Theology and the Mirror of Scripture Kevin J. Vanhoozer, Daniel J. Treier, 2015-12-09 In this inaugural volume in the Studies in Christian Doctrine and Scripture Daniel J Treier and Kevin J Vanhoozer set forth a programmatic proposal for evangelical theology rooted in the claim that the church's vocation is to mirror the witness of Scripture in its doctrine and discipleship

The Dialectics of Mission Elmer A. Guzman, 2023-09-15 Drawing on the resources of contemporary systematic theologians Kevin Vanhoozer and Veli Matti Kärkkäinen Elmer A Guzman explores the generative dimension of mission for the formation of doctrine for a church that needs to witness in a pluralistic world Guzman argues that understanding doctrinal formation and development depends on the missional dimension of doctrinal hermeneutics In other words these theological concepts and practices are justified based on the negotiation between theological sources identity markers and the context's diversity markers This book shows how perspectives arising from the structural elements in theological methodology shed fresh light on missional theology and the interconnections between the doctrinal loci in theology

Enacting Atonement Roy McDaniel, 2025-11-04 Discover the story of salvation in Christ through Levitical rituals Atonement lies at the heart of the Christian faith In Christ's work of atonement we are reconciled to God enabled to draw near to him and can see his glory Through studying the Levitical burnt offering Roy McDaniel takes readers on a deep exploration of Leviticus 1:1-9 in this thought provoking volume part of the Studies in Christian Doctrine and Scripture series from IVP Academic Using elements of narrative analysis like setting plot and hero McDaniel shows how the Levitical burnt offering is a ritual recapitulation of the narrative of Israel's election and deliverance as depicted in Genesis and Exodus and how in doing so it proclaims the atoning work of Christ At the heart of this work lies the logic of atonement present in the Levitical burnt offering an idea that contributes to the doctrine of atonement by demonstrating how Christ's incarnate sacrifice is rooted in his eternal identity as God the Son In Enacting Atonement Roy McDaniel Provides a coherent account of atonement centered on the eternal identity of the Son Shows how Levitical sacrifice can inform the church's doctrine of atonement by modeling a careful theological exegesis of Leviticus and Explores questions about the meaning of sacrifice and its relationship to the being and attributes of God Whether you're a scholar student pastor theologian or a layperson seeking deeper understanding Enacting Atonement invites you to uncover the rich tapestry of God's redemptive narrative in the Levitical ritual

The Pursuit of Safety Jeremy Lundgren, 2024-10-01 In this constructive theological analysis of safety theologian Jeremy Lundgren addresses the conceptual development of safety through premodern early modern and late modern settings and gives practical guidance on how to faithfully engage the pursuit of safety in the present day

The Trinity in the Book of Revelation Brandon D. Smith, 2022-12-27 With its vivid imagery and rich prophetic language the book of Revelation confronts and confuses readers perhaps more than any other Biblical book Brandon Smith brings clarity by reading Revelation primarily as John's faithful vision of the triune God and in doing so helps us better worship the one who is Father Son and Holy Spirit      The Paradox of Sonship R. B. Jamieson, 2021-05-25 What does the epistle to the Hebrews mean when it calls Jesus Son Pastor and New Testament scholar R B Jamieson probes the complexity of the Christology presented in the epistle to the Hebrews Exploring the paradox of this key term Jamieson argues that Son names both who Jesus is eternally and what he becomes at the climax of his incarnate saving mission      Local and Universal C.

Ryan Fields, 2024-02-06 How might we reclaim the universality of the church without losing its local situatedness In this SCDS volume C Ryan Fields juxtaposes the Free Church tradition with its Episcopal counterpart arguing that the Free Church tradition can helpfully inform our understanding of the one body of Christ while remaining true to its local roots

Seeing by the Light Ike Miller, 2020-05-05 How can we understand God's revelation to us Exploring both Augustine's and Karl Barth's readings of the Johannine literature Ike Miller casts a broader vision of divine illumination arguing for a fully Trinitarian view of illumination that forms not just our intellect but also appeals to the affections and encourages our ethical action      Political Church Jonathan Leeman, 2016-03-02 What is the nature of the church as an institution What are the limits of the church's political reach Drawing on covenant theology and the new institutionalism in political science Jonathan Leeman critiques political liberalism and explores how the biblical canon informs an account of the local church as an embassy of Christ's kingdom

Progressive Creation and the Struggles of Humanity in the Bible Zoltan Dornyei, 2018-03-22 Why does the Christian walk often feel like an ongoing struggle and why does God's creation include imperfection let alone forces that are intent on thwarting God's creative work In seeking a response to these questions this book argues that the biblical accounts describe creation in terms of a progressive transformation process whereby the initially incomplete created order will reach perfection only in the fulfillment of new creation The following discussion then outlines a comprehensive framework for the biblical theology of humanity's struggles centered on three key themes corporeal temptation deficient social structures and the much debated notion of spiritual warfare The book presents an overarching canonical narrative that threads together a series of diverse biblical topics from Job's temptation to the Atonement The final part surveys biblical teaching on how human conduct can be aligned with God's creative purpose and discusses three assignments from Jesus to believers to celebrate the Eucharist to pray the Lord's Prayer and to fulfill the Great Commission      Reading the Bible Theologically Darren Sarisky, 2019-01-17 Examines what theological reading is and how it shapes the interpretation of Biblical text through explicit focus on the reader

