A World Religions Reader Ian S. Markham, Christy Lohr Sapp, 2009-05-26 Providing a comprehensive exploration of the teachings and beliefs of the world's living faiths the third edition of this popular book has been revised and updated to reflect the vibrant role religion plays in the twenty first century The World Religions Reader Explores the unique nature of various faiths by introducing their traditions and rituals ethical dimensions and modern expressions Combines excerpts from sacred texts with reflections from a range of classic and contemporary thinkers from the Bhagavad Gita and the Qur'an to Maimonides and Martin Luther King Jr Significantly expands material on Christianity with a greater emphasis on the diversity of the tradition as expressed in Orthodoxy Catholicism and Protestantism Broadens its coverage with new chapters on Emerging Religions Jainism Zoroastrianism and Indigenous Religions Considers the profound impact of 9/11 on the major religions and the effect it has had on our perceptions of others and on interfaith communication Includes numerous reader friendly features such as key terms sections summary reviews of major beliefs and significant events a glossary and revision and comparative questions

A Comparative Sociology of World Religions Stephen Sharot, 2001-08 A Sociology of World Religions presents a comparative analysis of the world's religions focusing on the differences and interrelationships between religious elites and lay masses In each case the volume contextualizes how the relationships between these two religious forms fit within and are influenced by the wider socio political environment After introducing the book's major themes the volume introduces and builds upon an analysis of Weber's model of religious action drawing on Durkheim Marxist scholars and the work of contemporary sociologists and anthropologists The following chapters each focus on major religious cultures including Hinduism Buddhism Catholicism Protestantism Islam Judaism and the religions of China and Japan This ambitious project is the first to offer a comparison of the popular or folk forms of religion around the world Sharot's accessible introductions to each of the world religions synthesizing a vast literature on popular religion from sociology anthropology and historians of religion make the project ideal for course use His comparative approach and original analyses will prove rewarding even for experts on each of the world religions

The Garden of Reality Roland Faber, 2018-06-20 The Garden of Reality contemplates the relativity of religious truth religious pluralism transreligious discourse postmodern cosmology and multireligious mysticism Its transreligious approach aims at a future multireligious peaceful society in an ecological and cosmic context It proposes that the future of humanity is bound to conviviality with itself and the Earth that the deepest religious motivations of existing together are relative to one another and that transreligious relativity is essential to the conviction of religions that their motivations experiences and conceptualities are meaningful real and true By engaging diverse voices from poststructuralism to Sufism Dzogchen and philosophical Daoism from conceptual frameworks of Christianity and Hinduism to mystical and postmodern cosmology current cosmopolitanism and interreligious and interspiritual discourses but especially understudied contributions of process thought and the Bah religion this book suggests that multireligious conviviality must listen to the universal relevance of a multiplicity of minority voices Its polyphilic pluralism affirms the mutual immanence and co creative nature of religions and spiritualities with the universal in sistence of divine or ultimate reality in the cosmos Embracing a relativistic and evolutionary paradigm in an infinite cosmos of creative becoming religions must cope with events of novelty that disturb and connect transcend and contrast the continuum of their truth claims but must avoid conflict as religious diversity is enveloped by an ever folding landscape of ultimate reality

Discovering World Religions at 24 Frames Per Second Julien R. Fielding, 2008-09-26 Traditionally university students have gained access to world religions by reading primary texts Discovering World Religions at 24 Frames Per Second takes students beyond the written page offering an exploration of the same religious traditions through the study of feature films The many definitions of religion are examined along with its various components including doctrine myth ethics ritual and symbol Specific religious traditions including Hinduism Sikhism Zoroastrianism Buddhism Confucianism Daoism popular religion and Shinto are examined Biographical sketches of directors whose films tend to focus on a particular religious tradition are also included such as Zhang Yimou Hayao Miyazaki Deepa Mehta and Akira Kurosawa Discovering World Religions at 24 Frames Per Second is unique in the area of religion and film studies in that it isn't just a collection of essays Instead it provides the introductory student with the necessary background information on the various religions before looking at how their ideas can be understood not through texts but through the cinematic medium To keep the conversation fresh most of the films used in the book were made within the last decade Furthermore examples range from popular mainstream fare such as Star Wars and the Lord of the Rings trilogy to lesser known foreign films such as The Wooden Man s Bride and The Great Yokai War Several films with a cult like following are also discussed including Fight Club Princess Mononoke Spirited Away and Jacob s Ladder This book is also unique in that instead of drawing upon the Judeo Christian tradition it draws from Eastern traditions The Ocean of God Roland Faber, 2019-06-29 The Ocean of God conveys the proposition that the future of religions if they will not want to contribute to the destruction of humanity will become transreligious Based on the assumption that the spiritual impulse of humanity cannot simply be eradicated religiosity will persist in transreligious forms as secularizations naturalizations and transhumanist dreams only envision such transformations but fall short in their ability to replace the force of spirituality to further civilized peace of human existence on Earth and its future in evolutionary ecological and cosmological dimensions In relating the contributions of religious pluralism to the concept of the unity of religions which have arisen in this new axial age for overcoming the checkered history of religions in furthering peace the program of a polyphilic pluralism with its transreligious discourse based on the insight of the fundamental relativity of religious truth and the special contributions of process philosophy and theology as well as the Bah universe of thought analyses and projects a new religiosity or spirit enabling religions to overcome their deepest motives of strife and warfare Peacemaking and the Challenge of Violence in World Religions Irfan A.

