Theology And Pastoral Counseling A New Interdisciplinary Approach:

Theology and Pastoral Counseling Deborah van Deusen Hunsinger, 1995 This volume lays out an important new interdisciplinary approach to the relationship between theology and psychology in the work of pastoral counseling setting forth a method emerging from a Barthian theological perspective Theology and Pastoral Counseling Deborah van Deusen Hunsinger, 1995 Moving Beyond Individualism in Pastoral Care and Counseling Barbara J. McClure, 2010-01-01 Despite astute critiques and available resources for alternative modes of thinking and practicing individualism continues to be a dominating and constraining ideology in the field of pastoral psychotherapy and counseling Philip Rieff was one of the first to highlight the negative implications of individualism in psychotherapeutic theories and practices As heirs and often enthusiasts of the Freudian tradition of which Rieff and others are critical pastoral theologians have felt the sting of his charge and yet the empirical research that McClure presents shows that pastoral counseling practitioners resist change Their attempts to overcome an individualistic perspective have been limited and ineffective because individualism is embedded in the field's dominant theological and theoretical resources practices and organizational arrangements Only a radical reappraisal of these will make possible pastoral counseling practices in a post individualistic mode McClure proposes several critical transformations broadening and deepening the operative theologies used to guide the healing practice expanding the role of the pastoral counselor reimagining the operative anthropology reclaiming sin and judgment nuancing the particular against the individual rethinking the ideal outcome of the practices and reimagining the organizational structures that support the practices Only this level of revisioning will enable this ministry of the church to move beyond its individualistic limitations and offer healing in more complex effective and socially adequate ways Mirrors of Self Jonathan P. Badgett, 2021-10-14 Orthodox Christology maintains that Jesus Christ is both truly God and truly human As such he is the key to knowing both God and self In a series of applications of christological anthropology Mirrors of Self develops this epistemic premise in dialogue with a diversity of Christian and secular historical and modern perspectives Aspects of human personhood including the ever elusive self gain greater clarity and significance in the light of Christ's person and work At the center of individual human subjectivity we encounter a broken sin blinded self in need of renewal and release What healing we find comes to us as Christ's ecological presence works in and through others the mirrors of self whose instrumental agency Christ employs in service to his own redemptive ends Opening the Field of Practical Theology Kathleen A. Cahalan, Gordon S. Mikoski, 2014-04-10 Opening the Field of Practical Theology introduces students to practical theology through an examination of fifteen different approaches ranging from feminist to liberationist Roman Catholic to evangelical Asian American to Latino a After an introduction to the field of practical theology and its broad range of practice today the book features chapters written by leading experts in the discipline Each chapter has an identical structure to facilitate comparison covering historical context key features and figures norms and sources of authority theory practice contexts interdisciplinary considerations areas of current and future research and suggested readings Opening the Field of Practical Theology is an ideal introduction to the field highlighting the diverse ways practical theology is engaged today

Human Development and Faith (Second Edition) Felicity B. Kelcourse, 2015-07-28 This book now in its second edition brings together the best available understandings of human development from a multidisciplinary perspective Uniquely inclusive of the moral and faith dimensions of context and life cycle development Human Development and Faith examines the interplay of mind body family community and soul at every stage of development It addresses two central questions What are the good enough conditions of parenting family and community in each phase of life from birth to death which support growth and development What gives life adequate meaning as development proceeds If human development describes the normative and hoped for passages of life then faith provides the necessary component of meaning Throughout the various perspectives offered in this volume is the premise that faith is that quality of living that makes it possible to fully live The Journal of Pastoral Theology called the first edition of Human Development and Faith an excellent text for pastoral theology courses because it fulfills its ambitious goal of bringing a holistic faith perspective to the usual topics of development This second edition includes a new chapter on infancy updates reflecting our growing awareness of cultural diversity and a new preface

Transforming Shame Jill L Mcnish, Richard L Dayringer, 2014-02-25 Explore shame s revelatory and transformative potential within Christianity and the Church Learn to understand shame to allow for positive change in your clients and parishioners This book explores psychological spiritual and theological aspects of shame and shame s transformative potential It will help pastoral care givers and mental health workers to identify shame issues and

