The Young Colonists G a Henty,2020-06-27 The country round Castleton in Derbyshire is greatly admired by summer tourists for it lies in the wildest part of that county but in winter the wind whistles sharply over the bleak hills where there are no trees to break its violence the sheep huddle under the shelter of the roughly built stone walls and even lovers of the picturesque would at that season prefer a more level and wooded country The farm of Mr Humphreys was situated about a mile from Castleton It consisted of 100 acres or so of good land in the bottom and of five or six times as much upland grazing on the hills Mr Humphreys owned as well as farmed his land and so might have claimed had he chosen the title of gentleman farmer but he himself would have scoffed at such an idea He was a hard working practical farmer about over his ground from morning to night save when the hounds met within easy distance in winter then he would mount Robin who served alike as hunter or hack or to drive in the neat dog cart to Buxton market and although there were many handsomer horses in the field Mr Humphreys was seldom far off when the fox was killed