Omar, Michael K. Duffey, 2015-06-22 Written by top practitioner scholars who bring a critical yet empathetic eye to the topic this textbook provides a comprehensive look at peace and violence in seven world religions Offers a clear and systematic narrative with coverage of Buddhism Christianity Confucianism Hinduism Islam Judaism and Native American religions Introduces a different religion and its sacred texts in each chapter discusses ideas of peace war nonviolence and permissible violence recounts historical responses to violence and highlights individuals within the tradition working toward peace and justice Examines concepts within their religious context for a better understanding of the values motivations and ethics involved Includes student friendly pedagogical features such as enriching end of chapter critiques by practitioners of other traditions definitions of key terms discussion questions and further reading sections Interreligious Learning and

Teaching Kristin Johnston Largen, Mary E. Hess, Christy Lohr Sapp, 2014 There is still resistance in Christian institutions to interreligious dialogue The author provides not only the theological grounding for such a position but also advice on how to teach and live out this conviction in a way that promotes greater understanding and respect for others and engenders a deeper appreciation of one's own faith tradition A Reader's Guide to Contemporary Literature William Swan Sonnenschein, 1896 Rising China and Its Postmodern Fate, Volume II Charles Horner, 2015-12-22 In Volume II of his study Rising China and Its Postmodern Fate Charles Horner continues his examination of how China's continuously changing view of its modern historical experience is also changing its understanding of its long intellectual and cultural tradition He reflects on China's current rise not as an anomaly but as part of a long tradition of dramatic transformations and he therefore looks at many different Chinas as they interact with various world systems and ever changing trends He sees China's formation of its future Grand Strategy as a creative intellectual activity which draws on the strategic imagination that can be found in history literature art architecture and urban planning Nonviolence in the World's Religions Jeffery D.

Long, Michael G. Long, 2021-09-23 The twenty first century began with the terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 Much has been written and debated on the relationship between faith and violence with acts of terror at the forefront However the twentieth century also gave rise to many successful nonviolent protest movements Nonviolence in the World's Religions introduces the reader to the complex relationship between religion and nonviolence Each of the essays delves into the contemporary and historical expressions of the world's major religious traditions in relation to nonviolence Contributors explore the literary and theological foundations of a tradition's justification of nonviolence the ways that nonviolence has come to expression in its beliefs symbols rituals and other practices and the evidence of nonviolence in its historic and present responses to conflict and warfare The meanings of both religion and nonviolence are explored through engagement with nonviolence in Hindu Buddhist Chinese Sikh Jewish Christian Islamic Jain and Pacific Island religious traditions This is the ideal introduction to the relationship between religion and violence for undergraduate students as well as for those in related fields such as religious studies peace and conflict studies area studies sociology political science and history

World Christian Trends Ad30-ad2200 (hb) ,2001 Religion without Violence Peter Ochs,2019-11-18 In 1992 Peter Ochs and a few Christian and Muslim colleagues began to gather small groups in and outside the classroom to practice close and attentive reading of the sacred Scriptures of the Jewish Muslim and Christian traditions The hope was that members of different religions could hear one another through the patient respectful reading of each other's Scripture Hearing each other participants might enter into interreligious relationships that might point a way to the peaceful engagement of religions especially those who after September 11 2001 too often found themselves at each other's throats It was a hope for religion without violence Nearly thirty years later this practice of study across difference has seeded an international movement now named Scriptural Reasoning The movement nurtures cooperative study among students scholars and congregants devoted to distinctly different religious and value traditions In Religion without Violence Ochs reflects on the practical and philosophic lessons he has learned from hosting hundreds of Scriptural Reasoning engagements He introduces the scriptural pragmatism of Scriptural Reasoning He painstakingly recounts instances of successful scriptural reasoning and warns where and how it might fail He provides guidance on how to introduce and facilitate Scriptural Reasoning in the classroom He shows how reading out of the hearth of a faith can contribute to peace building across religions And drawing on the resources of rabbinic tradition Augustine and Charles Peirce he moves beyond practice to reflect on the implications of Scriptural Reasoning for discerning what kinds of reasoning best address and help repair societal crises like religion related violent conflict The World's Religions Peter B. Clarke,Peter Beyer,2009-05-07 This comprehensive volume focuses on the world's religions and the changes they have undergone as they become more global and diverse in form It explores the religions of the world not only in the regions with which they have been historically associated but also looks at the new cultural and religious contexts in which they are developing It considers the role of migration in the spread of religions by examining the issues raised for modern societies by the increasing interaction of different religions The volume also addresses such central questions as the dynamics of religious innovation which is evidenced in the rise and impact of new religious and new spirituality movements in every continent Religion Dans L'histoire Michel Despland,Gérard Vallée,Canadian Corporation for Studies in Religion,1992-03-03 The history of the concept of religion in Western tradition has intrigued scholars for years This important collection of eighteen essays brings further light to the ongoing debate Three of the invited participants W C Smith M Despland and E Feil has each previously written impressive books treating this subject the last two acknowledged the impact and continuing influence of Smith s work The Meaning and End of Religion An introduction and a recapitulation of Smith s contribution as a scholar set the stage for a retrospective look at the published literature Contributors then examine the transformation of words the classical religio to the modern religion particularities of religion in nineteenth century France Troeltsch s concept of religion the study of religion from an Asian point of view and the categorization of World Religions The concluding essays elaborate contemporary anthropological cross disciplinary semiological deconstructive and psychoanalytical methodological approaches to the concept and study of religion Exploring critically different aspects of the concept and study of religion these provocative essays typically reflect the methodological pluralism currently existing in the field of Religious Studies Of interest to scholars and students alike this collection also contains a complete bibliography of W C Smith s publications The Highest of All Mountains Samuel K.

