Theft of an Idol Paul R. Brass, 2020-09-01 As collective violence erupts in many regions throughout the world we often hear media reports that link the outbreaks to age old ethnic or religious hostilities thereby freeing the state its agents and its political elites from responsibility Paul Brass encourages us to look more closely at the issues of violence ethnicity and the state by focusing on specific instances of violence in their local contexts and questioning the prevailing interpretations of them Through five case studies of both rural and urban public violence including police public confrontations and Hindu Muslim riots Brass shows how out of many possible interpretations applicable to these incidents government and the media select those that support existing relations of power in state and society Adopting different modes narrator detective and social scientist Brass treats incidents of collective violence arising initially out of common occurrences such as a drunken brawl the rape of a girl and the theft of an idol and demonstrates how some incidents remain localized while others are fit into broader frameworks of meaning thereby becoming useful for upholders of dominant ideologies Incessant talk about violence and its implications in these circumstances contributes to its persistence rather than its reduction Such treatment serves in fact to mask the causes of violence displace the victims from the center of attention and divert society's gaze from those responsible for its endemic character Brass explains how this process ultimately implicates everyone in the perpetuation of systems of violence

Murder in the Bylanes Alok Lal, Maanas Lal, 2022-02-15 UNPUTDOWNABLE
Tehelka Keeping the peace in a time of chaos Uttar Pradesh in the aftermath of the Babri Masjid demolition was a state on edge When Alok Lal took over as the Deputy Inspector General of Kanpur the congratulations came with a warning to move with caution as Kanpur was then the most volatile city in north India In Murder in the Bylanes Lal recounts his time policing a city on the brink of riots particularly after the violent killing of the prominent local politician and slumlord Munna Sonkar aka Kala Bachcha Seen as both a bulwark for Hindus against Muslims and a saviour of several of his Muslim tenants he was a study in contradiction and his murder was seen as the last straw by both communities Murder in the Bylanes is a gripping account of how a demoralised and broken police force reduced to being a bystander in pockets where criminals controlled localities was asked to maintain order It is also a reminder of how communal disharmony can tear apart our social fabric

Hate Spin Cherian George, 2016-09-23 How right wing political entrepreneurs around the world use religious offense both given and taken to mobilize supporters and marginalize opponents In the United States elements of the religious right fuel fears of an existential Islamic threat spreading anti Muslim rhetoric into mainstream politics In Indonesia Muslim absolutists urge suppression of churches and minority sects fostering a climate of rising intolerance In India Narendra Modi's radical supporters instigate communal riots and academic censorship in pursuit of their Hindu nationalist vision Outbreaks of religious intolerance are usually assumed to be visceral and spontaneous But in Hate Spin Cherian George shows that they often involve sophisticated campaigns manufactured by political opportunists to mobilize supporters and marginalize opponents Right wing networks orchestrate the giving of offense and the taking of offense as instruments of identity politics exploiting democratic space to promote agendas that undermine democratic values George calls this strategy hate spin a double sided technique that combines hate speech incitement through vilification with manufactured offense taking the performing of righteous indignation It is deployed in societies as diverse as Buddhist Myanmar and Orthodox Christian Russia George looks at the world s three largest democracies where intolerant groups within India s Hindu right America s Christian right and Indonesia s Muslim right are all accomplished users of hate spin He also shows how the Internet and Google have opened up new opportunities for cross border hate spin George argues that governments must protect vulnerable communities by prohibiting calls to action that lead directly to discrimination and violence But laws that try to protect believers feelings against all provocative expression invariably backfire They arm hate spin agents offense taking campaigns with legal ammunition Anti discrimination laws and a commitment to religious equality will protect communities more meaningfully than misguided attempts to insulate them from insult Nationalist Passions Stuart J.

