Theology For The Community Of God:

Theology for the Community of God Stanley J. Grenz, 2000-01-31 This proven systematic theology represents the very best in evangelical theology Stanley Grenz presents the traditional themes of Christian doctrine God humankind Christ the Holy Spirit the church and the last things all within an emphasis on God's central program for creation namely the establishment of community Masterfully blending biblical historical and contemporary concerns Grenz's respected work provides a coherent vision of the faith that is both intellectually satisfying and expressible in Christian living Available for the first time in paperback

Created for Community Stanley J. Grenz, 1998-08 Makes theology accessible to a wider audience introducing readers to the core doctrines of the Christian faith and encouraging them to connect belief with everyday life

Created for Community Stanley J. Grenz, Jay T. Smith, 2015-01-13 This revised edition of a classic college level introduction to theology presents the core doctrines of the Christian faith encouraging readers to connect belief with everyday life Stanley Grenz one of the leading evangelical scholars of his era and Jay Smith an expert on Grenz's theological legacy construct a helpful theology that is biblical historical and contemporary The third edition includes a foreword by John Franke a new preface and afterword resources for further study and updated footnotes The book's easy to use format includes end of chapter discussion questions and connects theological concepts with current cultural examples

Theology for the Community of God Stanley J. Grenz, 1994

The Community of God Douglas Bursch, 2017-05-19 We were created for community So why do we want to be alone The Bible tells the story of the immense power of human relationships and God's love for the church Douglas Bursch presents a timely insightful and practical theology of community He examines the relational implications of human existence sin salvation discipleship evangelism and other key biblical concepts Doug also shares unfiltered stories concerning his personal weaknesses and the relational struggles he has faced as a pastor Each chapter contains thought provoking questions that can be used by individuals pastors small groups and college classes for further in depth discussions Doug's writing cuts to the heart of why community is so valuable but so costly The Community of God A Theology of the Church From a Reluctant Pastor is an indispensable resource for creating healthy Christian community in an increasingly individualistic world Doug Bursch is one of the best thinkers of our day He artfully mixes a sound theology with a practical application in a complex combustible 21st Century culture that desperately needs a clarion voice Glenn Burris Jr President of The Foursquare Church Doug is unafraid to question the deep things of our faith but always does so as a committed believer He's interesting passionate and practical all at the same time Dr Steve Schell Senior Pastor of Northwest Church host of Life Lessons and author of Preaching Through Romans

The Kingdom of God Christopher W. Morgan, Robert A. Peterson, 2012-11-30 The kingdom of God is a very large biblical category indeed Accordingly a comprehensive understanding of the kingdom would illuminate many aspects of theology With this in mind Bruce Waltke Robert Yarbrough Gerald Bray Clinton Arnold Gregg Allison Stephen Nichols and Anthony Bradley have collaborated to articulate a full view of the kingdom of God across multiple disciplines One of the most important books on the kingdom since G E Ladd this volume offers a robust theology and is corroborated by the very series in which it stands Fourth in the noted Theology in Community series The Kingdom of God establishes the significance of the kingdom from the perspectives of biblical theology systematic theology history pastoral application missiology and cultural analysis Part of the Theology in Community series The Community of Jesus Kendell H. Easley, Christopher W. Morgan, 2013 A biblical historic systematic and missional theology of the church with contributions from noted academic leaders including Andreas J K stenberger David S Dockery Kendell H Easley Christopher W Morgan and several others God is a Community Brian P. Gaybba, 2004 The present work offers a new synthesis of the entire spectrum of the Christian faith showing its inner unity vibrancy and relevance Revisioning, Renewing, Rediscovering the Triune Center Derek J. Tidball, Brian S. Harris, Dr Jason S Sexton, 2014-11-10 An international cast of theologians come together in this volume to offer essays in tribute to the late Stanley J Grenz one of the leading theologians of his generation Accordingly the volume includes timely explorations in some of the most exciting areas in contemporary theology It is only fitting that these very explorations revolve around the key motifs of Grenz s theology Trinity community eschatology and the key sources from which he drew for theology s construction Scripture tradition culture While engaging key features seen in Grenz s work some of the essays here interact with Grenz s own writings reflecting on his theological journey and his contributions to evangelical theology In these ways this volume highlights the kind of evangelical theology that so many have experienced in recent years and of which Stan Grenz was a leading proponent Revisioning Renewing Rediscovering the Triune Center then makes a significant contribution to discussions in contemporary theology while itself setting out to honor the life and work of an eminent theologian who did so much for evangelical theology God's Church-Community David Emerton, 2020-07-09 David Emerton argues that Dietrich Bonhoeffer s ecclesial thought breaks open a necessary third way in ecclesiological description between the Scylla of ethnographic ecclesiology and the Charybdis of dogmatic ecclesiology Building on a rigorous and provocative discussion of Bonhoeffer s thought Emerton establishes a programmatic theological grammar for any speech about the church Emerton argues that Bonhoeffer understands the church as a pneumatological and eschatological community in space and time and that his understanding is built on eschatological and pneumatological foundations These foundations in turn give rise to a unique methodological approach to ecclesiological description an approach that enables Bonhoeffer to proffer a genuinely theological account of the church in which both divine and human agency are held together through an account of God the Holy Spirit Emerton proposes that this approach is the perfect remedy for an endemic problem in contemporary accounts of the church that of attending either to the human empirical church community ethnographically or to the life of God dogmatically and to each problematically at the expense of the other This book will act as a clarion call towards genuinely theological ecclesiological speech which is allied to real ecclesial action It Takes a Church to Raise a Christian Tod E.