become agents of healing By examining shame in the gospel accounts of the life ministry and death of Jesus it shows that shame is a vital part of what defines us as human and how shame can draw us into the mystery of our relationship with God From the author This book develops the thesis that shame is a necessary and ontological part of the human condition Shame can become pathological undergirding and dominating the entire personality making it impossible to feel oneself either part of the collective or an individual in one's own right Transformation of shame is a large part of the psychic meaning of the Christ event what Christianity is about Transformation of shame is the experience of grace The great saints and icons of Christianity have used the Christ event to transform shame and experience grace The more completely they have done this the deeper their experience of unity with God With Transforming Shame A Pastoral Response you'll explore the phenomenological meaning of shame the psychological meaning implications and etiology of shame shame in the context of scripture and Christian theology the methodology for contextualizing theories of depth psychology in theology and religious experience human defense mechanisms to shame shame's usefulness in coming to a deeper understanding of personal identity the role of the institutional church in helping its people find meaning in shame and experiencing the grace that comes from shame's transformation how to address the Church's role in fostering toxic shame With practical examples drawn from pastoral ministry and a thoughtful interdisciplinary approach this book will help you understand both the psychology and the spirituality of shame and make the essential connections between the two Extensive references and a handy bibliography point the way to further reading on this fascinating subject

Practical Theology and Qualitative Research - second edition John Swinton, Harriet Mowat, 2016-10-30 Practical Theology is a growing discipline in its own right and the latest thinking in practical theology of how to use theological learning in practical situations is fully explored in this new edition of an established textbook The authors examine methodologies of the social sciences and questions how they can enable the task of theological reflection examine the relationship between qualitative and quantitative methods and highlight the significance of both for the task of practical theology They also take the reader through the actual process of developing and carrying out a research project using the author's own research as case study examples Previous case studies include the rise in spirituality the decline in church attendance evidence based medicine compared to needs led assessments the growth in chaplaincy and how it is understood as separate from parish ministry In this second edition case studies and all bibliographies have been updated plus a new chapter has been added

When Texas Prison Scams Religion Michael G. Maness, 2023-05-22 When Texas Prison Scams Religion exposes corruption in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice especially in the abuse of religion In many ways this book is a literature review of 1 800 plus works that defends freedom of conscience in prison while exposing the unconstitutionality of the seminary program that buys faith with favor from prisoners The state veritably ordains the prisoner a Field Minister that represents the offices of the Governor TDCJ Director and wardens throughout the prison Therein TDCJ lies about neutrality in a program all about Christian missions and lies again in falsely certifying elementary Bible students as counselors Why is the director sponsoring psychopaths counseling psychopaths In fact TDCJ pays 314 million a year to UTMB for psychiatric care and receives not a single report of the care given and worse for UTMB generates no reports itself The underbelly TDCJ s executive culture of cover up is exposed TDCJ has hired the lowest qualified of the applicant pool many times in the last 25 years and regularly destroys statistics on violence TDCJ Dir Collier led the prison to model Louisiana Warden Burl Cain the most scandal ridden in penal history according to a host of published news stories for 20 years Therein Collier led TDCJ to favor the smallest segment of religious society within Evangelical Dominionism Texas has no business endorsing the truth of any religion over another We close with a proposal that utilizes the 400 000 000 hours of officer contact over ten years as a definitive influence in contrast to a commissioner that spends less than 10 minutes on each decision Maness has been lobbying Austin for 15 years to definitively access staff for his 100 000 Mothers 1% Certainty Parole Texas Constitutional Amendment which would revolutionize prison culture and save Texans millions of the dollars

Evaluating Models of Christian Counseling George R. Ross, 2011-03-14 Initially developed as a classroom resource

Evaluating Models of Christian Counseling serves as a primary example of the complexities involved in integrating psychology theology and spirituality into the counseling process The would be counselor and the experienced professional are each introduced to a systematic evaluation model for determining how effectively a specific Christian Counseling Program incorporates psychological spiritual and theological constructs into their milieu After presenting a working definition of the counseling process and its relationship to psychology theology and spirituality an application of the evaluation model to four Christian Counseling programs is demonstrated

Pray without Ceasing Deborah van Deusen Hunsinger, 2006-08-10 Taking seriously Paul s exhortation in 1 Thessalonians to pray without ceasing Deborah van Deusen Hunsinger challenges pastors and congregations to put prayer at the center of their Christian practice and theological reflection In this thought provoking book Hunsinger reclaims spiritual practices from token use and unites them in a dynamic network of interdependent caring traditions The book begins with the three foundational disciplines of spiritual reading careful listening and self reflection Hunsinger then explores prayers of petition intercession confession lament and thanksgiving Finally she offers practical workable suggestions for developing pastoral care groups and teaching care giving skills at the congregational level Clergy and laity alike will reap the benefits of this revitalizing look at the spiritual disciplines as dynamic forces in the life of the church

