Theological Reflections At The Boundaries:

Theological Reflections at the Boundaries Paul O. Ingram, 2011-11-04 The interdependence of boundary questions and the experience of cognitive dissonance reveal that knowledge in all fields of inquiry is always incomplete and tentative The issues are particularly acute for Christian theological reflection Ingram illustrates the importance of boundary questions and cognitive dissonance as a means of creatively transforming contemporary Christian theological reflection through dialogue with the natural sciences and the world's religions particularly Buddhism filtered through the lenses of Whiteheadian process philosophy Theological Reflection and Education for Ministry John E. Paver, 2016-02-17 A major and continuing problem for theological education and the practice of Christian ministry is how to best achieve a genuine integration between theory and practice theology and experience The key claim of this book is that theological reflection beginning with experience is a method of integration and that pastoral supervision is a vehicle for theological reflection In establishing this claim John Paver demonstrates that the model and method have potential to be a catalyst for reform within theological colleges and seminaries Three different theological reflection models are developed and critiqued in this book and their capacity to be developed in particular contexts is explored This book does not stop at ministry cultural and personal integration but is bold enough to make recommendations for structural integration within the theological Theological Reflection and the Pursuit of Ideals Dale Wright, Maria Antonaccio, 2016-02-17 Contemporary institution thought is marked by heated debates about the character purpose and form of religious thinking and its relation to a range of ideals spiritual moral aesthetic political and ecological to name the obvious This book addresses the interrelation between theological thinking and the complex and diverse realms of human ideals What are the ideals appropriate to our moment in human history and how do these ideals derive from or relate to theological reflection in our time In Theological Reflection and the Pursuit of Ideals internationally renowned scholars from a range of disciplines physics art literary studies ethics comparative religion history of ideas and theology engage with these crucial questions with the intention of articulating a new and historically appropriate vision of theological reflection and the pursuit of ideals for our global times Theological Reflection for Human Flourishing Cameron Helen, 2015-04-21 Practical theology and theological reflection are growing areas of theological studies This book aims to create a bridge between pastoral practice and public theology Theological Reflection across Religious Traditions Edward Foley, 2015-02-12 Theological reflection connecting real life ministry and religious traditions is a core component of most pastoral training It is also a hallmark of practical theology and a common spiritual exercise among ordinary Christians trying to discern how their beliefs might influence daily living Yet our society is increasingly pluralistic with growing numbers of people from varying belief systems from Islam to Buddhism as well as an increasing number of atheists In this book Edward Foley reimagines theological reflection in interfaith contexts and with those of no faith tradition The book addresses and celebrates diverse beliefs and envisions the practice of theological reflection in such contexts Theological Reflection Across Religious Traditions introduces readers to the basics of traditional forms of theological reflection then considers how it might be reconceived in different contexts from interfaith ministers working together to reduce poverty and homelessness to people of diverse or no faith traditions strategizing to secure the dignity of undocumented immigrants Beyond suggestions for collaborative social action the book offers tools for productive interfaith conversation through a process Foley calls reflective believing This is a groundbreaking rethinking of theological reflection for today s world proposing that people across the religious landscape can participate in reflective believing for personal and communal benefit without sacrificing their own integrity Theological Reflection Edward O. De Bary, 2003 Theological reflection has its roots in the works of Bernard Lonergan David Tracy James and Evelyn Whitehead John de Beer Patricia Killen Flower Ross and Charles Winters It provides a way of learning theology so that participants can develop congruence between life s experience the world and the Christian faith the reflective methods are useful educational tools Other discipline may find them useful to enhance the way seminars are organized as learning opportunities to discover Living on the Boundaries Nicola Hoggard Creegan, Christine D. Pohl, 2005-10-06 Nicola Hoggard Creegan and meaning Christine D Pohl tell their own stories and draw from the experiences of ninety other women scholars to helpfully and hopefully address the boundary between the evangelical world and the concerns of feminism found in the academy Living without a Why Paul O Ingram, 2015-04-30 In this book Paul O Ingram adds his voice to a long list of writers seeking to relate Christian tradition to the hard realities of this post Christian age of religious and secular pluralism As a Lutheran Ingram thinks grace flows over this universe like a waterfall So he brings Christian mystical theology into a discussion of the meaning of grace Alfred North Whitehead's philosophical vision provides a language that serves as a hermeneutical bridge by which historians of religions can interpret the teachings and practices of religious Ways other than their own without falsification and by which