Sarpiya,2021-03-18 This book is for people who believe that the gospel is a message of peace and this gospel of peace is relevant for our time Peacemaking is a core part of our Christian discipleship just as we learn how to pray just as we learn how to love our neighbors just as we learn how to feed the hungry We can also learn how to be peacemakers Sarpiya believes that peacemaking is central to the Christian faith and practice This book will serve as a guide that will offer a scriptural guide with practical stories and applications Readers will be challenged by Scripture to take the call to peacemaking into their communities The fact that numerous peace treaties have collapsed serves to show how difficult it is to transcend cycles of violence and foster a sustained durable peace The one place that one could look to for answers about how to move toward peace is within faith communities and sometimes not just one faith acting alone but working alongside other faiths in concert with other faiths taking an interreligious approach The Highest of All Mountains shows how Sarpiya s Christian peacemaking backed by the interreligious approach brings the monotheistic faiths together as they all agreed on one denominator to their faith s origin Abraham The Black Elk Reader Clyde Holler,2000 A compilation of essays by authorities on Black Elk The introduction explores his life and texts and the essays demonstrate Black Elk s relevance to today s scholarly discussions and consider his work from postcolonial anthropological and cultural perspectives The Cosmic Spirit Roland

Faber,2021-03-04 Are we more than stardust Is the appearance of the fragile Earth in the vast universe more than an accident Are we not children of a Spirit that pervades the dust rejuvenates life and embraces the ever evolving universe Is there a cosmic Spirit that wants us to awaken to a consciousness of universal meaning sacred purpose and mutual friendship with all beings This book answers these questions with a spirituality of the numinous in our relation to the elements of the Earth in the matrix of the multiverse by taking you on a journey through nine paths and nineteen meditations of awakening Not bound by any religion but in deep appreciation of the religious and spiritual heritage of human encounters with the divine depth of existence in our selves and in nature they invite you to become sojourners by engaging the most profound embodiments of the intangible Spirit by which it facilitates its own materialization in the cosmos and our spiritualization of the cosmos Use says this Spirit the stardust that you are to become a spirit faring species in an eternal journey of the cosmos to realize its ultimate motive of existence the attraction of love The Metaphysics of Paradox Wm. Andrew

Schwartz,2018-09-15 This book is an exploration into the paradoxical structure of pluralistic thinking as illuminated by both Western and Eastern insights especially Jainism By calling into question the most fundamental assumptions of religious pluralists the author hopes to contribute to a paradigm shift in discourse on religious pluralism and conflicting truth claims

Reading the Sacred Scriptures Fiachra Long,Siobhán Dowling Long,2017-07-14 Reading the Sacred Scriptures From Oral Tradition to Written Documents and their Reception examines how the scriptures came to be written and how their authority has been constructed and reinforced over time Highlighting the measures taken to safeguard the stability of oral accounts this book demonstrates the care of religious communities to maintain with reverence their assembled parchments and scrolls Written by leading experts in their fields this collection chronicles the development of the scriptures from oral tradition to written documents and their reception It features notable essays on the scriptures of Hinduism Judaism Buddhism Zoroastrianism Confucianism Daoism Christianity Islam Sikhism Shinto and Baha i This book will fascinate anyone interested in the belief systems of the featured religions It offers an ideal starting point from which undergraduate and postgraduate religious studies students teachers and lecturers can explore religious traditions from their historical beginnings
