The Zuma Years South Africa's Changing Face Of Power:

The Zuma Years Richard Calland, 2013-08-16 The face of power in South Africa is rapidly changing for better and for worse The years since Thabo Mbeki was swept aside by Jacob Zuma's coalition of the wounded have been especially tumultuous with the rise and fall of populist politicians such as Julius Malema the terrible events at Marikana and the embarrassing GuptaGate scandal What lies behind these developments How does the Zuma presidency exercise its power Who makes our foreign policy What goes on in cabinet meetings What is the state of play in the Alliance is the SACP really more powerful than before And as the landscape shifts what are the opposition's prospects In The Zuma Years Richard Calland attempts to answer these questions and more by holding up a mirror to the new establishment by exploring how people such as Malema Chief Justice Mogoeng Mogoeng and DA parliamentary leader Lindiwe Mazibuko have risen so fast by examining key drivers of transformation in South Africa such as the professions and the universities and by training a spotlight on the toxic mix of money and politics The Zuma Years is a fly on the wall insider's approach to the people who control the power that affects us all It takes you along the corridors of government and corporate power mixing solid research with vivid anecdote and interviews with key players The result is an accessible yet authoritative account of who runs South Africa and how today

The Zuma Years Richard Calland, 2013 An insightful and entertaining analysis of the changing face of political power in Jacob Zuma's South Africa An accessible yet authoritative account of who runs South Africa and how today

Constitutional Change and Constitutionalism in Africa, 2025-05-16 The new generation of African constitutions crafted in the 1990s marked the beginning of a trend that promised a radical transformation of the continent's governance landscape This movement aimed to eliminate the risks of coups and political instability that had plagued Africa since the 1960s by embedding democracy and constitutionalism However the wave of constitutional reforms post 1990s seems to have sparked a contagious fever of making unmaking and remaking constitutions The nature and frequency of these changes threaten to undermine the progress made in entrenching a culture of constitutionalism good governance and respect for the rule of law It is therefore no surprise that there is almost universal agreement that Africa is now facing a profound crisis of democracy and constitutionalism Constitutional Change and Constitutionalism in Africa examines the nature and extent of these changes which have been occurring more frequently and sometimes more arbitrarily than anticipated Among the main questions investigated are the constitution making process and the roles of various internal actors such as the legislature executive and judiciary as well as external actors like the African Union and Regional Economic Communities in the different processes of constitutional change Ultimately the discussions aim to explore how the processes of constitutional change whether inevitable and unavoidable or contrived can be conducted in a manner that does not undermine or threaten the efforts to entrench democracy constitutionalism good governance and respect for the rule of law on the African continent

The New Black Middle Class in South Africa Roger Southall, 2016 Provides the most comprehensive account since the early 1960s of South Africa's black middle class 2016 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title The rise of the black middle class is one of the most visible aspects of post apartheid society in South Africa Yet while it has been a major actor in the country's democratic reshaping analysis of its role has been all but lacking Rather the image presented by the media has been of black diamonds consumers of the products of advanced industrial economies and of corrupt tenderpreneurs who use their political connections to obtain contracts This book seeks to complicate that picture with a much needed analysis that recounts its historical development in colonial society prior to 1994 before examining the size shape and structure of the new black middle class in contemporary South Africa and its relation to its counterparts in the Global South Roger Southall is Professor Emeritus in Sociology University of the Witwatersrand Southern Africa South Africa Namibia Botswana Lesotho Zimbabwe and Swaziland Jacana

The African Renaissance and the Afro-Arab Spring Charles Villa-Vicencio, Erik Doxtader, Ebrahim Moosa, 2015-04-22 The African Renaissance and the Afro Arab Spring addresses the often unspoken connection between the powerful call for a political cultural renaissance that emerged with the end of South African apartheid and the popular revolts of 2011 that dramatically remade the landscape in Egypt Libya and Tunisia Looking between southern and northern Africa the transcontinental line from Cape to Cairo that for so long supported colonialism its chapters explore the deep roots of these two decisive events and demonstrate how they are linked by shared opposition to legacies of political economic and cultural subjugation As they work from African Islamic and Western perspectives the book's contributors shed important light on a continent's difficult history and undertake a critical conversation about whether and how the desire for radical change holds the possibility of a new beginning for Africa a beginning that may well reshape the contours of global affairs

Elections and TV News in South Africa Bernadine Jones, 2021-08-02 This book takes television news seriously Over the course of nine chapters Elections and TV News in South Africa shows how six democratic South African general elections 1994 2019 were represented on both local and international news broadcasts It reveals the shifting narratives about South African democracy coupled with changing and challenging political journalism practices The book is organised in three parts the first contains a history of South African democracy and an overview of the South African media environment The second part is a visual analysis of the South African elections on television news exploring portrayals of violence security power and populism and how these fit into normative news values and the ruling party's tightening grip on the media The final part is a conclusion a call to action and a suggestion to improve political journalistic practice

