Style and Reader Response Alice Bell, Sam Browse, Alison Gibbons, David Peplow, 2021-02-08 Style and Reader Response Minds media methods profiles the diversity of theoretical and methodological approaches in reception oriented research in stylistics Collectively the chapters investigate how real readers players audiences and viewers respond to experience and interpret texts Contributions to the book investigate discourse types such as contemporary literature poetry political speeches digital fiction art exhibitions and online news discourse The volume also exemplifies the variety of empirical approaches in reception research with contributors drawing on a range of methods including discussion groups interviews questionnaires and think aloud protocols with data analysed from both online and offline sources Style and Reader Response makes an important contribution to an emerging paradigm within stylistics in which verifiable insights from readers are used to generate new models and new understandings of texts across media with each essay demonstrating the centrality of empirical research for theoretical methodological and/or analytical advancements within and beyond stylistics

Stylistic Manipulation of the Reader in Contemporary Fiction Sandrine Sorlin, 2019-12-12 This book focuses on how readers can be manipulated during their experience of reading fictional texts and how they are incited to perceive process and interpret certain textual patterns Offering fine grained stylistic analysis of diverse genres including crime fiction short stories poetry and novels the book deciphers various linguistic pragmatic and multimodal techniques These are skilfully used by authors to achieve specific effects through a subtle manipulation of deixis metalepsis dialogue metaphors endings inferences or rhetorical narratorial and typographical control Exploring contemporary texts such as The French Lieutenant's Woman The Remains of the Day and We Need to Talk

About Kevin chapters delve into how readers are pragmatically positioned or cognitively mis directed as the author guides their attention and influences their judgment They also show how readers responses can conversely bring about a certain form of manipulation as readers challenge the positions the texts invite them to occupy

Ethnic Resonances in Performance, Literature, and Identity Yiorgos Kalogeras, Cathy C. Waegner, 2019-12-06 This volume seeks to weave applications of the dynamic concept of resonance to ethnic studies Resonance refers to the ever broadening multidirectional effects of movement or action a concept significant for many disciplines The individual chapters exchange the concept of static intertextuality for that of interactive resonance which encourages consideration of the mutual and processual influences among readings paradigms and social engagement in cultural analysis International scholars of literary and cultural studies linguistics history politics or ethno environmental studies contribute their work in this volume Each chapter examines a specific ethnic phenomenon in terms of relevant literature lived experience and theoretical approaches or historical intervention relating the given case study to parameters of resonance The book offers dialogic transnational interchange a play of eclectic ethnic voices inquiries perspectives and differences The studies in this interdisciplinary volume show that through resonant engagement with in and between works literary production can both enhance and disturb cultural narratives of ethnicity

World Building Joanna Gavins, Ernestine Lahey, 2016-06-30 World Building represents the state of the discipline in worlds based approaches to discourse collected together for the first time Over the last 40 years the text as world metaphor has become one of the most prevalent and productive means of describing the experiencing of producing and receiving discourse This has been the case in a range of disciplines including stylistics cognitive poetics narratology discourse analysis and literary theory The metaphor has enabled analysts to formulate a variety of frameworks for describing and examining the textual and conceptual mechanics involved in human communication articulating these variously through such concepts as possible worlds text worlds and storyworlds Each of these key approaches shares an understanding of discourse as a logically grounded cognitively and pragmatically complex phenomenon Discourse in this sense is capable of producing highly immersive and emotionally affecting conceptual spaces in the minds of discourse participants The chapters examine how best to document and analyze this and this is an essential collection for stylisticians linguists and narrative theorists

Intratextuality and Latin Literature Stephen J. Harrison, Stavros Frangoulidis, Theodore D. Papanghelis, 2018-10-08 Recent years have witnessed an increased interest in classical studies in the ways meaning is generated through the medium of intertextuality namely how different texts of the same or different authors communicate and interact with each other Attention although on a lesser scale has also been paid to the manner in which meaning is produced through interaction between various parts of the same text or body of texts within the overall production of a single author namely intratextuality Taking off from the seminal volume on Intratextuality Greek and Roman Textual Relations edited by A Sharrock H Morales Oxford 2000 which largely sets the theoretical framework for such internal associations within classical texts this collective volume brings together twenty seven contributions written by an international team of experts exploring the evolution of intratextuality from Late Republic to Late Antiquity across a wide range of authors genres and historical periods Of particular interest are also the combined instances of intra and intertextual poetics as well as the way in which intratextuality in Latin literature draws on reading practices and critical methods already theorized and operative in Greek antiquity
