The Masnavi or Mesnevi is one of the most influential works of Sufism, commonly called the Quran in Persian. It has been viewed by many commentators as the greatest mystical poem in world literature. Its diversity, complexity, and profoundness, the timeless themes of power, God, love, and fidelity together make the MASNAVI one of the most compelling and memorable spiritual works of world literature. Its author, the Persian poet and Sufi mystic JALÁLU'D-DÍN RÚMÍ (1207-1273), founded his own religious order, the Whirling Dervishes. To many modern Westerners, his teachings are one of the best introductions to the philosophy and practice of Sufism. This biography explores his life, childhood, timeline, and also his legacy. In the first part of this book, F. Hadland Davis describes Sufism and its principles. In the last part, you can find some major Rumi's poems. LARGE PRINT EDITION

Sufism is a school for the actualization of divine ethics. It involves an enlightened inner being, not intellectual proof, revelation, and witnessing, not logic. By divine ethics, we are referring to ethics that transcend mere social convention, a way of being that is the actualization of the attributes of God. To explain the Truth is indeed a difficult task. Words, being limited, can never really express the perfection of the Absolute, the Unbound. Thus, for those who are imperfect, words create doubt and misunderstanding. Yet, if one cannot drink up the entire ocean, one can drink to one's limit. Philosophers have written volumes and spoken endlessly of the Truth, but somehow their efforts have always fallen short. For the Sufi philosophers are those who view the Perfection of the Absolute from a limited perspective, so all they see is part of the Absolute, not the Infinite in its entirety. It is indeed true that what philosophers see is correct; nevertheless, it is only a part of the whole. One is reminded of Rumi's well-known story of a group of men in India who had never seen an elephant. One day they came to a place where an elephant was. In complete darkness, they approached the animal, each man feeling it. Afterwards, they described what they thought they had perceived. Of course, their descriptions were different. The one who felt a leg imagined the elephant to be a pillar. The one who felt the animal's ear described the elephant as a fan, and so on. Each one of their descriptions, with respect to the various parts they had experienced, was true. However, as far as accurately describing the whole their conceptions had all fallen short If they had had a candle the difference of opinions would not have come about The candle s light would have revealed the elephant as a whole Only by the light of the Spiritual Path and the mystic way can the Truth be discovered In order for one to truly witness the Perfection of the Absolute one must see with one s inner being which perceives the whole of Reality This witnessing happens when one becomes perfect losing one s partial existence in the Whole If the Whole is likened to the Ocean and the part to a drop the sufi says that witnessing the Ocean with the eye of a drop is impossible However when the drop becomes one with the Ocean it sees the Ocean with the eye of the Ocean
