Theatrical Theology Explorations In Performing The Faith:

Theatrical Theology Trevor Hart, Wesley Vander Lugt, 2015-03-26 Theology is inherently theatrical rooted in God s performance on the world stage and oriented toward faith seeking performative understanding in the theatre of everyday life Following Hans Urs von Balthasar's magisterial five volume Theo Drama a growing number of theologians and pastors have been engaging more widely with theatre and drama producing what has been recognised as a theatrical turn in theology Theatrical Theology includes essays from thirteen theologians and pastors who have contributed in distinct ways to this theatrical turn and who desire to deepen interdisciplinary dialogue between theology and theatre The result is an unprecedented collection of essays that embodies and advances theatrical theology for the purpose of enriching theological reflection and edifying the church Themelios, Volume 41, Issue 1 D. A. Carson, 2016-05-23 Themelios is an international evangelical peer reviewed theological journal that expounds and defends the historic Christian faith Themelios is published three times a year online at The Gospel Coalition http thegospelcoalition org themelios and in print by Wipf and Stock Its primary audience is theological students and pastors though scholars read it as well Themelios began in 1975 and was operated by RTSF UCCF in the UK and it became a digital journal operated by The Gospel Coalition in 2008 The editorial team draws participants from across the globe as editors essayists and reviewers General Editor D A Carson Trinity Evangelical Divinity School Managing Editor Brian Tabb Bethlehem College and Seminary Consulting Editor Michael J Ovey Oak Hill Theological College Administrator Andrew David Naselli Bethlehem College and Seminary Book Review Editors Jerry Hwang Singapore Bible College Alan Thompson Sydney Missionary Nathan A Finn Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary Hans Madueme Covenant College Dane Ortlund Crossway Jason Sexton Golden Gate Baptist Seminary Editorial Board Gerald Bray Beeson Divinity School Lee Gatiss Wales Evangelical School of Theology Paul Helseth University of Northwestern St Paul Paul House Beeson Divinity School Ken Magnuson The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary Jonathan Pennington The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary James Robson Wycliffe Hall Mark D Thompson Moore Theological College Paul Williamson Moore Theological College Stephen Witmer Pepperell Christian Fellowship Robert Yarbrough Covenant Seminary What Job's Friends Could Have Done Stephen Torr, 2025-08-19 In a world that is becoming more aware of the impact of traumatic experiences on the lives of individuals the church is faced with the challenge of examining how to do life well together in a way that helps rather than hinders those who are living in the aftermath of trauma Beginning with the question of what Job's friends could have done differently to help Job in the midst of his suffering the present work draws on Kevin Vanhoozer's theodramatic model and the Object Relations Theory of British pediatrician and psychoanalyst Donald Winnicott to provide biblically rooted guidance for developing a trauma sensitive church In bringing these perspectives together exploration takes place into what it means to be made in the image of God in the theodrama and what the church's role is in enabling the christological form of this image to take shape in each individual particularly in the aftermath of individual trauma The work of Winnicott provides fresh insight into how this development might be facilitated by the church within the theodrama of salvation Faith Speaking Understanding Kevin J. Vanhoozer, 2014-09-19 In this volume highly esteemed scholar Kevin Vanhoozer introduces readers to a way of thinking about Christian theology that takes the work he began in the groundbreaking 2005 book The Drama of Doctrine to its next level Vanhoozer argues that theology is not merely a set of cognitive beliefs but is also something we do that involves speech and action alike He uses a theatrical model to explain the ways in which doctrine shapes Christian understanding and forms disciples The church Vanhoozer posits is the preeminent theater where the gospel is performed with doctrine directing this performance Doctrines are not simply truths to be stored shelved and stacked but indications and directions to be followed practiced and enacted In performing doctrine Christians are shaped into active disciples of Jesus Christ He goes on to examine the state of the church in today s world and explores how disciples can do or perform doctrine Written in an accessible and engaging style Faith Speaking Understanding sets forth a compelling vision of what the church is and what it should be doing and demonstrates the importance of Christian doctrine for this mission Disciples who want to follow Christ in all situations need doctrinal direction as they walk onto the social stage in the great theater of the world The Christian faith is about acknowledging and participating in the great thing God is doing in our world