Manet and Modern Beauty Gloria Groom, 2019-06-25 This stunning examination of the last years of douard Manet's life and career is the first book to explore the transformation of his style and subject matter in the 1870s and early 1880s The name Manet often evokes the provocative heroically scaled pictures he painted in the 1860s for the Salon but in the late 1870s and early 1880s the artist produced quite a different body of work stylish portraits of actresses and demimondaines luscious still lifes delicate pastels intimate watercolors and impressionistic scenes of suburban gardens and Parisian caf's Often dismissed as too pretty and superficial by critics these later works reflect Manet's elegant social world propose a radical new alignment of modern art with fashionable femininity and record the artist's unapologetic embrace of beauty and visual pleasure in the face of death

Featuring nearly three hundred illustrations and nine fascinating essays by established and emerging Manet specialists a technical analysis of the late Salon painting Jeanne Spring a selection of the artist's correspondence a chronology and more Manet and Modern Beauty brings a diverse range of approaches to bear on a little studied area of this major artist's oeuvre

The Private World of Yves Saint Laurent & Pierre Bergé Robert Murphy, 2009 This is not a book on decoration It is a window on two shared worlds So writes Pierre Berg in his foreword to one of the most remarkable documents ever published on Yves Saint Laurent's private realm Yves Saint Laurent was more than a designer of clothing he was for many one of the great style arbiters of the twentieth century His talent made him the youngest and brightest star in the firmament of fashion first with Christian Dior who chose him as his successor and later in his own right as the shy but daring creator of the modern woman's wardrobe His private life was the subject of constant public fascination and the homes that he shared with his lifelong friend and business partner Pierre Berg were extraordinary private cocoons of taste and style Ivan Terestchenko's photographs taken after Yves Saint Laurent's death in 2008 capture these exquisite surroundings and cultured luxury for the last time Yves Saint Laurent and Pierre Berg amassed an exceptional collection of furniture and paintings over some forty years It included important works by Picasso Matisse and Mondrian Old Master paintings by Goya Ingres and Greco and masterpieces of furniture sculpture and silver from the Renaissance to Art Deco Remarkably not a single piece from the collection was sold until the year following Saint Laurent's death A historic sale by auction at the Grand Palais in Paris became the stuff of legend months before it even took place This book revealing a rare union of passion taste and supreme connoisseurship stands as a monument to two of the greatest taste makers of our time

Beyond Market Value Annette Campbell White, 2019-09-03 Beyond Market Value chronicles Annette Campbell White's remarkable life from a childhood spent in remote mining camps throughout the British Commonwealth where books created an imaginary home to her early adulthood in London where she first discovered a vocation as a book collector to Silicon Valley where she built a pioneering career as a formidable venture capitalist She recalls the impulsive purchase of the first book in her collection T S Eliot's A Song for Simeon and her pursuit of rare editions of all one hundred titles listed in Cyril Connolly's The Modern Movement Campbell White's collecting and career peaked in 2005 when she acquired the last of the Connolly titles and was first named to Forbes Midas List the annual ranking of the most successful dealmakers in venture capital In 2007 out of concern for their preservation Campbell White rashly sold the Connolly titles she had spent more than twenty years assembling leading to a new appreciation of what remained of her collection and going forward a broader focus on collecting modernist letters manuscripts and ephemera Beyond Market Value is both a loving tribute to literary collecting and a telling account of the challenges of being a woman in the male dominated world of finance

The China Collectors Karl E. Meyer, Shareen Blair Brysac, 2025-06-25 Thanks to Salem sea captains Gilded Age millionaires curators on horseback and missionaries gone native North American museums now possess the greatest collections of Chinese art outside of East Asia itself How did it happen

The China Collectors is the first full account of a century long treasure hunt in China from the Opium Wars and the Boxer Rebellion to Mao Zedong's 1949 ascent. The principal gatherers are mostly little known and defy invention. They included foreign devils who braved desert sandstorms, bandits and local warlords in acquiring significant works. Adventurous curators like Langdon Warner, a forebear of Indiana Jones, argued that the caves of Dunhuang were already threatened by vandals, thereby justifying the removal of frescoes and sculptures. Other Americans include George Kates, an alumnus of Harvard Oxford and Hollywood who fell in love with Ming furniture. The Chinese were divided between dealers who profited from the artworks removal and scholars who sought to protect their country's patrimony. Duanfang, the greatest Chinese collector of his era, was beheaded in a coup and his splendid bronzes now adorn major museums. Others in this rich tapestry include Charles Lang Freer, an enlightened Detroit entrepreneur; two generations of Rockefellers; and Avery Brundage, the imperious Olympian and Arthur Sackler, the grand acquirer. No less important are two museum directors: Cleveland's Sherman Lee and Kansas City's Laurence Sickman, who challenged the East Coast's hegemony. Shareen Blair Brysac and Karl E Meyer even handedly consider whether ancient treasures were looted or salvaged and whether it was morally acceptable to spirit hitherto inaccessible objects westward where they could be studied and preserved by trained museum personnel. And how should the US and Canada and their museums respond now that China has the means and will to reclaim its missing patrimony.

The Castrato and His Wife Helen Berry, 2011-09-22. The opera singer Giusto Ferdinando Tenducci was one of the most famous celebrities of the eighteenth century. In collaboration with the English composer Thomas Arne, he popularized Italian opera, translating it for English audiences and making it accessible with his own compositions, which he performed in London's pleasure gardens. Mozart and J C Bach both composed for him. He was a rock star of his day with a massive female following. He was also a castrato. Women flocked to his concerts and found him irresistible. His singing pupil Dorothea Maunsell, a teenage girl from a genteel Irish family, eloped with him. There was a huge scandal; her father persecuted them mercilessly. Tenducci's wife joined him at his concerts, achieving a status as a performer she could never have dreamed of as a respectable girl. She also wrote a sensational account of their love affair, an early example of a teenage novel. Embroiled in debt, the Tenduccis fled to Italy and the marriage collapsed when she fell in love with another man. There followed a highly publicized and unique marriage annulment case in the London courts. Everything hinged on the status of the marriage: whether the husband was capable of consummation and what exactly had happened to him as a small boy in a remote Italian hill village decades before. Ranging from the salons of princes and the grand opera houses of Europe to the remote hill towns of Tuscany, the unconventional love story of the castrato and his wife.
