sanctification is the holding line in the carrying out of the divine economy to divinely sonize us making us sons of God that we may become the same as God in His life and in His nature but not in His Godhead so that we may be God's expression. We need to do the will of God in the realm that carries out His will, the kingdom of God. We do the will of God in the kingdom of God of which the central government is the enthroned Son of Man, Jesus, who is Lord of all. When we do the will of God in the kingdom of God under the government of God, the church becomes the Israel of God which fulfills God's commission to subdue the earth to exercise dominion and to represent God with His authority. As the Israel of God, we represent God, exercise His authority, and carry out His administration on earth for the fulfillment of His purpose. If we take the Father's will upon us as a yoke and learn from Him, we will find rest for our souls. Hence, in the church age, we need to enjoy Christ as our rest, our perfect peace, and full satisfaction in order to be His expression and representation on earth. When there is a situation on earth in which man expresses God and represents Him, that situation is a Sabbath rest to God. Everything of God's economy is not a heavy burden but an enjoyment. The Lord's yoke, the Father's will, is easy, and His burden, the work to carry out the Father's will, is light. It is a divine principle that God does not ask us to work until we have had rest and enjoyment. It is in a full enjoyment with Him and of Him that we can work together with Him. A central aspect of God's will is the church, which is the assembly of the called-out ones. As such, the meetings of the church are crucial to the carrying out of God's will. Our doing God's will depends on our knowing His will, and it is in the meetings that God makes His will known to us. Since the Christian life is a meeting life and much of the Lord's work is carried out in and through the meetings, we should regard the meetings as being of great importance. The goal of our meeting together is to exhibit Christ; therefore, our Christian meetings should be an exhibition of our experience of Christ in our daily life. Since the Father's eternal will and the desire of His heart are to build up the church as the Body of Christ, we do His will by functioning in the meetings according to the scriptural way to meet for the building up of the Body. Notes and Queries, 1858 The Congressional Globe United States. Congress, 1856 Merchant Vessels of the United States... United States. Coast Guard, 1971 Evangelizing the South Monica Najar, 2008-01-22

Although many refer to the American South as the Bible Belt the region was not always characterized by a powerful religious culture

In the seventeenth century and early eighteenth century religion in terms both of church membership and personal piety was virtually absent from southern culture

The late eighteenth century and early nineteenth century however witnessed the astonishingly rapid rise of evangelical religion in the Upper South

Within just a few years evangelicals had spread their beliefs and their fervor gaining converts and building churches throughout Virginia and North Carolina and into the western regions

But what was it that made evangelicalism so attractive to a region previously uninterested in religion

Monica Najar argues that early evangelicals successfully negotiated the various challenges of the eighteenth century landscape by creating churches that functioned as civil as well as religious bodies

The evangelical church of the late eighteenth century was the cornerstone of its community regulating marriages monitoring prices arbitrating business and settling disputes

As the era experienced substantial rifts in the relationship between church and state the disestablishment of colonial churches paved the way for new formulations of church state relations

The evangelical churches were well positioned to provide guidance in uncertain times and their multiple functions allowed them to reshape many of the central elements of authority in southern society They assisted in reformulating the lines between the religious and secular realms with significant consequences for both religion and the emerging nation state Touching on the creation of a distinctive southern culture the position of women in the private and public arenas family life in the Old South the relationship between religion and slavery and the political culture of the early republic Najar reveals the history behind a religious heritage that remains a distinguishing mark of American society *The Holy Bible, with Explanatory Notes ... by Thomas Scott ...