making all things new in Christ through the Holy Spirit Doctrine ministers understanding of God of the drama of redemption of the church as a company of faithful players and of individual actors all of whom have important roles to play In an age where things fall apart and centers fail to hold doctrine centers us in Jesus Christ in whom all things hold together T&T Clark Handbook of Theology and the Arts Stephen M. Garrett, Imogen Adkins, 2025-04-24 This volume presents the theology arts conversation from a distinctly Christian perspective as a witness of the Gospel of Christ to the world A widespread interest in the historical socio cultural and political embeddedness of theology and the arts permeates it This theme of embeddedness tracks through several overarching and interlocking concerns the relationship between form and content in both art and theology the intensification of the metaphysical and the theological contra materialist and positivist reductionisms the expansion of the epistemological possibilities of the theology art conversation and a robust understanding of the world as the theatre of God's glory Several chapters have been co written by theologians and artists as part of demonstrating the kind of conversation that this book commends A thorough going commitment to Scripture is also woven into the many different habits of thought represented in this volume Part I surveys different approaches to the theology arts conversation Part II focuses on how particular art forms bring theological issues to the surface and how theological and denominational traditions shape the making and receiving of the arts Part III delves into key topics in the current theology arts scene and asks how artistic and theological performance can both speak to theological and artistic knowing and help to celebrate and interrogate embodied lived reality The Problem with The Dot Bruce D. Long, 2021-03-02 The Problem with the Dot is rooted in the idea that culture is a garden to be tended Gen 2 15 rather than a war to be won and uses the analogy of an ecosystem to expand the details of the individual components of the theatrical ecosystem to 1 Help those with minimal exposure to theater understand the indivisible construct of the theatrical ecosystem 2 Identify areas of Christian neglect within each component and 3 Emphasize strategic corrections that will result in the holistic restoration of a healthy global culture Each chapter strengthens the case for a long term holistic approach to the care and cultivation of global culture through the theatrical ecosystem culminating in a call to action that is magnified by the unique opportunity presented by the 2020 global pandemic that forced a hiatus on all theatrical productions. The market will reset and artists will revive theaters. It is my prayer that when this grand reopening occurs around the globe Christians are an integral part of the new beginning God on Broadway Charles Anthony Gillespie, 2025-11-18 God on Broadway explores the theological questions cracked open by commercial theatre It shows how the Great White Way that apex of consumerism and a synonym for the business of spectacle can be a place for the ophany and critical reflection on religion Looking for God on Broadway is a way of doing theology a method for talking about God Theology and the Mirror of Scripture Kevin J. Vanhoozer, Daniel J. Treier, 2015-11-09 In this Provided by publisher inaugural volume in the Studies in Christian Doctrine and Scripture Kevin J Vanhoozer and Daniel J Treier set forth a programmatic proposal for evangelical theology rooted in the claim that the church's vocation is to mirror the witness of Scripture in its doctrine and discipleship Improvisation Samuel Wells, 2018-11-06 This introductory textbook establishes theatrical improvisation as a model for Christian ethics helping Christians embody their faith in the practices of discipleship Clearly accessibly and creatively written it has been well received as a text for courses in Christian ethics The repackaged edition has updated language and recent relevant resources and it includes a new afterword by Wesley Vander Lugt and Benjamin D Wayman that explores the reception and ongoing significance of the text Participation and Covenant Dick Moes, 2024-03-13 In Participation and Covenant Contours of a Theodramatic Theology Moes develops a theological framework that has participation in the life of God in Christ through the Spirit as its integrative center In doing so he enters into conversation with covenant or federal theology particularly as it has been presented by Michael Horton in which the integrative center is the concept of the covenant He argues that God's fundamental relationship with humanity does not entail a covenant ontology a fundamentally legal and ethical relationship to God as we find in Horton's presentation but rather an ontology of participating in God's loving presence in Christ through the Holy Spirit For this relationship we were created and this participation is therefore natural to us Accordingly a theodramatic framework that incorporates a reframed understanding of divine human covenants and that has participation in the life of God in Christ by the Spirit as its integrative center is better able to give direction for clearly communicating the gospel in our secular culture and for properly shaping our Christian identity and practice in the face of the secularism that affects the church too than Horton's framework of covenant theology T&T Clark Companion to the Theology of Kierkegaard, 2019-09-19 This companion explores S ren

