Theology Of Tariq Ramadan The:

The Theology of Tariq Ramadan Gregory Baum, 2009 Theology of Tariq Ramadan provides an introduction Tariq Ramadan's theology alongside the Catholic tradition

The Theology of Tariq Ramadan Gregory Baum, 2009 Tariq Ramadan has emerged as one of the most influential Muslim theologians in the world today In this important book Gregory Baum presents for the first time an introduction to several key aspects of Ramadan's theological enterprise Baum examines Ramadan's work historically within an interfaith perspective drawing several parallels between Islamic and Catholic encounters with modernity His comparison of the debates in the two traditions suggests that reform and renewal are compatible with the substance of both Catholic and Muslim traditions After a brief account of the evolution of Catholic theology up to the Second Vatican Council Baum introduces Ramadan's published work and theological orientation examining both within the historical development of Islam He outlines Ramadan's theology of God humanity and the universe and discusses Ramadan's interpretation of sharia the divinely revealed Islamic way of life The book then addresses what fidelity to Islam means for Western Muslims and contrasts Ramadan's theology with the theological liberalism advocated by some Muslim authors Throughout Baum makes helpful connections between Islam and Vatican II Catholicism Both belief systems are steeped in ancient traditions rely on a sacred book and find themselves confronting a modern context Reformist Islam shares much with Catholic social thought in showing a regard for the poor and marginalized Baum concludes by examining points of difference between Muslim and Catholic theology that support further conversation This readable introduction to Ramadan's work is accessible to non-Muslim students teachers clergy and general readers interested in Islam and interfaith dialogue This book is a beautiful example of serious theological dialogue between two seminal theologians of our age Gregory Baum and Tariq Ramadan It is a balanced and significant contribution to scholarship about Ramadan's thought for at least two reasons first it provides a very important perspective on the similarities that Catholicism earlier and Islam today have shared in facing the many challenges of modernity and second the conclusion Professor Baum reaches may be short but is profound the time for religious secular dialogue has come Patrice Brodeur Canada Research Chair on Islam Pluralism and Globalization Universite de Montreal Gregory Baum is a gift to the Church and indeed to the world A stalwart of the Vatican II era he is now an eminence grise of North American Christianity in its efforts to engage the secular world through a confident and critical dialogue about meaning In this remarkable and pioneering volume he engages contemporary Islam through a typically generous reading of one of its most influential theologians Tariq Ramadan Avoiding the often silly but sometimes brutal polemics that have obscured the quality of Ramadan's reformist thought Baum notes the striking affinities between Islam's and Catholicism's respective encounters with democracy religious freedom and critical reading of sacred sources among other contested issues Having absorbed the deepest insights of Catholicism's recent revolution in self-understanding a revolution he helped to stimulate and advance this unofficial quietly charismatic ambassador of Christian intellectual innovation has provided invaluable insight into the mind of the person who has been termed the Muslim Martin Luther Baum as he has in the past is pointing the way forward for innovative and serious theological work in the opening of sustained dialogue and conversation with the contemporary current of Islamic reform represented by figures like Ramadan he rightly sees an opportunity for a renewal of Catholic theology in its service to the cause of reconciliation and peace Scott Appleby University of Notre Dame

Introduction to Islam Tariq Ramadan, 2017-09-12 From one of the most prominent intellectuals in the Muslim world comes a timely new introduction to one of the world's most practiced and most misunderstood religions In frank unapologetic language Tariq Ramadan walks readers through Islam and its principles rituals diversity and evolution Ramadan known for his efforts to reform and change the understanding of Islam in the West avoids ideology and idealism instead attempting to depict the true meaning of Islam for readers who have no previous experience with the religion The book is therefore focused on defining the basic principles of Islam and offering an overview of the faith's history from its beginnings in prophetic mission to the Sunni Shi'a schism to the formation of distinct schools of law theology philosophy and mysticism Perhaps the most misinterpreted aspect of Islam shariah literally translated as the way that leads to a source of water receives an entire chapter of attention Ramadan explains the ways in which shariah has been reduced by fundamentalism to a mere criminal code and expands upon its place in the larger Islamic worldview He then confronts some of the most pressing issues facing Muslims today including gender equality religious diversity and violence Both sensitive and accessible Introduction to Islam is a much needed guide to understanding the role of Islam in the modern world

