A Text-book of Physiology Winfield Scott Hall, 1905 Centres of Learning Jan Willem Drijvers, Alasdair A. MacDonald, 1995-04-01 Centres of Learning deals with the relation between learning and the locations in which that learning is carried out. It is the editors' belief that the character and in part the content of a particular aspect of learning is determined or at least influenced by the circumstances in which the learning process takes place. The contributions in this book deal with various aspects of learning in a broad historical and geographical perspective which ranges from Ancient Babylon via classical Greece and Rome and the Middle East both Christian and Islamic through to the Latin and vernacular cultures of the Christian West in the Middle Ages and the Early Renaissance From World To World: An Armamentarium Cees Koster, 2021-11-15 In this book one of the old traditions of translation studies is revived: the tradition of the comparative study of translation and original. The aim of the author is to develop an armamentarium: a set of analytical instruments and a procedure for the systematic study of poetic discourse in translation. The armamentarium provides the means to describe the translational interpretation that is the interpretation of the original as it emerges from the translation and may be constructed in the course of a comparison between the two texts. The practical result of this study is based on a solid theoretical foundation. This study most of all reflects on the possibilities of translation comparison and description per se. It is one of the few books in which an in-depth study is undertaken into the principles of translation comparison itself into its limits and possibilities and into its central concepts: shift, unit of comparison, etcetera. Before presenting his own proposal for a comparative procedure, the author critically evaluates several existing methods, particularly those of Toury, Van Leuven, Zwart, and the German transfer-oriented approach. The theoretical considerations in this book are amply illustrated by analyses of translated works of poets as Rutger Kopland and Robert Lowell. The book also contains an extensive case study into the translations by the German poet Paul Celan of a selection of William Shakespeare's sonnets The Judicial Role in a Diverse Federation Robert Schertzer, 2016-05-09 In The Judicial Role in a Diverse Federation Robert Schertzer uses the example of the Supreme Court of Canada to examine how apex courts manage diversity and conflict in federal states. Schertzer argues that in a diverse federation where the nature of the federal system is contested, the courts should facilitate negotiation between conflicting parties rather than impose their own vision of the federal system. Drawing on a comprehensive review of the Supreme Court's federalism jurisprudence between 1980 and 2010, he demonstrates that the court has increasingly adopted this approach of facilitating negotiation by acknowledging the legitimacy of different understandings of the Canadian federation. This book will be required reading both for those interested in Canada's Supreme Court and for those engaged in broader debates about the use of federalism in multinational states The Auchenorrhyncha (Homoptera) of Fennoscandia and Denmark, Volume 2 F. Ossiannilsson, 2023-07-24 This volume of Fauna Entomologica Scandinavica focuses on the entomological study of certain Homoptera families within Fennoscandia.

and Denmark It provides detailed taxonomic descriptions distribution data and biological information about species such as Cicadidae Cercopidae Membracidae and Cicadellidae with an emphasis on their morphology habitats and life cycles The book is intended for entomologists and researchers interested in Scandinavian insect fauna offering comprehensive insights into the ecological and geographical spread of these insect families across Denmark Sweden Norway Finland and parts of the USSR It is authored by F Ossiannilsson under the editorship of the Societas Entomologica Scandinavica

Sure Start children's centres Great Britain: National Audit Office,2006-12-19 The Government launched the Sure Start programme in 1998 to help give the best start in life for every child particularly from disadvantaged backgrounds by bringing together early education childcare health and family support services From April 2006 local authorities have been responsible for managing the programme for their area and decide whether to do so directly or to contract out management to a private or voluntary provider whilst the DfES issues guidance to local authorities and monitors performance The first 800 centres were located in the most deprived areas but the Government has pledged to create a children s centre for every community by 2010 around 3 500 in all committing 3 2 billion of funds until 2008 Children s centres also have income from various other sources including grants and fees for childcare charged to parents This NAO report focuses on the capacity of the centres set up by September 2005 and the performance of responsible local authorities in delivering value for money through sound financial management in reaching the most disadvantaged families and in monitoring their performance effectively It finds that good progress is being made although the full effectiveness of the centres will be measurable only in the long term The centres are valued by most of the families who use them although the early signs are that more still needs to be done to reach and support some of the most excluded groups The costs of centres and activities vary widely and local authorities and centres that the NAO visited need to understand their costs better and assess whether they were using their funds cost effectively The Uses of the Past in the Early Middle Ages Yitzhak Hen,Matthew Innes,2000-06-08 This is the first book to investigate how people in the early middle ages used the past to legitimate the present to understand current events and as a source of identity Each essay examines the mechanisms by which ideas about the past were sometimes subtly reshaped for present purposes Manipulating the Message Cecil Rosner,2023-10-31 Journalists hate the term fake news but there s a troubling reality spin doctors routinely try to dupe them into reporting misleading and distorted stories Check the news on any given day and here s what you ll find Governments routinely lie Companies inflate claims about their products and practices Institutions release studies with misleading data meant to deceive Police departments infected by systemic racism downplay crimes against Indigenous and racialized people The public depends on the media to help them understand the world but are journalists catching all the daily lies omissions and distortions Shrinking newsrooms and an army of spin doctors mean journalists can get duped Despite valiant efforts by a handful of investigative journalists the truth is routinely left behind Award winning journalist Cecil Rosner insists there is something we can do about this We can pressure news organizations to stop blindly regurgitating the firehose of press releases and focus instead on determining what is actually true Rosner empowers readers by sharing his techniques for detecting misinformation and disinformation National Message and Banner ,1929 Child Psychology Ram Nath Sharma,Rachana Sharma,2006 All Modern Psychologists Hold That Every Individual Should Have At Least Little Acquaintance With Child Psychology As It Helps In Solving Children S Problem All The Better Child Psychology Is In Fact A Composite And Comprehensive Study Of Children The Present Book Child Psychology Has Added A New Dimension To The Vast Knowledge Of The Subject It Introduces Various Stages Of Child Development Right From The Conception To The Adolescence Its Scope Encompasses Child S Conative Affective And Cognitive Aspects As Well As Behaviour It Analyses The Impacts Of Environment And Heredity On Child S Development In Addition It Highlights The Scientific Underpinning Of Child Psychology And Forms A Contextual Approach The Other Major Areas Covered By The Book Are Response Mechanism Motor Development Sexual Development Moral And Aesthetic Development Learning And Sense Training Thinking And Reasoning Personality Delinquency Psychological Testing And Many More The Present Book Can Be Rightly Held As An Ideal Textbook On The Subject Covering Syllabi Of Majority Of The Indian Universities The Standard Books Of The West Are No Doubt Referred To But The Examples For Elucidation And Elaboration Have Been Given Here In The Context Of Indian Conditions While The Presentation Of The Subject Matter Is Analytic The Language Of The Book Is Free Of Jargons And