theologians can appropriate history of religions research as a means of helping Christians advance in their own faith journeys The purpose of the journey of faith is what Whitehead called creative transformation The contemporary theological tradition that has most systematically and coherently followed Whitehead's lead in its reflection on non Christian Ways is process theology which is perhaps the only liberal or progressive theological movement now active in the twenty first century Theological Reflections Elaine Graham, 2013-01-08 Following the same topics as the Methods volume this reader is aimed at postgraduates and academics interested in the expanding volume of work and research surrounding theological reflection Brought together in this second volume are materials relating to the same topics and dealt with by the same divisions descriptions and features The identified models being The Living Human Document Constructive Narrative Theology Canonical Narrative Theology Corporate Theological Reflection The Correlative Method Performative or Praxis Theological Reflection and Theology in the Vernacular or local theologies Volume one described and identified the various models whilst this new second volume fleshes out these descriptions by allowing the reader access to a variety of

Meaning and Method in Comparative Theology Catherine Cornille, 2019-02-21 The first systematic overview of the field of comparative theology Meaning and Method in Comparative Theology offers a synthesis of and a blueprint for the emerging field of comparative theology It discusses various approaches to the field the impact of religious views of other religions on the way in which comparative theology is conducted and the particularities of comparative theological hermeneutics It also provides an overview of the types of learning and of the importance of comparative theology for traditional confessional theology Though drawing mainly from examples of Christian comparative theology the book presents a methodological framework that may be applied to any religious tradition Meaning and Method in Comparative Theology begins with an elaboration on the basic distinction between confessional and meta confessional approaches to comparative theology The book also identifies and examines six possible types of comparative theological learning and addresses various questions regarding the relationship between comparative and confessional theology Provides a unique and objective look at the field of comparative theology for scholars of religion and theologians who want to understand or situate their work within the broader field Contains methodological questions and approaches that apply to comparative theologians from any religious tradition Recognizes and affirms the diversity within the field while advancing unique perspectives that might be the object of continued discussions among theologians Meaning and Method in Comparative Theology offers an important basis for scholars to position their own work within the broader field of comparative theology and is an essential resource for anyone interested in theology conducted in dialogue with other religious traditions 2021 PROSE Finalist in the Theology Religious Studies category What are They Saying about Theological Reflection? Robert L. Kinast, 2000 Theological reflection is a form of theologizing that begins with lived experience correlates this with the sources of Christian faith and draws out concrete implications for praxis Robert Kinast finds five distinct types of theological reflection from within this common form ministerial spiritual wisdom feminist inculturation and practical theology Each of these styles is analyzed in terms of the type of experience it favors the way it connects this experience to theology and what sort of praxis it envisions The end result is a succinct overview of this wide ranging and diverse approach to theology BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved On Moral Medicine M. Therese Lysaught, Joseph Kotva, Stephen E. Lammers, 2012-07-20 In print for more than two decades On Moral Medicine remains the definitive anthology for Christian theological reflection on medical ethics This third edition updates and expands the earlier awardwinning volumes providing classrooms and individuals alike with one of the finest available resources for ethics engaged modern medicine Interreligious Reflections, Six Volume Set Alon Goshen-Gottstein, 2018-08-08 This set includes all six volumes of Interreligious Reflections ABOUT VOLUME ONE Friendship is an outcome of as well as a condition for advancing interfaith relations However for friendship to advance there must be legitimation from within and a theory of how interreligious relations can be justified from the resources of different faith traditions Friendship Across Religions explores these very issues seeking to develop a robust theory of interreligious friendship from the resources of each of the participating traditions It also features individual cases as models and precedents for such relations in particular the friendship of Gandhi and Charlie Andrews his closest personal friend Contributors Balwant Singh Dhillon Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Ruben L F Habito Ryan McAnnally Linz Stephen Butler Murray Eleanor Nesbitt Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sendor Johann M Vento and Miroslav Volf ABOUT VOLUME TWO This book tackles the core problem of how painful historical memories between diverse religious communities continue to impact even poison present day relations Its operative notion is the healing of memory developed by John Paul II Chapters explore how painful memories of yesteryear can be healed and so address some of the root causes Strategies from six different faith traditions are brought together in what is in some ways a cross religious