What I Believe Tariq Ramadan, 2009-10-06 Tariq Ramadan is very much a public figure named one of Time magazine's most important innovators of the twenty first century He is among the leading Islamic thinkers in the West with a large following around the world But he has also been a lightning rod for controversy Indeed in 2004 Ramadan was prevented from entering the U S by the Bush administration and despite two appeals supported by organizations like the American Academy of Religion and the ACLU he was barred from the country until spring of 2010 when Secretary of State Hillary Clinton finally lifted the ban In What I Believe Ramadan attempts to set the record straight laying out the basic ideas he stands for in clear and accessible prose He describes the book as a work of clarification directed at ordinary citizens politicians journalists and others who are curious or skeptical about his positions Aware that that he is dealing with emotional issues Ramadan tries to get past the barriers of prejudice and misunderstanding to speak directly from the heart to his Muslim and non Muslim readers alike In particular he calls on Western Muslims to escape the mental social cultural and religious ghettos they have created for themselves and become full partners in the democratic societies in which they live At the same time he calls for the rest of us to recognize our Muslim neighbors as citizens with rights and responsibilities the same as ours His vision is of a future in which a shared and confident pluralism becomes a reality at last landscape are engendering intensive attention concerning political theology New trends and traditional ideas equally colour these movements Given that a medley of recent books and articles have exhaustively treated both the history and the current resurgence of political theology we now find ourselves faced with the task of reinventing and redefining the future of political theology This book presents a rich overview of fresh contemporary theoretical approaches uniquely prioritizing the prospects of the future of political theology but also making room for significant interventions from philosophy and political theory Including prominent essays on Judaic Islamic Buddhist and Christian perspectives this book balances elements from post modern theology with more classical as well as anti post modern approaches

The Future of Political Theology Péter Losonczi, Mika Luoma-aho, Aakash Singh, 2016-03-16 Recent shifts in the contemporary cultural political and religious

Islam, the West and the Challenges of Modernity Tariq Ramadan, 2009-09-01 Tariq Ramadan attempts to demonstrate using sources which draw upon Islamic thought and civilization that Muslims can respond to contemporary challenges of modernity without betraying their identity The book argues that Muslims nourished by their own points of reference can approach the modern epoch by adopting a specific social political and economic model that is linked to ethical values a sense of finalities and spirituality Rather than a modernism that tends to impose Westernization it is a modernity that admits to the pluralism of civilizations religions and cultures Table of Contents Foreword Introduction History of a Concept The Lessons of History Part 1 At the shores of Transcendence between God and Man Part 2 The Horizons of Islam Between Man and the Community Part 3 Values and Finalities The Cultural Dimension of the Civilizational Face to Face Conclusion Appendix Index Tariq Ramadan is a professor of Islamic Studies at the University of Oxford and a visiting professor in Identity and Citizenship at Erasmus University He was named by TIME Magazine as one of the one hundred innovators of the twenty first century

The Messenger Tariq Ramadan, 2008 The life of the Prophet Muhammad to whom the Angel Gabriel revealed the verses of the Quran has provided inspiration to Muslims for hundreds of years In The Messenger leading Muslim scholar Tariq Ramadan considers the ways in which the Prophet s actions words and teachings can guide us in the modern world Interspersed with spiritual and philosophical meditations this profound and stimulating biography shows how Muhammad s message can be used to address some of today s most controversial issues from the treatment of the poor and the role of women to the interpretation of jihad and relations with other religions It offers Muslims a new understanding of Muhammad s life and introduces non Muslims to the story of the Prophet and to the riches of Islam