Bolsinger, 2004-04-01 Tod Bolsinger challenges Christians to rediscover the essential nature of God as a Triune community. By doing so, says Bolsinger, the church will recover its vitality as a truly life-transforming communion. Focusing on daily living issues, the book engages writers including John Calvin and Richard Foster. Reclaiming a true trinitarian practical theology will allow Christians to reawaken and nourish a spirituality that is communal, not merely consumerist or individualistic. It will create Christian communities in which God transforms believers together into the likeness of Christ. It Takes a Church to Raise a Christian is designed for pastors, worship leaders, evangelists, and other church leaders.

The Reconciliation of Humanity in Christ Peter Y. Hong, 2024-12-10 The Reconciliation of Humanity in Christ is essential reading for Christians who wish to lead and serve the globalized world. This book is about theological engagement with globalization. Although people are now living in a world in which a universal and inclusive society has emerged, the church has remained powerless in uniting peoples, nations, and civilizations as one in Christ. In order for the church to regain its credibility and confidence, it must address three theological issues: social justice, religious pluralism, and ethics, and the missional method. The rationale for this book is that the power of true religion becomes evident in the world when all Christians are engaging with globalization to reconcile humanity with God and with each other in preparation for the consummation of God's kingdom. In response to the problems of globalization, Christians can become agents of renewal for globalization by administering God's grace and peace for humanity. This book will educate and equip the readers to engage with the issues of globalization in the public arena. Readers will gain a biblical understanding of the church's role in fulfilling God's plan and purpose for humanity through globalization.

The Community of the King Howard A. Snyder, 2010-01-28 Howard A. Snyder probes the relationship between the kingdom of God and our daily experience of the church.

A Theology of Divine Vulnerability Peter Hooton, 2024-05-20 A Theology of Divine Vulnerability: The Silence that Gives Light understands confidence in the idea of God to rest largely on three claims. The first is that God is responsible in some quite fundamental way for the existence of the universe for the fact that there is anything at all. The second is that God's own existence and essential goodness are not vitiated by the presence of evil in the world. And the third is that God knows we are here and shares fully somehow in the joys and pains of transient life. Peter Hooton considers these claims on the whole sympathetically. He prefers to traditional Christian views of God's omnipotence a more nuanced understanding of God's power and draws on a rich plurality of voices to describe God as much more loving than wrathful, as persuasive rather than coercive, as more passible than impassible, and the Christian's relationship with God as essentially a compassionate participation in the reality signified by the crucified and risen Christ.

Greater Community Spirituality Marshall Vian Summers, 2013-09-28 In the Greater Community of Worlds, the idea of God is presented differently than it is in this world. In the Greater Community, the idea of God must be translatable from one society to another where the customs and the rituals, the ideas and the areas of specific application will be unique to each world's spiritual awareness and devotional practices. All that can be translated is the pure experience of Knowledge, the experience of Universal Mind profound awareness and total relationship This is the experience which will be presented in this book an experience of translatable spirituality that is shared between intelligent life everywhere Its application is universal Its experience is universal Its communication is universal The direction that it establishes for sentient beings everywhere is universal Greater Community Spirituality encompasses a larger panorama of life and includes all that has been created here and beyond in all dimensions in all frameworks So complete is it that you cannot fathom its Mystery exhaust its Wisdom or penetrate its Knowledge But you can be the recipient of these things and you can translate them into your own experience and apply them here at great benefit to yourself and to others The world is now emerging into a Greater Community of Worlds Therefore it is necessary for Greater Community Spirituality to be presented here to enable humanity to prepare mentally emotionally and spiritually for the great change that is coming and the great opportunities that this change represents To learn about the Greater Community you must learn of its reality This then is a blessing that you may receive a Greater reality a Greater religion and a Greater God      Theology from the Womb of Asia C.S. Song, 2005-07-07