Socio-Spatial Small Town Dynamics in South Africa Ronnie Donaldson, 2023-07-14 This book explores small town geographical aspects by approaching them from a socio spatial perspective The contributions included in this book delve into a range of topics that have not been commonly studied before such as white privilege neglect of municipal infrastructure collaborative governance livelihoods in small scale fisheries housing provision well being in mining towns studentification in rural contexts election trends and the historical development of small town spas The book adopts a socio spatial point of view

providing a holistic understanding of the interplay between social and spatial factors within selected small town case studies This approach sheds light on the socio economic political and cultural dynamics that shape small towns This localized perspective allows for a more targeted analysis of issues and potential solutions taking into account the specific historical cultural and political contexts of small town South Africa The edited volume serves as a valuable resource for academics policymakers practitioners and anyone interested in understanding and improving small towns in South Africa

External Powers in Latin America Gian Luca Gardini, 2021-04-21 This book examines the role of external powers in Latin America in the 21st century Non traditional partners have significantly increased their political and economic engagement with the continent Five key questions arise why has this surge taken place when has it happened in which regions and sectors is it mostly felt what is the Latin American perspective and what are the actual results The book analyses 16 case studies the United States the European Union China Russia Japan Canada India Turkey Iran Israel South Korea Taiwan Indonesia the ASEAN countries South Africa and Australia The spectrum of existing explanations in the literature spans from neo extractivism to South South cooperation This volume places them in context and proposes a more multifaceted approach stressing a combination of systemic factors and internal dynamics both in Latin America and in the external partner countries Geopolitics still matters and so do nation states their interests and leaders Ultimately this surge in engagement has largely reproduced past patterns Are new partners that different from the old ones

In The Shadow of Mandela Alexander Johnston, 2019-12-12 This outstanding and original work goes to the heart of South Africa s political problems doubts as to the sustainability of the post apartheid settlement beset with divisions in the ruling ANC factionalism corruption and the widening of fault lines in state and society The leadership issue has become key and this will be the first specific examination of leadership in the light of Mandela s legacy and its effect on his successor as potential and actual leaders all in the shadow of Mandela as the architect of the transition from apartheid to democracy and with overarching moral authority and international reputation Alexander Johnston shows how his successors are judged against Mandela s achievements including the potentially impressive lost leaders and concentrating on his immediate successors Thabo Mbeki and Jacob Zuma The book concludes with an in depth assessment of new president Cyril Ramaphosa s potential to be a leader for a new dawn This is an objective and critical work by a close observer who acknowledges the achievement of South African leadership but is acutely aware of the doubts as to the sustainability of South Africa s hard won democratic settlement An essential read for all readers interested in leadership and in the traumatic history and future of Africa s leading state as the continent rises to global importance

Fate of the Nation Jakkie Cilliers, 2017-07-24 WHAT DOES OUR FUTURE HOLD In these uncertain times this is the question on many South Africans lips Will we become more prosperous and less divided as a nation or remain hugely unequal and generally poor Will the ANC split or eventually be forced into an alliance with the EFF after 2019 Could the DA rule the country after the 2024 elections In Fate of the Nation Jakkie Cilliers develops three scenarios for our immediate future and beyond Bafana Bafana Nation Divided and Mandela Magic Cilliers says the ANC is currently paralysed by the power struggle between what he calls the Traditionalists and the Reformers It is this power struggle that has led to the inept leadership policy confusion and poor service delivery that has plagued the country in recent years Key to which scenario could become our reality is who will be elected to the ANC s top leadership at the party s national conference in December 2017 Whichever group wins there will determine what our future looks like This is a book for all concerned South Africans

A Rumour of Spring Max du Preez,2013-11-27 Democracy in South Africa turns twenty on 27 April 2014 In A Rumour of Spring Max du Preez investigates and analyses the progress and lack of progress the country has made during these twenty years A Rumour of Spring looks at the legacies of Nelson Mandela and Thabo Mbeki in an attempt to understand how we got here and examines Jacob Zuma s presidency to better understand where we are In the context of blatant corruption populism and tragedies such as the Marikana massacre the book considers the current state of the ruling party and the opposition and dissects the big issues currently afflicting our society including the state of education land reform crime and policing the judiciary nationality and race And then with images of the Arab Spring fresh in our collective memory it dares to look to the future and what it may hold An honest and balanced account A Rumour of Spring tackles the questions asked by ordinary South Africans every day How are we really doing What is really going on in our country How should we understand what is happening here And will it get any better

Rattling the Cage Brent Meersman,2021-01-18 Most South Africans have strong views on our past and present often based on how we have been personally affected by history and an understanding of the challenges that face us as a country