The Idea of European Islam Mohammed Hashas, 2018-07-24

Suspensions about the integration of Islam into European cultures have been steadily on the rise and dramatically so since 9 11 One reason lies in the visibility of anti Western Islamic discourses of salafi origin which have monopolized the debate on the true Islam not only among Muslims but also in the eyes of the general population across Europe these discourses combined with Islamophobic discourses reinforce the so called incompatibility between the West and Islam This book breaks away from this clash between Islam and the West by arguing that European Islam is possible It analyzes the contribution that European Islam has made to the formation of an innovative Islamic theology that is deeply ethicist and modern and it clarifies

how this constructed European Islamic theology is able to contribute to the various debates that are related to secular liberal democracies of Western Europe Part I introduces four major projects that defend the idea of European Islam from different disciplines and perspectives politics political theology jurisprudence and philosophy Part II uses the frameworks from three major philosophers and scholars to approach the idea of European Islam in the context of secular liberal societies British scholar George Hourani Moroccan philosopher Taha Abderrahmane and the American philosopher John Rawls The book shows that the ongoing efforts of European Muslim thinkers to revisit the concept of citizenship and political community can be seen as a new kind of political theology in opposition to radical forms of Islamic thinking in some Muslim majority countries Opening a new path for examining Islamic thought in and of Europe this book will appeal to students and scholars of Islamic Studies Islam in the West and Political Theology Christianity, Islam, and the West Robert A.

Burns,2011-12-01 This book has its origins in a comparative religions course Burns has taught at the University of Arizona for the past thirty years Those who have enrolled in the class have come from diverse religious and cultural backgrounds Whatever the mix a shared curiosity about Christianity Judaism and Islam has always been present Since the 9 11 attacks on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon students as well as the general public are especially interested in Islam Like many Americans they have little or no knowledge of the Islamic religion This work touches upon the origins and central teachings of the Islamic religion and discusses the commonalities and differences between Islam and Christianity Throughout the book Burns poses and answers the kinds of questions most frequently asked by his students This approach will be helpful to students in comparative religions courses as well as other individuals interested in the connections between Christianity and Islam The purpose of this book is to help alleviate the misinformation surrounding Islam and Christianity and to inspire a dialogue between the two religions Such communication will the author hopes help promote justice and peace throughout the world Western Muslims and the Future of Islam Tariq Ramadan,2003-11-27 Tariq Ramadan one of Europe's leading thinkers and one of Islam's most innovative and important voices explores in this volume what it means to be a Western Muslim addressing a topic that is vitally important to the futures of both Islam and the West Ramadan claims that a silent revolution is sweeping Islamic communities in the West as Muslims actively seek ways to live in harmony with their faith within a Western context French English German and American Muslims women as well as men are reshaping their religion into one that is faithful to the principles of Islam dressed in European and American cultures and definitively rooted in Western societies

Manifesto of the Critical Theory of Society and Religion (3 Vols.) Rudolf Siebert,2010-08-16 The Manifesto develops further the Critical Theory of Religion intrinsic to the Critical Theory of Society of the Frankfurt School into a new paradigm of the Psychology Sociology Philosophy and Theology of Religion Its central theme is the theodicy problem in the context of late capitalist society and its globalization Tradition and Modernity David Marshall,2013-05-20 Tradition and Modernity focuses on how Christians and Muslims connect their traditions to modernity looking especially at understandings of history changing patterns of authority and approaches to freedom The volume includes a selection of relevant texts from 19th and 20th century thinkers from John Henry Newman to Tariq Ramadan accompanied by illuminating commentaries

Islamic Liberation Theology Hamid Dabashi, 2008-05-14 This book is a radical piece of counter intuitive rethinking of the clash of civilizations theory and global politics In this richly detailed criticism of contemporary politics Hamid Dabashi argues that after 9 11 we have not seen a new phase in a long running confrontation between Islam and the West but that such categories have in fact collapsed and exhausted themselves The West is no longer a unified actor and Islam is ideologically depleted in its confrontation with colonialism Rather we are seeing the emergence of the US as a lone superpower and a confrontation between a form of imperial globalized capital and the rising need for a new Islamic theodicy The combination of political salience and theoretical force makes Islamic Liberation Theology a cornerstone of a whole new generation of thinking about political Islamism and a compelling read for anyone interested in contemporary Islam current affairs and US foreign policy Dabashi drives his well supported and thoroughly documented points steadily forward in an earnest and highly readable style

Muslim Societies and the Challenge of Secularization: An Interdisciplinary Approach Gabriele Marranci, 2010-09-08 Scholars from various disciplines worked together to present the first interdisciplinary book to address the issue of Islam secularism and globalization The book has a clear structure which represents its interdisciplinary approach the first section addresses the philosophical and historical discussion about Islam and secularism the second section discusses the topic from an ethnographical and social anthropological viewpoint and the final section addresses Islam secularism and globalization from a political viewpoint This unique collection not only offers innovative research and new material it also provides empirical examples and theoretical debates and could therefore also be used as a textbook for courses on Islam globalization anthropology politics sociology and law

