The 100 A Ranking Of The Most Influential Persons In History:

The 100 Michael H. Hart, 1978 Contains brief 3 4 page biographies of famous men and women throughout history ranked in order of the author's criteria for influence upon world history The 100 Michael H. Hart, 2000-06-01 In 1978 when Michael Hart's controversial book The 100 was first published critics objected that Hart had the nerve not only to select who he thought were the most influential people in history but also to rank them according to their importance Needless to say the critics were wrong and to date more than 60 000 copies of the book have been sold Hart believed that in the intervening years the influence of some of his original selections had grown or lessened and that new names loomed large on the world stage Thus the publications of this revised and updated edition of The 100 As before Hart's yardstick is influence not the greatest people but the most influential the people who swayed the destinies of millions of human beings determined the rise and fall of civilizations changed the course of history With incisive biographies Hart describes their careers and contributions Explaining his ratings he presents a new perspective on history gathering together the vital facts about the world's greatest religious and political leaders inventors writers philosophers explorers artists and innovators from Asoka to Zoroaster Most of the biographies are accompanied by photographs or sketches Hart's selections may be surprising to some Neither Jesus nor Marx but Muhammad is designated as the most influential person in human history The writer's arguments may challenge and perhaps convince readers but whether or not they agree with him his manner of ranking is both informative and entertaining The 100 revised and updated is truly a monumental work It promises to be just as controversial just as thought provoking and just as successful as its predecessor a perfect addition to any history or philosophy reference section The 101 Most Influential People Who Never Lived Allan Lazar, Dan Karlan, Jeremy Salter, 2009-10-13

Geography of the World's Major Regions John Cole, 2003-09-02 This volume presents a global view of today's most pressing issues through an analysis of the twelve major regions of the world. Environmental degradation, natural catastrophe, population pressures, and human conflict all impact in different ways and to different degrees on the society and environment of these regions. Economic and political restructuring within each region is covered, and topics include natural resources, agriculture, industry, and services, the role of the military, and the impact of global economic change. This work is intended as an introduction for students studying the changing geography of the world but should also provide a useful overview to students researching specific regions, seeking comparative analysis of regions, or following general courses on the economic and political geography of both the post-industrial and the developing worlds. Over 250 photographs, maps, and figures complement a range of boxed case studies, key points, questions, and guides to further reading.

Principles of Islamic Psychology Farid Younos, 2017-05-09 Psychology is the study of mind and this is exactly why the Quran put a great emphasis between the relationship of man and his Creator and the role faith plays intellectually and spiritually in our lives The Quran is a book of wisdom and it includes all aspects of human life Religion as a matter of fact is an intellectual property that cannot be seen So the mind cannot be seen Human beings are curious creatures This curiosity elaborated in the story of Abraham when he wanted to find the truth for himself Finding the truth is a principle of science and research Islamic psychology is based on three principles namely theo ethics socio ethics and psyco ethics which discusses human relations from a psychological point of view It is the mind that relates to all aspects of life Therefore Islamic psychology deals with all spheres that originate from God alone For that ego or self plays a major role and makes mankind responsible for all his actions Since Islam is a religion of unity then all processes of mind interrelate to not only self but also to God and society Therefore like any other field of knowledge it is hard to separate psychology or the study of mind from other life principles As a matter of fact it is the mind that regulates other affairs being good or bad Islamic psychology emphasizes on making humans responsible for their inner soul activities which lead either to felicity or destruction Since religion is an intellectual property then the study of mind is also a spiritual and intellectually property
