Krishna On Yoga BV Avadoot Swami,2019-09-16 Yoga means to link Links with the bond of love are the strongest Therefore yoga in real terms means bhakti or the yoga of devotion which is the summit of all yoga disciplines Karma yoga gyana yoga and bhakti are the three primary levels of yoga practice Karma yoga does not award liberation from samsara or the repeated cycle of birth and death Gyana yoga does award a type of liberation but generally that liberation is temporary and destroys any type of divine relationship or service Bhakti is natural and also eternally existent within the heart of the very soul and therefore far above all other yoga disciplines and goals When the covering of the material energy is removed by regular sadhana then the dormant divine service attitude is revealed without extraneous endeavors for perfection Once realized this knowledge will bestow the most blissful existence on the practitioner Once one tastes the pleasure of devotional service in bhakti yoga he feels as if even the so called pleasure of impersonal liberation to be like a drop of water compared to the ocean of transcendental bliss obtained in pure loving sentiments for the Supreme Absolute Personality of Godhead

Lord Krishna explains to Arjun the path to achieving salvation or liberation through knowledge. He advises Arjun to forget all religions and take refuge in the one true self which is the source of all life. Lord Krishna identifies himself as the soul of all beings and the only God. The original Sanskrit word used in Bhagavad Gita for the one true self is Vraj Lord Krishna emphasizes that the soul is one in which there is no difference between himself and the individual soul. This is why the word Mamekam is used which means one and only. Lord Krishna further explains that as long as one thinks of him and themselves as separate one cannot achieve perfection. The self realization that Lord Krishna speaks of is detailed in the second chapter of the Bhagavad Gita. The essence of Gita Shastra is to seek the shelter of the one true self which is the divine self. Lord Krishna explains that God takes birth to establish Dharma the true nature of man. He preaches Dharma from place to place in Bhagavad Gita and urges one to leave behind the vanity of their virtues attachment to sensory knowledge company of lack and the value of their best deeds. Whatever one's natural temperament one should go to the shelter of God the divine self. Lord Krishna advises letting go of everything and becoming centred on the self. He assures that once one becomes centred in the self karmic bonds will vanish on their own. Thus there is no need to worry about this matter. In summary Lord Krishna's teachings in this chapter emphasize the importance of seeking refuge in the one true self which is the divine self. He urges one to let go of all worldly attachments and become centred on the self to achieve ultimate liberation or Moksha. Srimad Bhagavad Gita T.N. SETHUMADHAVAN, 2015-03-26 Srimad Bhagavad Gita has been a source of inspiration and enlightenment for generations. The message of the Gita is not merely a general spiritual philosophy or ethical doctrine but it has a bearing upon the practical aspects in the application of such principles in our day to day lives. It is indeed A Users Manual for the Practice of the Art of Right Living. The radiance of such Bhagavad Gita is being presented by the author to the readers of the modern generation covering the subject in an informal style with transliterated Sanskrit Verses their lucid translation and explanatory notes. At the end of each chapter its Outline View has also been provided for a quick recapitulation. The author has steered clear off all the scholastic debates and intellectual controversies with a view to reach out to the average modern educated young people who require the strength of the Gita to wade through the current day troubled waters. Krishna's Kiss Varalotti Rengasamy, 2021-02-21 The great Lord the Flautist Krishna has come down to kiss us. We cover our cheeks with our hands. We do not want His kiss. We want something else an I phone a larger house promotion pay hike oh it's a long list. Lord Krishna gave Bhagavad Gita to us only to prepare us for His kiss. The kind Lord almost whispered Bhagavad Gita in your ears. Why. Only to remove your hands from your cheeks. So that He can kiss you with His beautiful lips. I beg of you dears please remove your hands. Once you taste His kiss everything else in the world will be insipid. And that kiss can even transform an ugly frog into a handsome prince. But once you taste that kiss you will never want to become a prince. You will rather be a frog living in filth waiting for that kiss for all eternity. The name Bhagavad Gita has been translated as The Divine Song Or The Song Celestial Or as The Song of Love. Personally I will prefer to translate it as