But how well examined and solid are these positions Have your views been properly thought through Are you correctly informed Do you even have the facts straight Rattling the Cage takes the reader on an informed tour of the South African reality from the highs and lows the successes and failures FW de Klerk s gaffes to Fees Must Fall the Oscar Pistorius trial the 2010 FIFA World Cup triple BEE global warming the Covid 19 pandemic gay rights in Africa and veganism Among the questions Meersman asks are Do South Africans still believe in their Constitution and democracy Why do so many young South Africans say Nelson Mandela was a sell out and the Truth and Reconciliation Commission was a dismal failure Is outlawing hate speech and criminalising racist behaviour really a good idea Why do communities still burn down their schools How did the Marikana massacre happen in the democratic era Why are African immigrants increasingly unwelcome in South Africa Can our media be trusted to tell us the truth And how do we embrace climate change History big picture philosophy grassroots journalism and a novelist s eye animated by a genuine sense of moral indignation at the current state of the nation come together in these essays to provide critical perspectives on and insights into South Africa s recent past and current political economic and social undercurrents No matter what your views are you are sure to find your understanding of the country deepened challenged and sometimes changed

Representative Bureaucracy and Performance Sergio Fernandez, 2019-11-22 Representative Bureaucracy and Performance Public Service Transformation in South Africa is a first rate blend of quantitative and qualitative analysis of one of the major transitions in modern governance Fernandez makes a major theoretical contribution to the literature on representative bureaucracy in demonstrating how descriptive representation translates into both active representation and better performance His discussion of the crucial role of language and communication brings new insight to the literature on public administration and democracy Kenneth Meier Distinguished Scholar in Residence American University This study of public sector transformation goes beyond the descriptive qualitative research largely found in South African public administration historiography by undertaking sophisticated quantitative analysis to show that representation of previously historically disadvantaged groups under certain circumstances can improve the performance of public organizations This is an excellent contribution not only to public administration scholarship in South Africa but also to the sparse literature on public organizations in developing countries The book should be of great value to scholars and practitioners of public administration as well as to students of political science and organizational studies Robert Cameron Professor University of Cape Town This book provides an excellent analysis of the theory of representative bureaucracy in the context of South African post apartheid government South Africa is an important and fascinating case The work adds substantially to the literature on representative bureaucracy and will be of interest to all who are concerned with the effectiveness of government organizations J Edward Kellough Professor University of Georgia Governments throughout the world seek to promote employment equity and ensure that bureaucracies are representative of the citizenry South Africa offers a rare and fascinating case for exploring what happens to bureaucracies as they undergo demographic transformation Grounded in the theory of representative bureaucracy and using a mixed methods approach this book explores how major changes in the demographics of the South African public service have affected the performance of the institution The empirical analysis offers compelling evidence that representative bureaucracies perform better As public organizations become increasingly representative by hiring historically disadvantaged persons especially Africans their performance improves controlling for a range of factors Evidence indicates representative bureaucracies perform better because they empathize with and advocate for historically disadvantaged communities are equipped with linguistic and cultural competencies to serve a diverse citizenry and can induce compliance cooperation and coproduction

A Theory of African Constitutionalism Berihun Adugna Gebeye, 2021-07-08 A Theory of African Constitutionalism asks and seeks to answer why we need a new theoretical framework for African constitutionalism and how this could offer us better theoretical and practical tools with which to understand improve and assess African constitutionalism on its own terms By locating constitutional studies in Africa within the experiences interactions and contestations of power and governance beginning in precolonial times the book presents the development and transformation of African constitutional systems across time and place along with the attendant constitutional designs and practices ranging from the nature and operation of the African state to its vertical and horizontal government structures to its constitutional rights regime This title offers both a theoretically and comparatively rich historically and contextually informed and temporally and spatially extensive account of the nature travails and incremental successes of African constitutionalism with detailed case studies from Nigeria Ethiopia and South Africa A Theory of African Constitutionalism provides scholars policymakers governments and constitution builders in Africa and beyond with new insights for reimagining the purpose substance and scope of constitutions and constitutionalism

Indigenous African Popular Music, Volume 2 Abiodun Salawu, Israel A. Fadipe, 2022-06-14 This volume examines how African indigenous popular music is deployed in democracy politics and for social crusades by African artists Exploring the role of indigenous African popular music in environmental health communication and gender empowerment it subsequently focuses on how the music portrays the African future its use by African youths and how it is affected by advanced broadcast technologies and the digital media Indigenous African popular music has long been under appreciated in communication scholarship However understanding the nature and philosophies of indigenous African popular music reveals an untapped diversity which can only be unraveled by the knowledge of myriad cultural backgrounds from which its genres originate With a particular focus on scholarship from Nigeria Zimbabwe and South Africa this volume explores how during the colonial period and post independence dispensation indigenous African music genres and their artists were mainstreamed in order to tackle emerging issues to sensitise Africans about the affairs of their respective nations and to warn African leaders who have failed and are failing African citizenry about the plight of the people At the same time indigenous African popular music genres have served as a beacon to the teeming African youths to express their dreams frustrations about their environments and to represent themselves This volume explores how through the advent of new media technologies indigenous African popular musicians have been working relentlessly for indigenous production becoming champions of good governance marginalised population and repositories of indigenous cultural traditions and cosmologies
