Their Backs Mountains Carpathian Carpatho Rusyns:

With Their Backs to the Mountains Paul Robert Magocsi, 2015-11-01 This is a history of a stateless people the Carpatho Rusyns and their historic homeland Carpathian Rus located in the heart of central Europe At the present when it is fashionable to speak of nationalities as imagined communities or as transnational constructs created by intellectuals elites who may live in the historic national homeland or in the diaspora Carpatho Rusyns provide an ideal example of a people made or some would say still being made before our very eyes The book traces the evolution of Carpathian Rus from earliest pre historic times to the present and the complex manner in which a distinct Carpatho Rusyn people since the mid nineteenth century came into being disappeared and then re appeared in the wake of the revolutions of 1989 and the collapse of Communist rule in central and eastern Europe The book while based on the author s four decades of erudition on the subject eschews scholarly jargon and is written in an accessible reader friendly style Provided by publisher Witnesses to Interwar Subcarpathian Rus Patricia A. Krafcik, 2024-06-10 In the midst of a contentious atmosphere of the interwar period the far eastern province of Subcarpathian Rus attracted the personal curiosity and professional attention of Russian ethnographer and theoretician Petr Bogatyrev and Czech journalist writer Ivan Olbracht Both traveled extensively in the region and immersed themselves deeply in the life and culture of the local residents Carpatho Rusyns and Hasidic Jews Witnesses to Interwar Subcarpathian Rus The Sojourns of Petr Bogatyrev and Ivan Olbracht explores for the first time in English the legacy they bequeathed in their respective work Bogatyrev as an apolitical ethnographic collector and theoretician and Olbracht as a passionately committed Communist whose reports and brilliant stories from the region including Nikola uhaj Brigand and The Sorrowful Eyes of Hannah Karadjic capture a glimpse of a world destined to change radically as a result of the ravages of war

In the footsteps of the Rusyns in Europe: Ukraine, Slovakia, Serbia, Poland and Hungary Petr Kokaisl, Andrea Štolfová, Pavla Fajfrlíková, Veronika Němcová, Jana Zychová, Irena Cejpová et al., 2023-01-11 The aim of this monograph is to present the current situation of Rusyns in those European countries where according to official or estimated statistics their number is the highest Ukraine Slovakia Poland Hungary and Serbia In presenting the situation of the Rusyn population in these countries an attempt has been made to indicate the number of Rusyns in the countries under study and at the same time to point out the problems of obtaining accurate data on Rusyns Another aim of the research was to find out what the main elements of Rusyn ethnic identity are here regardless of geographical differences religious affiliation or Byzantine rite Catholic or Orthodox stood out in the first place The research also focused on the use of the Rusyn language and changes in its status the possibilities of teaching the Rusyn language and the interest in teaching it among the Rusyns themselves In addition to these two main aspects of Rusyn identity other key elements of Rusyn material and non material culture were also investigated Emphasis was placed on the use of primarily qualitative methods to refine the available quantitative data The results presented in this publication are based on both field research and research with Rusyn respondents conducted remotely via electronic communication in 2014 2019 Although this is a five year period it is possible to compare the individual Rusyn communities in the five countries studied at least in part synchronically i e here and now

Translating Warhol Reva Wolf,2024-07-11 The first study of the translations of Andy Warhol s writing and ideas Translating Warhol reveals how translation has alternately censored exposed or otherwise affected the presentation of his political and social positions and attitudes and in turn the value we place on his art and person Andy Warhol is one of the most influential artists of the 20th century and a vast global literature about Warhol and his work exists Yet almost nothing has been written about the role of translations of his words in his international reputation Translating Warhol fills this gap developing the topic in multiple directions and in the context of the reception of Warhol s work in various countries The numerous translations of Warhol s writings words and ideas offer a fertile case study of how American art was and is viewed from the outside Both historical and theoretical aspects of translation are taken up and individual chapters discuss French German Italian and Swedish translations Warhol s translations of his mother s native Rusyn language and culture the Indian artist Bhupen Khakhar s performative translations of Warhol and Warhol as translated for documentary television Translating Warhol offers a fascinating multi faceted perspective on Warhol contributing to our understanding of his place in history as well as to translation theory and inter cultural exchange Hidden History of Northwestern Pennsylvania Jessica Hilburn,2019 From unsolved murders and ghastly disasters to medicinal water and sports legends Northwestern