brainstorming session that identifies tools to improve present day relations At the other pole of the conceptual axis of this book is the notion of hope If memory informs our past hope sets the horizon for our future How does the healing of memory open new horizons for the future And what is the notion of hope in each of our traditions that could lead to a common vision of good Between memory and hope this book seeks to offer a vision of healing that can serve as a resource in contemporary interfaith relations Contributors Rahuldeep Singh Gill Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Flora A Keshgegian Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sendor Muhammad Suheyl Umar and Michael von Br ck ABOUT VOLUME THREE The essays collected here prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy explore the challenges associated with sharing wisdom learning teachings messages for good living How should religions go about sharing their wisdom These chapters representing six faith tradition Jewish Christian Muslim Hindu Sikh and Buddhist explore what wisdom means in each of these traditions why and how it should be shared internally and externally and the role of love and forgiveness in sharing This book offers a theory that can enrich ongoing encounters between members of faith traditions by suggesting a tradition based practice of sharing wisdom while preserving the integrity of the teaching and respecting the identity of anyone with whom wisdom is shared Contributors Pal Ahluwalia Timothy Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Sallie B King Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sendor Miroslav Volf ABOUT VOLUME FOUR All the world's religions are experiencing rapid change due to a confluence of social and economic global forces Factors such as the pervasive intrusion of globalizing political and economic developments polarized and morally equivalent presentations seen in the media and the sense of surety demanded in and promised by a culture dominated by science are some of the factors that have placed extreme pressure on all religious traditions. This has stimulated unprecedented responses by religious groups ranging from fundamentalism to the syncretistic search for meaning As religion takes on new forms the balance between individual and community is disrupted and reconfigured Religions often lose the capacity to recall their ultimate purpose or lead their adherents toward it This is the situation we call the crisis of the holy It is a confluence of threats challenges and opportunities for all religions This volume explores the contours of pressures changes and transformations and reflects on how all our religions are changing By identifying commonalities across religions as they respond to these pressures The Crisis of the Holy recommends ways religious traditions might cope with these changes and how they might join forces in doing so Contributors Vincent I Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Sidney H Griffith Maria Reis Habito B Barry Levy Deepak Sarma Michael von Br ck ABOUT VOLUME FIVE The chapters collected in this book prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy address the subject of religious leadership The subject is of broad relevance in the training of religious leaders and in the practice of religious leadership As such it is also germane to religious thought where reflections on religious leadership occupy an important place What does it mean to be a religious leader in today s world To what degree are the challenges that confront religious leadership today the same perennial challenges that have arrested the attention of the faithful and their leaders for generations and to what degree do we encounter challenges today that are unique to our day and age One dimension is surely unique and that is the very ability to explore these issues from an interreligious perspective and to consider challenges opportunities and strategies across religious traditions Studying the theme across six faith traditions Christianity Islam Judaism Sikhism Hinduism and Buddhism The Future of Religious Leadership World Religions in Conversation recognizes the common challenges to present day religious leadership Contributors Awet Andemicael Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Anantanand Rambachan Maria Reis Habito Meir Sendor Balwant Singh Dhillon Miroslav Volf VOLUME SIX One of the biggest challenges for relations between religions is the view of the religious Other The question touches the roots of our theological views The Religious Other Hostility Hospitality and the Hope of Human Flourishing explores the views of multiple religious traditions on how to regard otherness How does one move from hostility to hospitality How can hospitality be understood not simply as social hospitality but as theological hospitality making room for the religious Other on theological grounds What is our vision for the flourishing of the Other while respecting his otherness This volume is an exercise in constructive interreligious theology By including Abrahamic and non Abrahamic traditions it approaches these challenges from multiple perspectives highlighting commonalities in approach and ways in which one tradition might inspire another Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Richard P Hayes Lord Rabbi Jonathan Sacks Deepak Sarma Stephen W Sykes Dharma Master Hsin Tao Ashok Vohra A Guide to Theological Reflection Jim Wilson, Earl Waggoner, 2020-02-04 Feedback and evaluation both of oneself and by others are the lifeblood of a successful ministry experience In A Guide to Theological Reflection experienced practical ministry professors Jim Wilson and Earl Waggoner introduce the processes and tools of theological reflection for ministry Effective evaluation includes critique and potential course correction for the honest and