Contesting Visions of the Lao Past Christopher E. Goscha, Søren Ivarsson, 2003 Laos's emergence as a modern nation state in the 20th century owed much to a complex interplay of internal and external forces Arguing that the historiography of Laos needs to be understood in this wider context this study considers how the Lao have written their own nationalist and revolutionary history on the inside while others the French Vietnamese and Thais have attempted to write the history of Laos from the outside for their own political ends As nationalist historiography like the formation of the nation state does not emerge within a nationalist vacuum but rather is created and contested from inside and out this incisive volume's approach has applications and implications far beyond Laos
