Weary Throats and New Songs Teresa L. Fry Brown, 2003 Teresa Frye Brown s music ministry forms a background for her application of music as a metaphor to the preaching moment In this book she interviews numerous preaching sistas and uses categories from her homiletics courses to structure the data that she found in the interviews The result is a helpful Black Women s Commentary on the homiletic process The first couple of chapters provide information on ordination and call that every male minister of the Gospel should keep in mind It is a review of the gender barrier to ordination Interestingly enough this aspect of the book also demonstrated the resolve of our sisters to find ways and means to preach the gospel irregardless of these barriers While we should never accept discrimination in any form I did find the list of venues for women s in ministry to be a very helpful way to see other possible ways to minister apart from the pulpit in the church that all ministers male and female should look at Our sisters have shown us the way to greater ministry After call and ordination Brown moves to a discussion of Biblical exegesis themes and structures for sermons by Black women I found that this section demonstrated that while some women have a tendency towards preaching actively for liberation of women most of the themes such as purpose hope and liberation of the poor holds much in common with the Black male preacher From Amazon com Mourning and Mitzvah (25th Anniversary Edition) Rabbi Anne Brener, MAJCS, MA, LCSW, 2017-08-22 Fully revised with a new author s preface epilogue and over a dozen new guided exercises Anne Brener brings us an innovative integration of Jewish tradition and modern professional resources in this 25th anniversary edition of a modern classic Mourning Mitzvah gives spiritual insight and healing wisdom to those who mourn a death to those who would help them and
