

Text-Dependent Question Prompts

Text-dependent questions that focus on the individuals, events, and ideas contained within a text help students learn to identify these significant components and analyze their development over the course of a text. A thorough understanding of these elements then enables the student to comprehend the broader themes and complex central ideas embedded within the text. Here are some text-dependent question prompts relating to individuals and characters in the text.

Individuals/Characters

- What did you learn about _____ in the _____ paragraph? What words did the author use to communicate this information?
- What emotions does _____ experience in the text? How do you know?
- What do _____'s actions show you in the _____ page/paragraph/scene/stanza?
- What is the relationship between _____ and _____? Refer back to the text for specific examples to support your answer.
- What are _____'s strengths? Weaknesses? How do you know?
- How does the dialogue between _____ and _____ help the reader understand more about these characters/individuals? Use examples from the text to support your answer.
- What does _____ look like? What words or phrases does the author use to describe him/her?
- What is _____'s motivation in the _____ paragraph/scene/stanza? What words or phrases in the text tell you this?
- What is _____'s emotional state in the _____ paragraph/scene/stanza? How do you know? Use examples from the text to support your answer.
- What problems does _____ face in the text? How does his/her personality affect the outcome of these problems? Refer back to the text in your answer.
- What does the author want the reader to know/understand about _____? How do you know this from the text?
- How does _____ act around _____? What do these actions tell you about the relationship between these two individuals? Support your answer with details from the text.
- How does the author develop the character of _____ over the course of the story? Include specific examples from the text in your answer.
- How does _____ change during the story? Support your answer with specific examples from the text.
- What words does the author use to describe _____? What can you infer about _____ from these words?
- What are _____'s feelings about _____? Include specific words and phrases from the text to support your answer.
- Compare _____ and _____. How are these two characters/individuals alike and different? Refer back to the text for evidence to justify your answer.
