Transforming World Economy, third edition J. Barkley Rosser, Jr., Marina V. Rosser, 2018-01-26 An approach to comparative economic systems that avoids simple dichotomies to examine a wide variety of institutional and systemic arrangements with updated country case studies Comparative economics with its traditional dichotomies of socialism versus capitalism private versus state and planning versus market is changing This innovative textbook offers a new approach to understanding different economic systems that reflects both recent transformations in the world economy and recent changes in the field This new edition examines a wide variety of institutional and systemic arrangements many of which reflect deep roots in countries cultures and histories The book has been updated and revised throughout with new material in both the historical overview and the country case studies It offers a broad survey of economic systems then looks separately at market capitalism Marxism and socialism and new traditional economies with an emphasis on the role of religions Islam in particular in economic systems It presents case studies of advanced capitalist nations including the United States Japan Sweden and Germany alternative paths in the transition from socialist to market economies taken by such countries as Russia the former Soviet republics Poland China and the two Koreas and developing countries including India Iran South

Africa Mexico and Brazil The new chapters on Brazil and South Africa complete the book's coverage of all five BRICS nations the chapter on South Africa extends the book's comparative treatment to another continent The chapter on Brazil with its account of the role of the Amazon rain forest as a great carbon sink expands the coverage of global environmental and sustainability issues Each chapter ends with discussion questions

Hannah Arendt: The Origins of Totalitarianism Expanded Edition (LOA #389) Hannah Arendt, 2025-04-22 A deluxe expanded edition of the masterpiece of political philosophy that transformed how the world thinks about fascism and authoritarianism Includes two fascinating chapters that were later cut and are available in no other edition In 1951 a monumental book by a relatively unknown German Jewish migrant addressed the terrifying new mode of political organization underlying the twin horrors of Stalinism and Nazism Herself a refugee from Nazi persecution Hannah Arendt sought from her exile in New York City to answer the unfathomable questions raised by the Soviet gulag and the Holocaust How could there be such barbarism in the midst of civilization How had governments exerted such absolute control over citizens terrorizing them and enlisting them to commit atrocities on their behalf Arendt's historical and cultural analyses extend to a thorough examination of nineteenth century antisemitism in Europe including a trenchant account of the Dreyfus Affair in France and brilliant insights into imperialism racism and their role in totalitarianism's rise in the 1920s and 1930s Arendt contends that totalitarianism as a political system is now embedded in contemporary life and is as she would later remark the central event of our world Her clear-eyed warning that totalitarianism is not merely a historical episode but is rather a permanent feature of modernity and beyond a danger never to be fully eradicated and a continual temptation for anti-democratic demagogues makes Arendt a half century after her death a preeminent thinker and political philosopher for the twenty-first century The Library of America edition of this indispensable and influential work based on the final version she revised in her lifetime also restores to print Arendt's Concluding Remarks to the 1951 first American edition and a chapter on the Soviet suppression of the Hungarian revolt of 1956 both of which were cut from later editions The first annotated edition of Origins the volume contains concise and thorough glosses on Arendt's many historical and cultural references and its Chronology provides a detailed portrait of her remarkable life
