

Theater Arts/Creative Movement Lesson Plan

Lesson Number:

Fourth Month

Art Form(s):

Theater Arts

Grade Level(s):

D-5 Special Education

Class Organization:

Students will break apart into small groups

WARM-UP:

Exercise #1

Pushing Fingers

- Students participate, dipping their fingers into a bowl of pudding.
- As a group, push the pudding around the room, demanding fingers and arms out in a bowl "field"
- Repeat forward, right, left, up, down, forward to build a movement sequence
  - The focus is on vocal propulsion and expelling energy through arm's fingertips

Exercise #2

Push the Center

- Students create a physical gesture and sound
- The rest of students do their right opposite, and so on
- The gesture is passed around the circle like dominoes falling

Exercise #3

Gesture Dance

- Each student creates their own gesture, building off the person before them
- The group repeats the whole sequence like a dance

DANCE SPACE:

Exercise #4

Follow Progression

- All students move and freeze to the drum
- Have drummers and freeze as if they are building a tower ball up the field
- Give them the following directions:
  - "Freeze as if you are about to kick the ball at the goal"
  - "Freeze as if you are the goalie trying to block the shot"
  - "Freeze as if you are celebrating the goal"
  - "Quickly change between phrases when I hit the drum"
  - "Have transition between them in slow motion"

One Teacher's Reflection These are stories written by teachers who reflect on specific incidents related to the chapter topic. These stories come from their own classroom and are meant to stimulate thinking about the connection between theory and practice. Teacher Action Project These teacher action projects are meant to inspire deeper more global connections between the teacher and the chapter topic. Teachers might be prompted to visit other classrooms, other schools, or other communities. The projects are meant to expose teachers to the chapter topics in a more visceral way than if the preparation had only been through reading. Suggested Readings and Resources This section provides the teacher with further reading materials, websites, and references extending the action projects by providing teachers with more tools for developing further lessons and projects for their own students. FULL LESSON PLANS Three complete lesson plans in each chapter provide novice and experienced teachers with step-by-step lesson plans. Presenting a predictable and accessible format, each lesson plan includes the following information: Grade levels: Lessons are divided among three categories: Elementary (K-5), Middle School (6-8), and High School (9-12), with one example of each level provided for each topic. chapter: Though teachers should feel comfortable adapting the lessons to work in their own school context. Content areas addressed: A list of subject or content areas that are touched upon in the lesson and/or action project. Topic: A brief description of the main topic or topics to be addressed in the lesson. Rationale for Using This Lesson: This section seeks to answer the "why bother" question when deciding what curriculum to include in one's class. It provides a sense of the importance of the topic of the lesson. Background Information: Provides the teacher and the students with some necessary information about the main topic(s) in the lesson. Goals/Aims: Gives the teacher a sense for what s/he can expect students to be able to accomplish or do during the lesson and/or as a result of the action project. Connections to Standards: Links to national standards for all the content areas that are included in the lesson. The national standards used in the book were culled from national professional organizations specific to each subject area as well as the excellent compendium of content standards and benchmarks for K-12 education located on the McREL Mid-continent Research for Education and Learning website (www.mcrel.org). Materials: A recipe-style list of the materials needed to do all of the activities in the lesson and action project. A step-by-step Activity: Includes description of the tasks or activities in the lesson. Action project: A task that helps translate the topic of the lesson into a project that helps benefit the class, the school, or the community. Reflection: Questions for the teacher to reflect on after having presented the lesson to students. These questions may serve as prompts for discussion with colleagues or as topics for reflective journal entries. Resource Page: Photocopiable handout pages that are connected to the lesson.
