism in their lives and their local churches Introduction to Evangelism Alvin Reid, 1998 In this important book Alvin Reid traces the essence of evangelism its history and character teaching Christians how to preach the Gospel effectively Evangelism John MacArthur, 2011-03-22 A clear biblical theology of evangelism presented with a historical foundation and practical instruction Expand your MacArthur Pastor's Library to include this much needed topic Evangelism begins by comparing the current state of outreach in American Christianity with evangelism throughout church history and also in the Bible Presenting a theology on the subject that addresses the theological principles that govern evangelism showing how they are played out in the church as well as the family and personal interaction It includes preaching one on one witnessing missions parenting evangelism and commissioning and supporting missionaries This book's substantive and doctrinally insightful guide to biblical outreach complements the previous volumes Preaching Biblical Counseling and Pastoral Ministry Biblical Foundations for the Role of Healing in Evangelization Mathias D. Thelen, 2017-12-07 It's almost undeniable that God is working miracles of healing in evangelization today For theologians pastors and evangelists some questions arise What is the relationship between physical healing and the message of salvation Should the church really expect God to do healings in evangelization today Father Thelen answers these questions by examining the relationship between the preaching of the gospel and physical healing in the New Testament The gospel of Jesus Christ is not simply a message of fact it is a message of power that is often expressed through the working of deeds that serve as signs of the reality preached salvation As signs of the kingdom healings that accompany the preaching of the gospel play an indispensable role in bringing people to faith throughout the New Testament The result of this biblical study is a clarion call for the church to renew its faith in God's desire and power to confirm his word through healing As healing becomes more accepted and frequent in evangelization a Catholic biblical and theological approach to healing as it relates to evangelization an approach that can be different from its Protestant counterpart is necessary This modest book fits this need Unlikely Converts Randy Newman, 2019-07-30 Rely on the unstoppable power of the gospel not your own words Most Christians have people in their lives who they are sure will never come to faith. Whether they are too committed to their sinful ways, too angry at God, or too quick to shut down any mention of the saving grace of Jesus, these long shots don't seem worth approaching. But some of the most unlikely converts have the strongest faith stories, and they can be a source of incredible encouragement for Christians who are trying to evangelize those around them. Randy Newman knows firsthand the discomfort that comes with sharing the gospel. He's been tongue-tied and timid too. But the truth is, we don't need to sound like the brilliant charismatic legendary evangelists. In this book, Randy shares surprising conversion stories straight from those who took the long way around to Christianity. He considers current cultural trends that make evangelism more difficult today. Then, with his characteristic upbeat style, he offers practical ways and even exact wording to proclaim the gospel and includes a plan of action. In the end, Unlikely Converts encourages us to remember that while the Great Commission requires us to share the good news, it does not require perfection; only confidence in the message. Judaizing Christianity and Christian Zionism in Northern Ireland Véronique Altglas, 2025-04-22. This book explores the contemporary Judaization of evangelical Christianity through the ethnography of a Messianic congregation in Northern Ireland. A constellation of Messianic congregations have expanded worldwide over recent years, combining Jewish liturgy, symbols, and artifacts with prophecies about the End Times and the return of Jesus. Increasingly recognized as a legitimate subdivision within evangelicalism, the Messianic movement has facilitated a popularization of Jewish practices and symbolism beyond its own congregations. The author considers: What insights do these congregations offer about the deregulation of religions? Is there any logic to the combinations of Christian and Jewish sources in Messianic beliefs and practices? How can we understand this fascination with Jews and Judaism? Finally, what is the political significance of Messianic relationship with Jewish people, the state of Israel, and Christian Zionism? The book will be of particular interest to scholars of the sociology and anthropology of religion, religion and politics, and Jewish-Christian relations. Evangelism as Storytelling Oinike Natalia Harefa, 2024-06-13. Problems of patriarchy and colonialism that have left traces in the history of evangelism and Christian missions have contributed to perpetuating marginalization and discrimination against women in church life in Asia. This book offers a reconstruction of evangelism that acknowledges and respects women's roles and thoughts. For this purpose, the author uses a postcolonial missiological feminist perspective that pays attention to the processes, models, roles, and understanding of evangelism and mission, and encourages women's voices in witnessing the trinitarian God in the world. This study confronts evangelism with discourses of power, leadership, gender, and understanding of evangelism and mission. This book uses the historical narrative, constructive missiological method by combining several theories to show the complexity of missionary women's narratives, the marginalization of their narratives, and constructive missiological efforts to reclaim their narratives as a model of embodied evangelism. These theories are: the social women mission theory, postcolonial feminist mission theory, martyrdom theology, the biblical reconstructive approach to Matthew, and narrative theology. The author offers the idea of evangelism as storytelling namely witnessing the trinitarian God through embodied storytelling of the gospel which encourages the rediscovery of witness narratives in the form of testimonials that contain the voices roles experiences and understandings of women in witnessing the gospel How to Win Friends for Christ Fr. Thomas Cavanaugh, John Love, 2017-04-01 In his entertaining and engaging style Mark Hart also known as The Bible Geek shows readers why Scripture should be central to our life with the Lord When we become immersed in Scripture he says we allow it not the secular culture to form our minds and hearts In the story of the Bible we find our own story as we discover how much God loves us and desires to save us and dwell among us This book also considers the place of Scripture in the liturgy introduces the practice of lectio divina the prayerful reading of Scripture and shows how the Scriptures connect to the sacraments