Pennsylvania has a rich and diverse history Titusville native John Heisman shaped football into the recognizable sport that it is today and his namesake is honored on the Heisman Trophy Girard s Charlotte and Libbie Battles broke glass ceilings by becoming early female titans of business and banking in the region Marx Toys in Erie County found success in crafting affordable popular toys for the masses and became the largest toy company in the world The horrific Ashtabula train disaster of 1876 was the worst train incident in history to that point with more than ninety lives lost Join author Jessica Hilburn as she reveals the shrouded history of Northwestern Pennsylvania A Heretical History of Architecture Andrzej

Piotrowski,2024-12-09 A Heretical History of Architecture challenges the conventional understanding of significant developments in Western architecture as a series of alignments among dominant ideologies and artistic programs arguing instead that the most consequential changes in the evolution of artistic and design practices across Europe between the fifth and seventeenth centuries were motivated by tensions between local religious or cultural traditions and centralized power This groundbreaking study richly demonstrates the processes through which heterodox beliefs that persisted within numerous diverse communities resulted in design experimentation so syncretic that it has heretofore eluded scholars employing conventional Euro centric taxonomies of architectural styles Indigenous Peoples Victoria R.

Williams,2020-02-24 The book is an essential resource for those interested in investigating the lives histories and futures of indigenous peoples around the world Perfect for readers looking to learn more about cultural groups around the world this

Walking Europe's Last Wilderness Nick Thorpe, 2025-02-11 An evocative voyage through the Carpathian mountain range and its threatened landscape peoples and history The Carpathian Mountains of Poland Slovakia Romania and Ukraine are Europe s last true wilderness A landscape of great spruce and beech forests grass meadows and ancient villages its people contend daily with the elements as well as Europe s last large carnivores But this fragile ecosystem is now under threat from climate change and illegal logging Journeying from the banks of the Danube to Transylvania Nick Thorpe guides us through the history and ecology of the watershed of Europe between the Black Sea and the Baltic For a thousand years the Carpathians have been a place of refuge of identity and belonging where powerful rulers and dynasties fought to gain control over rich gold seams and the unruly inhabitants of strategic valleys Today its inhabitants struggle to protect its vast forest habitat from urban sprawl as well as logging Drawing on interviews with shepherds foresters and loggers and his four decades of experience in the region Thorpe sheds light on a neglected part of Europe where bears wolves chamois and lynxes still roam

Christian Nationalism, Nation-Building, and the Making of the Holocaust in Slovakia Hana Kubátová, 2025-02-10 Previous scholarship on fascism in Slovakia has focused on either state actors operating from urban centres or the mechanisms of violence on a grassroots level with the result being that the Holocaust is seen as primarily a top down and state centred process In contrast Hana Kubátová reveals here a dynamic and unexplored centre periphery relationship and how violence against the Jewish population unfolded in both cities and the countryside and on both national and local levels As an integral component of broader nation building efforts the authority of the fascist regime and the newly founded Slovak state hinged not only on appeasing Hitler but also on civilian populations of the nation s heterogenous eastern borderlands especially local elites such as priest and teachers as well as the rural masses The book explores how this relationship was forged how it was maintained and how ultimately Christian nationalism operated as a political strategy that brought differently positioned actors together to broker deals over resources and power accrued through the co enactment of genocide by a broad coalition of perpetrators on the ground In so doing this little known chapter of Holocaust history offers a new way to understand the dynamics and escalations of mass violence and how collaborations between elite and popular groups can pave the way for ethnic cleansing across different territories and even times An Invitation to Non-Hegemonic World Sociology Eric Macé,2024-07-19 Although sociology is present as a discipline or as a social practice in most countries in the world its future as a not only Western social science has hardly been addressed before In this book a team of interdisciplinary scholars have been working together not so much to offer one single response to the question than to raise important issues at stake for the future of sociology Is it universal Can it be indigenous How is it possible and is it even desirable to write its history differently so as to know better about its early world diffusion and gradual Westernization Do we need to expand or change its canon This collection brings together essays that are all engaged in international discussions concerning the universality of sociology or more precisely the epistemological and theoretical conditions of this universality The postcolonial and decolonial critiques of the Eurocentrism of sociology are the basis for a reflection on how to continue to do sociology in a non hegemonic way That is sociological ways of describing reality including the history of sociology and its canon that are not limited by Western centrism or other nationalist or religious hegemonies

