Panelists tell of sterilization 'plot'

The panelists, who were asked to provide testimony on the proposed sterilization law, told the hearing that they believed the law was a "plot" to sterilize the poor and minority populations. Dr. Robert L. Smith, a member of the panel, testified that he had been contacted by a person who offered him a large sum of money to participate in the sterilization program. Dr. Smith refused the offer and testified that he believed the program was a "plot" to sterilize the poor and minority populations.

Council excludes Tobie Road from Bridgewater no parking law

The council, which is made up of representatives from the town and the state, voted 10-2 to exclude Tobie Road from the no parking law. The council members argued that Tobie Road is a major thoroughfare and that the no parking law would be a burden on the residents of the town. The council members also argued that the no parking law would be a burden on the residents of the town.