Kaufman,2015-11-06 Nationalist and ethnic conflict can take many forms from genocidal violence and civil war to protest movements and peaceful squabbles in democracies Nationalist Passions poses a stark challenge to extreme rationalist understandings of political conflict Stuart J Kaufman elaborates a compelling theory of ethnic politics to explain why ethnic violence erupts in some contexts and how peace is maintained in others At the core of Kaufman s theory is an assertion that conflicts are initiated due to popular symbolic predispositions biases of all kinds and perceptions of threat Kaufman puts his theory to the test in a range of conflicts He examines some highly violent episodes among them the Muslim rebellion in the southern Philippines beginning in the 1970s the civil war in southern Sudan that began in the 1980s and the Rwanda genocide of 1994 Kaufman also analyzes other situations in which leaders attempted to tame the violence that nationalist passions can generate In India Mahatma Gandhi mobilized an overtly nonviolent movement but failed in his efforts to prevent the rise of Muslim Hindu communal violence In South Africa Nelson Mandela and F W de Klerk ended apartheid but not without terrible cost more than fifteen thousand people died while the negotiations were under way In Tanzania however Julius Nyerere led one of the few ethnically diverse countries in the world with almost no ethnic violence Nationalist Passions is essential reading for policymakers international aid workers and all others who seek to find the best possible outcomes for future internal and interstate clashes Fabricating Homeland Security Rhys Machold,2024-09-24

Homeland security is rarely just a matter of the homeland it involves the circulation and multiplication of policing practices across borders Though the term homeland security is closely associated with the United States Israel is credited with first developing this all encompassing approach to domestic surveillance and territorial control Today it is a central node in the sprawling global homeland security industry worth hundreds of billions of dollars And in the wake of the 2008 Mumbai terrorist attacks India emerged as a major growth market Known as India s 9 11 or simply 26 11 the attacks sparked significant public pressure to adopt modern homeland security approaches Since 2008 India has become not only the single largest buyer of Israeli conventional weapons but also a range of other surveillance technology police training and security expertise Pairing insights from science and technology studies with those from decolonial and postcolonial theory Fabricating Homeland Security traces 26 11 s political and policy fallout concentrating on the efforts of Israel s homeland security industry to advise and equip Indian city and state governments Through a focus on the often unseen and overlooked political struggles at work in the making of homeland security Rhys Machold details how homeland security is a universalizing project which seeks to remake the world in its image and tells the story of how claims to global authority are fabricated and put to work The RSS and the BJP Abdul Gafoor Abdul Majeed Noorani,2000 The fascist Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh through its political arm the BJP is now at the centre of Indian politics This poses a grave danger to Indian democracy and secularism What was the role of the Hindutva forces in the struggle against the British What links did Gandhiji s killer Nathuram Godse have with the RSS How did the political arm of the RSS the Jan Sangh and its later incarnation BJP come into being What actually happened on that fateful day of Dec 6 1992 What are the current agendas of the RSS What does the elevation of the hardliner Sudarshan to the post of the Sarsanghchalak of the RSS mean Marshalling a wealth of factual and archival detail eminent lawyer and political commentator A G Noorani answers these and a host of other questions in his characteristically forthright and hard hitting style Reprinted and updated til Feb 2001 Political Tolerance in the Global South Sten