Scripture and Theology Tomas Bokedal, Ludger Jansen, Michael Borowski, 2023-08-21 The academic disciplines of Biblical Studies and Systematic Theology were long closely linked to one another However in the modern period they became gradually separated which led to increasing subject specialization but also to a lamentable lacuna within the various branches of Divinity As the lack of dialogue between Biblical Studies and the various theological disciplines increased a minority group of scholars in the past few decades reacted and sought to re-establish the time honoured bonds between the disciplines The present volume is part of this intellectual response with contributions from scholars of various professional and denominational backgrounds Together the book s 25 chapters seek to reinvigorate the crucial cross disciplinary dialogue involving biblical narrative historical systematic theological and philosophic theological perspectives The book opens the horizon to contemporary research and fills a lamentable research gap with a number of fresh contributions from scholars in the respective sub disciplines

The Hermeneutical Spirit Amos Yong,2017-11-06 In the contemporary biblical studies climate proposals regarding the theological interpretation of Scripture are contested particularly but not only because they privilege encourage and foster ecclesial or other forms of normative commitments as part and parcel of the hermeneutical horizon through which scriptural texts are read and understood Within this context confessional approaches have been emerging including some from within the nascent pentecostal theological tradition This volume builds on the author s previous work in theological method to suggest a pentecostal perspective on theological interpretation that is rooted in the conviction that all Christian reading of sacred Scripture is post Pentecost meaning after the Day of Pentecost outpouring of the Spirit on all flesh in anticipation of the coming reign of God In that respect such a pentecostal interpretative perspective is not parochially for those within the modern day movement bearing that name but is arguably apostolic in following after the scriptural imagination of the earliest disciples of Jesus the messiah and therefore has ecumenical and missional purchase across space and time The Hermeneutical Spirit thus provides close readings of various texts across the scriptural canon as a model for Christian theological interpretation of Scripture suitable for the twenty first century global context

Beyond Male and Female? Sam Ashton,2023-09-21 In this incisive work Sam Ashton provides a compelling consistent and erudite argument for a foundational approach to the matter of sexual difference drawing on biblical and doctrinal material and using resources in their original languages He tracks and traces the sexed body as it moves from creation through the fall to redemption now and final consummation not yet In doing so Ashton presents what is perhaps the strongest case that can be made for male and female He created them Each chapter privileges biblical exegesis drawing upon figures in church history notably Augustine and Aquinas as and when they illumine Scripture By doing so the book considers the difficulty presented to sexual dimorphism by the phenomenon of intersex Ashton seeks to develop an understanding that is generous inclusive and affirming so he works carefully through the writings of Thatcher Song and Cornwall in a way that invites engagement and dialogue With the complete divine drama in view the book offers synthetic judgments about what remains essential for the structure of the sexed body as it travels through history and what may be accidental to the sexed body s direction within a particular theo dramatic act Ashton concludes by considering ways to transition from dogmatic judgments about intersexuality to the moral pastoral care of concrete intersex individuals briefly thinking about the complex matter of marriage

Reading Scripture as the Church Derek W. Taylor, 2020-09-22 The Bible is meant to be read in the church by the church as the church Following the example of Dietrich Bonhoeffer Derek Taylor argues that we should regard the reading of Scripture as an inherently communal exercise of discipleship In conversation with other theologians Taylor shares how this approach to Scripture can engender a faithful hermeneutical community

Bearing Witness Daniel Lee Hill, 2025-04-22 In an era when the label evangelical is hotly contested and often entangled with political agendas Daniel Lee Hill's Bearing Witness offers a timely reexamination of what it means to live out the gospel in public life Drawing on the rich legacy of nineteenth century abolitionists David Ruggles Maria W Stewart and William Still Hill constructs a compelling evangelical framework for public witness anchored in Scripture and the practice of lament and burden bearing Hill challenges evangelicals to rediscover their roots in a tradition that speaks powerfully to contemporary debates over church culture and the call to social justice Bearing Witness will be an indispensable guide for professors students pastors and laypeople committed to a faith that speaks to the public square

The Interpreting Spirit Hannah R. K. Mather, 2020-10-08 The Interpreting Spirit is both a consideration of the Spirit's role in the interpretation of Scripture and a celebration of renewal scholarship It examines those who have focused on the Spirit's role in their hermeneutical considerations recognizing common uniting themes amidst the diversity of scholarly approach and opinion Working on the principle that the Spirit communicates in ways that seek to unify and celebrate the other Mather works diachronically from 1970 identifying and drawing together these common uniting hallmarks into a collective understanding Pivotal to Mather's argument is her emphasis that we do not just interpret Scripture but that the Spirit through Scripture and working in our lives in ways that lead us towards Scripture interprets us The Interpreting Spirit is the first comprehensive analysis of the conversation surrounding pneumatic interpretation that has been taking place particularly among renewal scholars since 1970 It seeks to answer the notoriously difficult question What does the Spirit do in the process of biblical interpretation