Kierkegaard's theological importance offering a comprehensive reading of his work through a distinctly theological lens including interpretative concerns his approach to specific doctrines and theological trajectories for thinking beyond his work Beginning with essays on key interpretative factors involved in approaching Kierkegaard's complex corpus there are also historical accounts of his theological development followed by for the first time in a single volume focused expositions of Kierkegaard's approach to particular doctrinal themes from those oft discussed in his work e.g. Christology to those more understated e g Pneumatology The book concludes with theological trajectories for Kierkegaard's thought in the twenty first century This volume helps not only to situate Kierkegaard s theology more firmly on the map but to situate Kierkegaard more firmly on the theological map as one who has much to offer both the form and content of the theological task Public Theology Sunday Bobai Agang, Dion A. Forster, H. Jurgens Hendriks, 2020-04-30 Africa needs leaders and Christians from every walk of life to rediscover their identity and purpose in all spheres of society African Public Theology sounds a clarion call to accomplish this vital task God created all humans equally intending for us to live in community and take responsibility for the world around us a mandate we need to act on Through faithful application of Scripture to contexts common in the continent today contributors from across Africa join as one to present a vision for the Africa that God intended No simplistic solutions are offered instead African Public Theology challenges every reader to think through the application of biblical principles in their own community place of work and sphere of influence If we heed the principles and lessons that God's word has for society culture and public life then countries across Africa can have hope of a future that is free from corruption and self promotion and is instead characterized by collective stewardship and servant hearted leadership

Claiming God Christine Helmer, Shannon Craigo-Snell, 2022-11-09 Marilyn McCord Adams 1943 2017 was a world renowned philosopher a theologian who forever changed conversations about God and evil a compelling preacher and a fierce advocate for the full belonging of LGBTQ people especially in churches Over the course of her career she mentored philosophers theologians pastors and activists In this book authors from each of these fields engage and expand upon McCord Adams s work Chapters address theodicy and the Holocaust the nature and limits of human free will sexual violence Trinitarian relations beatific vision friendship climate change and how to protest heterosexism with truth humor and cookies Examples of McCord Adams s revised Episcopal liturgies previously unpublished are used to affirm the expansive love of God Accessible and varied these essays attest to McCord Adams s vocational integration as she claimed and proclaimed God s goodness in her different professional roles Seeing Right Jason M. R. Fallin, 2025-06-24 Evangelical identity in the United States has become increasingly contested over the past several years as many try to fathom adherents motives Seeing Right suggests that it is through the exploration of aesthetic texts that we can better understand With a focus on highlighting Evangelical virtues and vices Seeing Right analyzes the aesthetics fundamental to Evangelical identity and moral formation Aesthetic texts and practices represent a fundamental source of Evangelical moral formation providing a narrative that shapes imaginations and dispositions Jason Fallin traces the process of formation as it grows out of Evangelical interactions with the aesthetic texts produced by Operation Christmas Child the radio stations of K Love and Christian cinema He then discovers the relationship between Evangelicals engagement with these aesthetic texts and the practices they animate Moral formation is key for all Christianity thus through these processes at work in Evangelical culture Seeing Right offers insight both into Evangelical development and into the processes that fund one s own formation Hearing and Doing the Word Daniel J. Treier, Douglas A. Sweeney, 2021-07-29 This collection of essays honours Kevin J Vanhoozer by representing the current state of evangelical hermeneutics in light of his work The volume consists of three parts The Biblical Script Great Performances and Theodrama Today Each part contains wide ranging contributions from well known scholars who address important topics for contemporary hermeneutics in dialogue with Vanhoozer's influential work Kevin J Vanhoozer is today s leading evangelical theologian of