With Theology from the Womb of Asia Song continues to demonstrate that he is one of the most creative and important theologians of our time He forces us to expand the horizons of our theological vision not only by drawing on the resources of Asian thought and experience but also by insisting that we do theology with passion Here he offers images fables poems parables and visions woven together with his own compelling prose The biblical stories with which we thought we were familiar become new and more compelling stories when we revisit them with this able and wise guide And our whole approach to life and living is transformed by the freshness he breathes into all that he surveys with us Robert McAfee Brown Professor Emeritus of Theology and Ethics Pacific School of Religion In Theology from the Womb of Asia C S Song shows how the story of God s compassion in Jesus and the many heartrending stories and poems of the Asian people are reaching out towards each other Doing theology in this perspective is not a matter of application of doctrine but of recognition of a relation between the suffering God and suffering humanity which transcends many artificial and alienating distinctions The book is an appeal to Asian theologians but at the same time a necessary challenge to a Western academic theology and missionary thinking Bert Hoedemaker Professor of Missions and Christian Ethics University of Groningen the Netherlands A splendid example of doing theology with Asian resources A breath of fresh air to liven up traditional theology using original reflections and observations with the backing of close knowledge of traditional theology A book no theological college can do without Yeow Choo Lak The South East Asia Graduate School of Theology Singapore C S Song is Professor of Theology and Asian Cultures at Pacific School of Religion His recent publications include The Believing Heart      The Church and the Crisis of Community Theresa F. Latini, 2011 Contemporary society is in crisis its structures broken and fragmented and its people overstimulated overstressed and thirsty for true communion with the sacred and with one another Yet although more than eighty five percent of congregations in the United States conduct small group ministry too many of these groups begin with no clear sense of purpose structure or spiritual focus and end by veering away from Christian tradition and unknowingly settling for shallow versions of popular Christianity In The Church and the Crisis of Community Theresa Latini lays out both a theoretical groundwork and a practical guideline for successful small group ministry Examining the latest sociological research and the real life practices of small groups in six congregations she shows how well developed groups those with mission statements leadership training and solid organizational structure can be a truly effective tool in the church's work of transforming broken and shallow forms of community into life giving life sustaining relationships with God and others

Dancing with God Karen Baker-Fletcher, 2006-12-01 Dancing With God is an exploration of the divine gifts of courage and grace in the face of evil Moreover it is a doctrine of God as the source of that courage Baker Fletcher presents an understanding of the work of the Trinity with regard to the problem of crucifixion a metaphor she uses for unnecessary violence She develops a process of relational womanist theology that considers the empathetic omnipresence of God in the midst of unnecessary suffering and the healing power of God in movement of the Holy Spirit She engages the contributions of a diversity of theologians like Paul Tillich Karl Barth Gordon Kaufman John Cobb Jr Majorie Suchocki Charles Hartshorne Andrew Sung Park and Katie Cannon in her discussion of the dance of the Trinity in creation and the problem of sin evil and suffering Through creative works like that of Alice Walker's The Color Purple and journalist Joyce King's account of the James Byrd Jr murder in Jasper County Texas Baker Fletcher reveals the healing encouraging power of the Holy Spirit in the lives of survivors of unnecessary violence

The theology of Albrecht Ritschl. Together with Instruction in the Christian religion by A. Ritschl, tr. by A.M. Swing Albert Temple Swing, 1901 Community, State, and Church Karl Barth, 2004-10-05 Karl Barth was the master theologian of our age Whenever men in the past generation have reflected deeply on the ultimate problems of life and faith they have done so in a way that bears the mark of the intellectual revolution let loose by this Swiss thinker But his life was not simply one of quiet reflection and scholarship He was obliged to do his thinking and writing in one of the stormiest periods of history and he always attempted to speak to the problems and concerns of the time In June 1933 he emerged as the theologian of the Confessional movement which was attempting to preserve the integrity of the Evangelical Church in Germany against corruption from within and terror from without His leadership in this struggle against Nazism also made it necessary for him to say something about the totalitarianism that the Soviet power was clamping down upon a large part of Europe In this indirect way a Barthian social philosophy emerged and this theologian who abjured apologetics and desired nothing but to expound the Word of God was compelled by circumstances to propound views on society and the state that make him one of the most influential social thinkers of our time David Haddorff is Associate Professor of Theology and Religious Studies at St John's University New York He is the author of several articles and reviews and the book Dependence and Freedom The Moral Thought of Horace Bushnell 1994 Table of Contents Introduction by David Haddorff Karl Barth's Theological Politics 1 Gospel and Law 71 Church and State
