That Evening Sun Faulkner:

That Evening Sun William Faulkner, 2013-03-19 Quentin Compson narrates the story of his family's African American washerwoman Nancy who fears that her husband will murder her because she is pregnant with a white man's child. The events in the story are witnessed by a young Quentin and his two siblings Caddy and Jason who do not fully understand the adult world of race and class conflict that they are privy to. Although primarily known for his novels, William Faulkner wrote in a variety of formats including plays, poetry, essays, screenplays, and short stories, many of which are highly acclaimed and anthologized. Like his novels, many of Faulkner's short stories are set in fictional Yoknapatawpha County, a setting inspired by Lafayette County where Faulkner spent most of his life. His first short story collection, These 13 (1931), includes many of his most frequently anthologized stories, including A Rose for Emily, Red Leaves, and That Evening Sun. HarperCollins brings great works of literature to life in digital format, upholding the highest standards in ebook production and celebrating reading in all its forms. Look for more titles in the HarperCollins short stories collection to build your digital library.