Widmalm,2016-05-05 What makes people agree to the extension of political rights to those they clearly dislike This book moves beyond the extensive research on this question in western contexts to focus on the global south offering unique empirical studies of political tolerance in plural societies where poverty is prevalent and democratic institutions can often be fragile Based on extensive data gathered in India Pakistan and Uganda this volume offers an account of the factors that shape the foundations of a society and its capacity to be democratic but where the need for the protection of human rights is great and where the state is either weak or even constitutes a counter force against the rights of individuals and groups Combining large scale survey data with in depth interviews in each national setting the author exemplifies the great variation of factors which are related to political tolerance shedding light on the fundamental patterns existing in the organisation of state society relations and the ways in which they produce certain results owing to the manner in which the forces of modernisation operate A broad and empirically informed study of what shapes the foundations of a democratic society in modernising nations Political Tolerance in the Global South will appeal to scholars of sociology and political science with interests in democracy human rights diversity and tolerance The Production of Hindu-Muslim Violence in Contemporary India Paul R. Brass,2011-05-01 Chronic Hindu Muslim rioting in India has created a situation in which communal violence is both so normal and so varied in its manifestations that it would seem to defy effective analysis Paul R Brass one of the world s preeminent experts on South Asia has tracked more than half a century s riots in the north Indian city of Aligarh This book is the culmination of a lifetime's thinking about the dynamics of institutionalized intergroup violence in northern India covering the last three decades of British rule as well as the entire post Independence history of Aligarh Brass exposes the mechanisms by which endemic communal violence is deliberately provoked and sustained He convincingly implicates the police criminal elements members of Aligarh's business community and many of its leading political actors in the continuous effort to produce communal violence Much like a theatrical production specific roles are played with phases for rehearsal staging and interpretation In this way riots become key historical markers in the struggle for political economic and social dominance of one community over another In the course of demonstrating how riots have been produced in Aligarh Brass offers a compelling argument for abandoning or refining a number of widely held views about the supposed causes of communal violence not just in India but throughout the rest of the world An important addition to the literature on Indian and South Asian politics this book is also an invaluable contribution to our understanding of the interplay of nationalism ethnicity religion and collective violence wherever it occurs

Pentecostals, Proselytization, and Anti-Christian Violence in Contemporary India Chad M. Bauman, 2015 In contemporary violence against India's Christians Pentecostals are disproportionately targeted Based on extensive interviews and ethnographic work this volume accounts for this disproportionate targeting through a detailed analysis of Indian Christian history contemporary Indian politics Indian social and cultural characteristics and Pentecostal belief and practice

American Book Publishing Record, 1997-05

The Institutional Origins of Communal Violence Yuhki Tajima, 2014-07-28 This book develops a novel theoretical explanation for why transitions from authoritarian rule are often marked by spikes in communal violence

The Puzzle of India's Governance Subrata K. Mitra, 2007-05-07 This book examines how India has been able to sustain democratic governance while undergoing substantial social economic and political changes through a neo institutional rational choice model of governance bounded by local culture and context

Kashmir in India and Pakistan Policies Piotr Balcerowicz, Agnieszka Kuszewska, 2022-05-26 This book examines the complex political structures of Pakistan and India that determine both the Kashmir conflict and the geostrategic environment underpinning it Providing comprehensive knowledge on both historical and contemporary dynamics of Indo Pakistani policies and relations this book combines a brief history of the Kashmir conflict with thorough politological analysis Analyses range from strategic dynamics in the aftermath of bifurcation of Indian administered Kashmir to ideologically motivated and state led narratives security dilemmas regional and geopolitical dynamics The book ultimately aims to investigate which policies India and Pakistan develop vis vis the territories of former Princely State of Jammu and Kashmir PSJ K in a balanced and impartial manner While placing the subject against the backdrop of Pakistan's and India's domestic and international policies this book emphasises why Kashmir is so important to both countries and how it is manifested in their policies Kashmir in India and Pakistan policies will appeal to students and scholars of peace and conflict studies international relations political science and South Asian studies

Communalism from Indian Perspective Sarajit Kumar Chatterjee, 2016-01-01 A pluralistic country like India has become the playground of communalism. In spite of its vivisection on the basis of religion in 1947, India could not rather did not insulate itself from the virus of communalism. There are many reasons for the growth and sustenance of communalism in free secular India. Perhaps our Constitution is no less responsible for this. The Framers of the Constitution might have wanted to usher in a true secular India but their obsession with communalism stood in the way. They weighed everything from a communal angle. As a result, they incorporated several community specific provisions which benefited particular religious communities and at the same time shied away from incorporating those provisions in the Constitution which would have put a death nail to the coffin of communalism. What is more ominous is that they never realised that their actions and non actions would give a fresh lease of life to communalism and that there would be polarisation of the communities on the basis of religion in post independent India as well. Intercommunal Warfare and Ethnic Peacemaking Joldon

