Abstract Expressionists still working at the peak of his powers His luminous paintings and collages acknowledge the great Spanish tradition of Velázquez and Goya while simultaneously exploring the legacy of such modernist masters as Cézanne Picasso Mondrian and Matisse This magnificent volume reproduces all of Vicente's most important works from nearly a half-century of constant evolution between cycles of austere painterly classicism and a passionate explosive baroque Oversize plates including 84 in full color present Vicente's paintings collages and drawings capturing his rich brilliant palette elegant compositions economy of means and passionate clarity of feeling Esteban Vicente is further enriched by extensive quotations from the artist's writings and interviews rare documentary photographs a chronology lists of solo and group exhibitions and public collections bibliography and index 89 colour 48 b/w illustrations Rockefeller, Carnegie, and Canada Jeffrey David

Brison, 2005 In the first half of the twentieth century the Rockefeller Foundation and the Carnegie Corporation helped to create and maintain a cultural and intellectual infrastructure in Canada that benefited key institutions such as University of Toronto McGill University the National Gallery the Humanities Research Council of Canada and the Canadian Social Science Research Council Jeffrey Brison documents how American philanthropy facilitated the transformation from a private localized system of cultural intellectual and academic patronage to a complex nation based system of incorporated patronage a system in which the major patron was the federal state His study calls into question our essentialistic notions of contrasting national identities and the now mythologized juxtaposition of an American culture fuelled by the free market with a Canadian one sustained by state support

Paintings and Sculpture in the Collection of the National Academy of Design:

1826-1925 David Bernard Dearing, National Academy of Design (U.S.), 2004 This is the first installment of a fully illustrated catalogue of the Academy's priceless collection of paintings and sculptures

Creative Canada, 1971-12-15 Did he ever play Hamlet Has she worked in television What was the title of his first novel Under whom did she study How many children has he Answers to such questions about contemporary Canadian artists have often been difficult even impossible to find This series has been created to provide the answers it covers creative and performing artists who have contributed as individuals to the culture of Canada in the twentieth century Each volume in the series presents a cross section of many different kinds of artists authors of imaginative works artists and sculptors musicians performers composers conductors and directors and performing artists in ballet modern dance radio theatre television and motion pictures directors designers and producers in theatre cinema radio television and the dance choreographers and for cinema cartoonists and animators Within each category of art is included a selection of those who have achieved national and international recognition those who have been recognized locally and some now deceased who markedly influenced their contemporaries locally nationally or internationally This is not a critical compilation rather it is an objective and factual reference work for those interested in contemporary Canadian culture Information was collected by painstaking research in a wide variety of sources and wherever possible it has been verified by the artist to make each entry as accurate and comprehensive as possible