Genealogy and Social History Eric Martone,2022-02-21 In recent years genealogical websites and government agencies have made millions of valuable historical documents digitally available to the public There is a tremendous amount of information that can be gleaned from these documents to aid scholars interested in social history This volume brings together researchers presenting historically contextualized family case studies as a lens to enrich the reader s understanding of the past Common Culture and the Ideology of Difference in Medieval and Contemporary Poland Teresa Pac,2022-02-10

Teresa Pac provides a much needed contribution to the discussion on shared culture as foundational to societal survival Through the examination of common culture as a process in medieval Krak w Poznan and Lublin Pac challenges the ideology of difference institutional religious ethnic and nationalistic Similarly Pac maintains twenty first century Polish leaders utilize anachronistic approaches in the invention of Polish Catholic identity to counteract the country s increasing ethnic and religious diversity As in the medieval period contemporary Polish political and social elites subscribe to the European Union s ideology of difference legitimized by a European Christian heritage and its intended basis for discrimination against non Christians and non white individuals under the auspices of democratic values and minority rights among which Muslims are a significant target Politics and the Slavic Languages Tomasz Kamusella,2021-06-17 During the last two centuries ethnolinguistic nationalism has been the norm of nation building and state building in Central Europe The number of recognized Slavic languages in line with the normative political formula of language nation state gradually tallied with the number of the Slavic nation states especially after the breakups of Czechoslovakia the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia But in the current age of borderless cyberspace regional and minority Slavic languages are freely standardized and used even when state authorities disapprove As a result since the turn of the 19th century the number of Slavic languages has varied widely from a single Slavic language to as many as 40 Through the story of Slavic languages this timely book illustrates that decisions on what counts as a language are neither permanent nor stable arguing that the politics of language is the politics in Central Europe The monograph will prove to be an essential resource for scholars of linguistics and politics in Central Europe

Andy Warhol's Mother Elaine Rusinko, 2024-11-19 While biographers of Andy Warhol have long recognized his mother as a significant influence on his life and art Julia Warhola's story has not yet been told As an American immigrant who was born in a small Carpatho Rusyn village in Austria Hungary in 1891 Julia never had the opportunity to develop her own considerable artistic talents Instead she worked and sacrificed so her son could follow his dreams helping to shape Andy's art and persona Julia famously followed him to New York City and lived with him there for almost twenty years where she remained engaged in his personal and artistic life She was well known as Andy Warhol's mother even developing a distinctive signature with the title that she used on her own drawings Exploring previously unpublished material including Rusyn language correspondence and videos Andy Warhol's Mother provides the first in depth look at Julia's hardscrabble life her creative imagination and her spirited personality Elaine Rusinko follows Julia's life from the folkways of the Old Country to the smog of industrial Pittsburgh and the tumult of avant garde New York Rusinko explores the impact of Julia's Carpatho Rusyn culture Byzantine Catholic faith and traditional worldview on her ultra modern son the quintessential American artist This close examination of the Warhola family's lifeworld allows a more acute perception of both Andy and Julia while also illuminating the broader social and cultural issues that confronted and conditioned them