Ana-María Rizzuto and the Psychoanalysis of Religion Martha J. Reineke, David M. Goodman, 2017-08-24 Ana Mar a Rizzuto s groundbreaking explorations of the formation of God representations in early childhood and their elaboration throughout the life cycle have made their mark enriching the practice of psychoanalysis and psychotherapy as well as scholarship within the psychoanalytic study of religion Accompanied by illuminating commentaries by Rizzuto the authors of this edited collection essays in this volume underscore Rizzuto s most important contribution to clinical practice rather than assert that psychoanalysis is incompatible with religious beliefs and practices or with spiritual concerns that patients may bring to a therapeutic context Rizzuto makes room for the coexistence of psychoanalysis and religion in the therapeutic setting Demonstrating how Rizzuto s work has enhanced connections within and among psychoanalytic theories of religion established pathways for new developments in psychotherapy and facilitated interdisciplinary conversations this volume showcases the compelling power of Rizzuto s work and its ongoing influence

Imagining a Way Clive Pearson, 2017-10-04 From the inception of the Reformed tradition Reformed Christians have followed God s call to engage and change the world Yet little work has been done to bring the tools of practical theology and ethics to bear on the task of understanding the Reformed tradition This comprehensive volume addresses that problem It gathers some of the most respected voices from within the study of Christian ethics and practical theology to ask how the Reformed tradition understands its calling into the world What does being Reformed mean for how one engages the ills of racism white supremacy and homophobia What does it mean for an environmental ethic How does Reformed preaching and liturgy respond to sexual violence These are among the many important issues this book seeks to address Readers will come away with a firmer grasp of how the Reformed tradition informs and animates Christian engagement with the world Contributors include Denise Ackermann Jana Childers Susan Davies Etienne de Villiers Cynthia Jarvis Jong Hyuk Kim Ralph Kunz Cam Murchison Piet Naud Cornelius Plantinga Nancy Ramsay Kang Phee Ramsay Dirk Seng Max Smit Stackhouse William Storrar Geoff Thompson and Hmar Vanlalauva Karl Barth in Conversation W. Travis McMaken, David W. Congdon, 2014-02-18 Karl Barth was an eminently conversational theologian and with the Internet revolution we live today in an eminently conversational age Being the proceedings of the 2010 Karl Barth Blog Conference Karl Barth in Conversation brings these two factors together in order to advance the dialogue about Barth's theology and extend the online conversation to new audiences With conversation partners ranging from Wesley to i ek from Schleiermacher to Jenson from Hauerwas to the Coen brothers this volume opens up exciting new horizons for exploring Barth's immense contribution to church and world The contributors who represent a young new generation of academic theologians bring a fresh perspective to a topic the theology of Karl Barth that often seems to have exhausted its range of possibilities This book proves that there is still a great deal of uncharted territory in the field of Barth studies Today more than forty years since the Swiss theologian's death the conversation is as lively as ever Overcoming Self-Negation Carlton Turner, 2020-10-07 Bearing in mind the complex and multiple legacies of slavery and colonialism particularly as they present themselves in the African Caribbean Turner addresses what he sees as a fundamental but underexplored phenomenon Self Negation He defines this as the tendency for persons living in the aftermath of slavery and colonialism to not like themselves or to live with a dissonance in their identity This problem is particularly seen in the relationship between the Church and African indigenous religious heritages within the region Using the Bahamas as the site for qualitative research and theological reflection he explores the complex relationship between the Church and Junkanoo an African Caribbean street festival Whilst Bahamians eagerly participate in both spheres it is the common belief that Church is sacred and Junkanoo is secular and the two should never mix Turner theorizes that the theological root of the issue is the kinds of colonial hermeneutics that still inform church and cultural practices Whilst Self Negation is perpetuated by a hermeneutic of dichotomy Turner proposes a counter a hermeneutic of embrace that takes African indigenous cultural heritages seriously and brings wholeness to the kinds of religious and cultural identities within postcolonial and post slavery societies

Complementary Views of Western and Islamic Psychology of Religion Sevde Düzgüner, 2022-12-19 Since psychology and religion share the same ground in terms of providing explanations about the human being many religious teachings also contain psychological descriptions Islamic civilization which has existed in vast geographies for centuries offers unique sources to explain human feelings thoughts and behaviors Scientific Western psychology has asserted important theories and researches in understanding human beings Today Western psychology needs to be enriched with new perspectives to make more comprehensive explanations about people with different cultural backgrounds Written by Sevde Düzgüner this book is the product of an effort to discuss the human model of Islam and the human theories of psychology with a complementary approach This book recommends methodological points that must be considered while studying both fields It also attempts to draw a a road map for further studies by determining the areas where Islamic psychology could contribute to Western psychology