Kutmanaliev, 2023-05-08 With increasing urban population density, conflicts in cities erupt more frequently and violently. Cities have become hotspots for armed combat, highlighting the urgency of understanding the impact of local communities and urban factors on the development of violent conflict. Joldon Kutmanaliev presents a novel approach to analyzing communal violence and armed conflicts in urban zones. Drawing from fieldwork in cities of southern Kyrgyzstan, he explains local level variations in violence across neighbourhoods during the most intense and violent episode of urban communal violence in Central Asia: the clashes between Kyrgyz and Uzbeks in June 2010. Kutmanaliev explains why armed violence affects some urban neighbourhoods but not others, why local communities react differently to the same existential threat, how they deal with a deteriorating security environment and interethnic fears, and how different types of urban planning and urban landscapes influence the spread of violence. Importantly, the book identifies key factors that help local communities and their leaders to negotiate non aggression pacts and control local constituencies and therefore successfully prevent violence. Intercommunal Warfare and Ethnic Peacemaking explains communal war and ethnic peacemaking on the level of neighbourhood communities, a perspective that is largely absent in previous studies. Gender, Freedom of Religion and Progressive Constitutionalism Sumit Sonkar, 2025-11-07 This book examines the role of courts in settling religious disputes in the context of wider debates around religion and gender. By declaring the long standing tradition of prohibiting entry of menstruating women in the Sabarimala temple unconstitutional in the Indian Young Lawyers Association v State of Kerala Sabarimala case, the Supreme Court of India has not only recognised the women's right to access the temple but also ignited debates on the role of constitutional courts in adjudicating religious disputes and bringing social transformation in India. This work explores the nexus of religious freedom and gender equality, the nature and scope of religious freedom under the Indian

Constitution and judicial approaches in adjudicating religious matters Thus it provides a contextual and comprehensive analysis of the Sabarimala case for implementing and enforcing court crafted constitutional rights The book includes a discussion of how judicial interventions can bring about progressive social change that can offer valuable lessons on judicial frameworks to advance gender justice more widely The study will be of interest to academics and researchers working in the areas of human rights law law and religion law and gender social justice and constitutional law Journal of Peace Research ,1998

War of Words, War of Stones Jonathon Glassman,2011-02-21 The Swahili coast of Africa is often described as a paragon of transnational culture and racial fluidity Yet during a brief period in the 1960s Zanzibar became deeply divided along racial lines as intellectuals and activists engaged in bitter debates about their nation s future ignited a deadly conflict that spread across the island War of Words War of Stones explores how violently enforced racial boundaries arose from Zanzibar s entangled history Jonathon Glassman challenges explanations that assume racial thinking in the colonial world reflected only Western ideas He shows how Africans crafted competing ways of categorizing race from local tradition and engagement with the Atlantic and Indian Ocean worlds The Politics of Nation-Building Harris Mylonas,2013-02-18 What drives a state s choice to assimilate accommodate or exclude ethnic groups within its territory In this innovative work on the international politics of nation building Harris Mylonas argues that a state s nation building policies toward non core groups individuals perceived as an ethnic group by the ruling elite of a state are influenced by both its foreign policy goals and its relations with the external patrons of these groups Through a detailed study of the Balkans Mylonas shows that how a state treats a non core group within its own borders is determined largely by whether the state s foreign policy is revisionist or cleaves to the international status quo and whether it is allied or in rivalry with that group s external patrons Mylonas injects international politics into the study of nation building building a bridge between international relations and the comparative politics of ethnicity and nationalism Competing Nationalisms in South Asia Asghar Ali Engineer,2002 The essays in this volume bring together a rich and scholarly collection of thought and new work linked by a commitment to the preservation and promotion of secularism and democracy in South Asia The contributors to this volume come from different disciplines and ideological persuasions political scientists sociologists historians literary critics and the area specialist Part I deals with nationalist thought and practice Part II contains essays that comment and reflect on visions of India as a nation the concluding part concerns the continuing struggles within India Pakistan and Sri Lanka over the definition of the nation