willing minister as well as positive affirmation of how one s desires influence good ministry decisions A Guide to Theological Reflection introduces tools by which a minister can interact with his or her own thoughts beliefs and feelings external feedback such as that of a ministry supervisor and Scripture to inform deep and transformative theological reflection Designed as a textbook for practical ministry courses and theological field education A Guide to Theological Reflection can also be used in ministry contexts It provides guidance for students ministers in training mentors and advisors laying a theoretical foundation for theological reflection and demonstrating step by step how to Weaving Theology in Oceania Beatrice Green, Keiti Ann Kanongata'a, 2020-10-06 Clear assessment of practice it well our needs in a global society and sound creative solutions from an Oceanic perspective and beyond form the subject matter of this book Here the cries of suffering from women in violent relationships people yearning for growth and dignity others with mental and emotional trauma and mother Earth herself are heard and enlist support and direction from those whose energy and insight are centred in faith hope and love and firmly anchored in Christian professional academic endeavour The book is patterned after the woven mats roof and sails of the great ocean going canoe to image the diversity of content of this extraordinary gathering of hearts hands and minds While it reflects the global scholarly Christian concern and outreach indicative of our times and a theological approach that is interactive and interdependent it reveals a weaving that is unfinished because the voyage must continue onwards in an attitude of deep listening and open questioning As such the work gathered here represents an energetic contribution towards courageous engagement in the travail that characterises our extraordinary transitional era as we move towards a new consciousness and the book will be of particular interest to academic theologians educationalists Church authorities and pastoral workers from the Oceanic region However it will also inspire and inform comparable groups from other parts of the world simply because what is presented here has universal An Intercultural Theology of Migration Gemma Cruz, 2010-01-15 Migration has long been associated with the implications social sciences However as a phenomenon that provides windows into possibly new forms of oppression and at the same time paths toward human liberation a systematic theological look at contemporary migration is long overdue Building on the emerging interest on migration in theology this book presents an intercultural theology of migration drawn from the experience of Filipino women domestic workers in Hong Kong in dialogue with theological ethics and liberationist theologies The result is a new look at the phenomenon of contemporary migration Jewish Bible Theology Isaac Kalimi, 2012-01-01 This volume the first of its sort takes issue with scholars who believe that the terms biblical theology and Jews contradict rather than approximate each other Without saying so they automatically confirm Otto Procksch's assertion that alle Theologie ist Christologie In recent decades however there is increasing interest in earlier and current Jewish biblical theologies A new generation of Jewish scholars demonstrate great interest in and actively engage in Hebrew Bible theology They strive to make Jewish biblical theology a legitimate subdiscipline of biblical studies and develop it separately and independently from the Christian theology Also many Christian scholars are interested in understanding the Hebrew Bible Old Testament and its various themes from Jewish theological perspectives Thus in response to continual interest from all sides Isaac Kalimi presents this volume for the benefit of all Jewish Bible Theology comprises a number of essays that raise substantial methodological and historical questions while others focus on particular topics from the Torah Prophets and Writings Altogether they reflect fresh and current thinking on important issues in Jewish religious and intellectual world views Atonement and Violence Hans Boersma, T. Scott Daniels, 2006-11-01 Recent years have witnessed a series of books articles and lectures raising serious questions about the Christian doctrine of the Atonement While coming from a variety of sources the questions usually center around the central issue of atonement and violence Doesn t the Atonement promote the idea of violence on the part of God If so isn t such violence incompatible with a God of love Doesn t this doctrine send the wrong signal excusing and perhaps even promoting such things as child abuse Is it time to abandon what has become an outmoded and harmful doctrine The authors of this book claim that to abandon the Christian doctrine of the Atonement is to abandon the central witness of the gospel for atonement speaks of nothing less than God's reconciliation of the world in the life death and resurrection of Jesus Christ However to believe in the atoning death of Jesus Christ does not mean that one believes that God has engaged in cosmic child abuse Drawing on the classical theories of the Atonement engaging in creative theological construction they present set of cogent cohesive alternatives to either rejecting the doctrine out of hand or uncritically accepting it Contributors include J Denny Weaver Bluffton University Narrative Christus Victor The Answer to Anselmian Atonement Violence Thomas Finger Associated Mennonite Seminary Christus Victor as Nonviolent Atonement Hans Boersma Regent College Vancouver British Columbia Violence the Cross and Divine Intentionality A Modified Reformed View and T Scott Daniels Pasadena First Church of the Nazarene Passing the Peace Worship That Shapes Nonsubstitutionary Convictions
