A Dialogue with Depression Om Devi, 2017-09-15. She couldn't stop it. She watched and she begged and she got frustrated and angry, she demanded and sought support but she couldn't stop it. She was a witness to the downward spiral but she was helpless. But if she couldn't stop it, would it be enough to understand it? In A Dialogue with Depression, author Om Devi shares the journey through her husband's struggle with clinical depression. It is an expression of her discovered wisdom over the years of a deep emotional acknowledgement of the illness that had surrounded her. With biography and through stream of consciousness to express her observations of herself and her husband, Om Devi uses text messages, letters, diagnoses, poems, thoughts and research to convey and illuminate the lived experience of depression. Understanding clinical depression can help others have more awareness and compassion for those who suffer from the disease of clinical depression.