Making Ukraine Olena Palko, Constantin Ardeleanu, 2022-05-15 Russia's illegal annexation of Crimea in 2014 and the ongoing war in eastern Ukraine have brought scholarly and public attention to Ukraine's borders Making Ukraine aims to investigate the various processes of negotiation delineation and contestation that have shaped the country's borders throughout the past century. Essays by contributors from various historical fields consider how when and under what conditions the borders that historically define the country were agreed upon. A diverse set of national and transnational contexts are explored with a primary focus on the critical period between 1917 and 1954. Chapters are organized around three main themes: the interstate treaties that brought about the new international order in Eastern Europe in the aftermath of the world wars; the formation of the internal boundaries between Ukraine and other Soviet republics; and the delineation of Ukraine's borders with its western neighbours. Investigating the process of bordering Ukraine in the post-Soviet era, contributors also pay close attention to the competing visions of future relations between Ukraine and Russia. Through its broad geographic and thematic coverage, Making Ukraine illustrates that the dynamics of contemporary border formation cannot be fully understood through the lens of a sole state frontier or ideology and sheds light on the shared history of territory and state formation in Europe and the wider modern world.

Modernity, History, and Politics in Czech Art Marta Filipová, 2019-07-08. This book traces the influence of the changing political environment on Czech art criticism history and theory between 1895 and 1939, looking beyond the avant-garde to the peripheries of modern art. The period is marked by radical political changes, the formation of national and regional identities, and the rise of modernism in Central Europe, specifically the collapse of Austria-Hungary and the creation of the new democratic state of Czechoslovakia. Marta Filipová studies the way in which narratives of modern art were formed in a constant negotiation and dialogue between an effort to be international and a desire to remain authentically local.

Cultural Heritage and Mobility from a Multisensory Perspective Magdalena Banaszkiewicz, Karolina Nikielska-Sekuła, 2024-09-26. Cultural Heritage and Mobility from a Multisensory Perspective bridges the gap between cultural heritage and mobility studies through the employment of theoretical and methodological multisensory perspectives. An interdisciplinary volume covering a broad range of empirical cases, this book focuses on the engagement with cultural heritage in the context of mobility. The book presents a grassroots perspective of individual heritage performances by mobile and moving actors, analyzing them with close attention to their embodied aspects: bodily experiences, sensory impressions, and the affect and emotions they evoke. As a result, the collection of case studies presented covers empirical, theoretical, and methodological accounts of the embodiment of heritage in the context of mobility on macro, meso, and micro levels, exploring heritage change and mobility from a multisensory perspective. Cultural Heritage and Mobility from a Multisensory Perspective is primarily targeted at scholars, students, and practitioners working within and at the intersection of the fields of cultural heritage and mobility. It will also be of interest to those engaged in the study of tourism, migration, and integration studies. Chapters 2, 3, 4, 5, 13, 14, and Introduction of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivatives (CC BY-NC-ND) 4.0 license.

called Lemkos Rusyns from the earliest awareness of their own cultural and ethnic separateness until World War I. It contains information about the group and its culture, defines the concept of Lemko literature as a minority literature, and describes the cultural situation of Lemkos in the 19th century. Ten chapters present the main genres and types of Lemko literature in the years 1848-1918. Literature is shown as one of the key cultural and identity discourses. Extensively quoted excerpts from texts reveal the linguistic reality and consciousness of the Lemko intelligentsia of the time. The monograph also outlines the developmental tendencies of Lemko literature over the successive stages of this community's history.

Cultural Heritage—Possibilities for Land-Centered Societal Development Józef Hernik, Maria Walczycka, Edward Sankowski, Betty J. Harris, 2021-12-08. This book includes multi-national research studies, social and natural science research, as well as more directly practical, university-based knowledge about cultural heritage, land, and societal development in varied countries. The book is particularly about land use as a fundamental aspect of the environment and its role in development, especially sustainable development. Many of the studies are about topics concerning the transition from more rural to more urbanized land areas. However, some studies concern other types of changes. This includes general attention to globalization and nation-state dimensions of change. Nonetheless, there are interpretations communicated of unique histories at differing scales in the researches here. There is often a focus on more uniquely local and regional territories, including attention to smaller-scale land use and an interest in future possibilities that conserve positive features of past terrain.