biblical interpretation He is one of the most influential voices in contemporary hermeneutics and in academic theology he is one of his generation s most influential evangelicals Reading Christian Theology in the Protestant Tradition Kelly Kapic, Hans Madueme, 2018-01-25 Reading Christian Theology in the Protestant Tradition offers a distinctive approach to the value of classic works through the lens of Protestantism While it is anachronistic to speak of Christian theology prior to the Reformation as Protestant it is wholly appropriate to recognize how certain common Protestant concerns can be discerned in the earliest traditions of Christianity The resonances between the ages became both informative and inspiring for Protestants who looked back to pre reformation sources for confirmation challenge and insight Thus this book begins with the first Christian theologians covering nearly 2000 years of theological writing from the Didache Justin Martyr and Origen to James Cone Jos M guez Bonino and Sallie McFague Five major periods of church history are represented in 12 key works each carefully explained and interpreted by an expert in the field

Behold and Become Jeremy M. Kimble ,2023-06-20 The Bible is not merely for information but for being saved by God and changed through his words Believers know the Bible is powerful but how so And how does God save people and transform lives through Scripture Author and theology professor Jeremy M Kimble integrates an evangelical doctrine of Scripture with a robust coherent practice of engaging with Scripture Behold and Become contends that the Bible which is God s self revelation coupled with the Spirit works to produce salvation and growth in godliness Believers will see how sound beliefs about Scripture correspond with practices that allow for God s transforming work such as How the Bible s inerrancy demands our careful attention to the biblical authors as theologians How the Bible s efficacy operates within the doctrines of the triune God and the church How the Bible s authority directs our focus toward who God is and how he acts in the world We become like what we behold Rather than passively assume the animating power of the Bible Behold and Become guides readers to make Scripture s vitality an overt part of their theology of Scripture and practice of Christian life

Re-Envisioning Transformation David C. Scott, 2018-09-14 In today s church use of the term transformation has become commonplace Various perspectives are offered on what a Christian view of transformation is and on how it may be achieved These often conflicting views suggest an ecclesial landscape characterized by pluralism division fragmentation confusion relativism individualism pragmatism and subjectivism Despite the current interest in transformational theology the absence of a common coherent and integrated vision and the lack of transformation is often accepted and affirmed Re Envisioning Transformation looks at the possibility of moving toward a vision of transformational theology that is cohesive unified broad effectual and distinctly Christian In this book the contributions of two radically differenttheologians of the Christian life are examined This provides the basis from which to develop a comprehensive and integrated framework of transformational theology pointing God's people toward the need to express and live out a distinctly Christian vision Foulger, 2024-11-30 New Churches A Theology considers the theological issues and questions that surface from the starting of new churches in the UK context Offering both a theology for starting new churches to support guide encourage and challenge practitioners to plant fully Christian churches and a theology from new churches using new churches as an opportunity to explore vital theological ecclesiological and missiological questions we might otherwise miss the book brings together some of those most significant voices in the conversation today speaking from a wide spread of perspectives including theologians and practitioners pioneers and planters evangelical and Anglo Catholic Creation W. David O. Taylor, Jeremy Begbie, 2019-09-03 How do the arts in worship form individuals and communities Every choice of art in worship opens up and closes down possibilities for the formation of our humanity Every practice of music every decision about language every use of our bodies every approach to visual media or church buildings forms our desires shapes our imaginations habituates our emotional instincts and reconfigures our identity as Christians in contextually meaningful ways generating thereby a sense of the triune God and of our place in the world Glimpses of the New Creation argues that the arts form us in worship by bringing us into intentional and intensive participation in the aesthetic aspect of our humanity that is our physical emotional imaginative and metaphorical capacities In so doing they invite the people of God to be conformed to Christ and to participate in the praise of Christ and in the praise of creation which by the Spirit's power raises its peculiar voice to the Father in heaven for the sake of the world that God so loves
