The Writersnet Anthology of Prose Gary Kessler,2002-10-08 Battlefield of Life - the Bradford Chronicles Lady Adelle Bradford,2009-09-10 Delving into the mind of this extraordinary woman this book displays a myriad and variety of personal writings and letters poems science fiction short stories and observations on life here in the USA and in Germany Have you ever given any thought to how life seems to arrange itself like a battlefield We struggle to get born and get that first life giving breath and it seems like every day from then on we continue to struggle for one reason or another on one battle front or another If you have struggled to make your way into an elite tightly knit group and struggled to establish some sort of acceptance rank status and respect from the members of that group who would on an issue of morality of basic right and wrong of honor be willing to risk and jeopardize that which he or she has struggled so hard to obtain by speaking out on a clear and obvious wrong being committed Examine the issues in this book and wonder if some of us will ever find the answer

Delilah Cross - Memorial Edition Adelle Bradford,2009-05 The Secret of the Mothers When a child is discovered living with Bonobo Apes in the jungles of the Congo no one knows her secrets Delilah's mother escapes from a German compound in Africa by killing the scientist responsible for her state of pregnancy Ten years later Delilah becomes a ward of the Brighton Foundation where she is first introduced to human behavior by a religious fanatic later she is transferred from that facility and learns and confronts the evils of the foundation's head and her secrets of human experimentation and genetic manipulation emerge The question remains Who is Delilah Cross

The Long Journey Home Adelle Bradford,2009-04-29 Adelle Bradford was a child of the dustbowl I have seen heard and fully experienced so very many things that are now but yesterday's dreams dry and musty historical facts lost in the pages of dusty old books or slowly fading away in musty old photo albums full of yesterday's forgotten people Although my first few years of life didn't start out that way I became a Great Depression child in the early thirties I lived in tent cities and shanty towns erected by men too proud to go on the dole I was taught that even though your floor was dirt you carefully brushed it clean each day and even though you had no shoes you washed your feet every night Stories of despair and triumph poetry and a lifetime of writing because Adelle Bradford could not help it as I attempt to paint my mind pictures in words for others to see

The Bramble Bush - Pages from Dell's Book of Life Adelle Bradford,2009-05-26 Most human beings have their own private places places to hide places to conceal their most tender feelings places to dream cry nurse wounds and heal undisturbed by casual public scrutiny uncaring passersby I visualize my private place as a big leafy green bramble bush full of protective thorns These thorns are long and sharp to be sure but they are not poisonous They are there to protect my private place and keep intruders away unless I decide to invite them in and they do provide safe secure perches for visitors like you I think of my life as a book It has a beginning and an end with a finite number of pages in between Across the years there have been certain moments certain feelings and moods certain experiences and observations certain days good and bad that linger in memory bookmarks in a commonplace life I am not an artist but I try to paint my sketches and pictures with words brush stroke word by brush stroke word

The Haven Tontine - A Growing Danger Lady Adelle Bradford,2009-09-26 Six young people came to the conclusion that the whole world was heading for disaster The government was no longer anything vaguely resembling the picture most people had of it The bureaucratic empire builders the special interest groups the politicians themselves for the most part cared little about those people they supposedly represented and this was slowly becoming something entirely different a kind of government of itself by itself for itself self protecting and self perpetuating but huge cracks were forming in its foundations Overpopulation was rapidly proving old man Malthus to be correct in his doctrine that a finite object like the earth could not feed an infinite population Instead of living breeding and dying in their mud huts and tin shacks without once ever questioning the way things were they were shown all the marvels and wonders of flush toilets the pleasure of a full belly the power of a dollar and quite reasonably they wanted it for themselves and their children

A Long Road to Anywhere Adelle Bradford,2009-05-01 A girl child grows up and out of The Great Depression Where to begin this story Almost any place would do but people like real beginnings and endings so the year 1929 is as good a place as any That was the year that a little girl s love affair with animals began The child almost by osmosis soaked up values ideals concepts and a philosophy of life along with an ability to observe understand respect and sometimes love every living thing And just as her father showed her that each duck had a distinct individual personality reasoning power and the ability to communicate with anyone who understands duckese he also taught her about death and its necessity if life is to continue This is a difficult lesson for anyone but a lesson everyone must eventually learn and come to terms with no matter how hard and hurting they find it Life is not only full of beginnings it is also full of endings

The Business of Common Sense in Business Lady Adelle Bradford,2009-08-05 This book is written for small business owners not so small business owners and all levels of management and supervisory personnel It is not intended to be an expert s how to fix it manual or a detail oriented technically learned textbook Rather it is presented as a series of short down to earth articles discussing various sometimes overlooked aspects of management problems faced in day to day business operations out there in the real world where every unsolved problem no matter how small has a negative effect on bottom line figures Unfortunately playing ostrich and hoping some of these small business bugs will simply wander away without biting you in the nether portions of your anatomy simply doesn t work They don t go away they just hang around and grow until they re big enough to forcibly yank your head out of the sand and demand attention

Gary D. Kessler, 2016-08-16 An inspirational guide to lateral thinking when writing family and personal histories Whether or not there s a heaven or a hell people will live on in the memories of those they ve left behind On that premise along with the belief that we all have life stories philosophies and influences simply by having been to pass on down to later generations that we don t have to have been celebrities Gary Kessler offers up a collection of vignettes on his somewhat unusual and adventuresome life and the events that influenced that life Most of the vignettes in the form of essays short stories and poems in this collection were entries in writing contests and or published in anthologies Others have been added to fill in holes on life influencing events The purpose of Of Me I Muse is both to pass on a slice of who we were what influenced us from two generations before the author to the extent they could be captured and preserved in the eleventh hour of losing them and an encouragement to others to record in some fashion the major points of their lives before letting them be lost to help keep themselves alive in the minds of their descendants You don t have to have been a celebrity to play
