Thanksgiving/Acción de Gracias Bonnie Hinman, 2011-08 Americans love Thanksgiving and they celebrate it with gusto Many American families watch the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade eat too much turkey and after dinner collapse in front of the television to watch football Most Americans don't know that thanksgivings were celebrated long before the Pilgrims had their weeklong party in 1621 These thanksgivings called harvest festivals have occurred all over the world since ancient times They had different names but all were a way of giving thanks for the blessings of the previous year Find out how the world celebrated thanksgiving then and continues to celebrate it in modern times A los estadounidenses les encanta Acción de Gracias y lo celebran con entusiasmo Muchas familias de Estados Unidos miran el desfile del día de Acción de Gracias de Macy's comen mas pavo de la cuenta y despues de la comida se apoltronan frente a la television para mirar futbol americano Buena parte de los estadounidenses no sabe que las fiestas de accion de gracias se celebraban mucho antes de que los Peregrinos celebraran una semana de fiesta en 1621 Estas fiestas para dar gracias llamadas festivales de la cosecha han tenido lugar en el mundo desde la antigüedad Tienen diferentes nombres pero todos son una manera de dar gracias por las bendiciones del año anterior Enterate de como el mundo celebraba antano las fiestas de accion de gracias y como continua celebrandolas en la actualidad Death Be Not Proud David Marno, 2016-12-21 The seventeenth century French philosopher Nicolas Malebranche thought that philosophy could learn a valuable lesson from prayer which teaches us how to attend wait and be open for what might happen next Death Be Not Proud explores the precedents of Malebranche's advice by reading John Donne's poetic prayers in the context of what David Marno calls the art of holy attention If in Malebranche's view attention is a hidden bond between religion and philosophy devotional poetry is the area where this bond becomes visible Marno shows that in works like Death be not proud Donne's most triumphant poem about the resurrection the goal is to allow the poem's speaker to experience a given doctrine as his own thought as an idea occurring to him But while the thought must feel like an unexpected event for the speaker the poem itself is a careful preparation for it And the key to this preparation is attention the only state in which the speaker can perceive the doctrine as a cognitive gift Along the way Marno illuminates why attention is required in Christian devotion in the first place and uncovers a tradition of battling distraction that spans from ascetic thinkers and Church Fathers to Catholic spiritual exercises and Protestant prayer manuals