Intellectual Discourse in the West Dilyana Mincheva, 2016-01-15 This book is a case study in the literary psychoanalytic and theological encounters between diasporic Muslim intellectuals and secular western modernity It centres on the simultaneous search for the possibility of both a reformation of Islamic fundamentalism and a transformation of the exclusionary limitations of western public institutions With roots in original research in the fields of comparative religion and cultural studies and drawing on sources in English French and Arabic the author introduces and elaborates the concept of Western Islamic public sphere This concept defines what is at stake in the formative play of public representations where traditionalist foundations and modernist adaptations meet clash and produce discourse around their common disequilibrium The Western Islamic public sphere which is secular but not secularist and which is Islamic but not Islamist within which a critical Islamic intellectual universe can unfold deals hermeneutically with texts and politically with lived practices It emerges from within the arc of two alternative conflicting yet equally dismissive suspicions defined by a view that critical Islam is the new imperial rhetoric of hegemonic orientalism and the opposite view that critical Islam is just fundamentalism camouflaged in liberal rhetoric This innovative and original scholarly apparatus offers a third view one that arises in its practice from ethical commitment to intellectual engagement creativity and imagination as a portal to the open horizons of conflictual history The Critique of Religion and Religion's Critique, 2020-04-14 In The Critique of Religion and

Religion s Critique On Dialectical Religiology Dustin J Byrd compiles numerous essays honouring the life and work of the Critical Theorist Rudolf J Siebert His dialectical religiology rooted in the critical theory of the Frankfurt School especially Theodor Adorno Max Horkheimer Walter Benjamin Herbert Marcuse Erich Fromm Leo L wenthal and J rgen Habermas is both a theory and method of understanding religion s critique of modernity and modernity s critique of religion Born out of the Enlightenment and its most important thinkers i e Kant Hegel Marx Nietzsche and Freud religion is understood to be dialectical in nature It contains within it both revolutionary and emancipatory elements but also reactionary and regressive elements which perpetuate mankind s continual debasement enslavement and oppression Thus religion by nature is conflicted within itself and thus stands against itself Dialectical Religiology attempts to rescue those elements of religion from the dustbin of history and reintroduce them into society via their determinate negation As such it attempts to resolve the social political theological and philosophical antagonisms that plague the modern world in hopes of producing a more peaceful justice filled equal and reconciled society The contributors to this book recognize the tremendous contributions of Dr Rudolf J Siebert in the fields of philosophy sociology history and theology and have profited from his long career This book attempts to honour that life and work Contributors include Edmund Arens Gregory Baum Francis Brassard Dustin J Byrd Denis R Janz Gottfried K enzlen Mislav Kuko Michael R Ott Rudolf J Siebert Hans K Weitensteiner and Brian C Wilson

Witnessing God Alexander E. Massad, 2024-12-16 This book is a comparative theological investigation into the following question how does one theologically understand the sincere truth seeking religious other who rejects one's truth claims not out of animosity or ignorance but rather from a desire to worship God in spirit and in truth Specifically this book investigates the extent to which soteriologically exclusivist Muslims and Christians maintain their respective truth claims while maintaining a posture of vulnerability to the revisionary power of the religious other's claims To answer these questions this book examines comparative theology's missiological foundation through a dialogical study of neo Calvinist and Reformist Sunni understandings of the epistemic status of the religious other This book is a practice in comparative theology with the goal of rethinking neo Calvinist theology of religions through Islamic thought to present a missiological comparative theology amenable to exclusivist theological positions within Christianity and Islam

T&T Clark Handbook of Public Theology, 2022-06-02 T T Clark Handbook of Public Theology introduces the various philosophical and theological positions and approaches in the emerging discourse of public theology Distinguishing public theology from political theology as well as from liberation theology this book clarifies central terms like public sphere the secular and post secularity in order to highlight the specific characteristics of public theology Its particular focus lies on the ways in which much of public theology has established itself as a contextual theology in politically secular societies aiming to continue the apologetical tradition in this specific context Depending on what is regarded as the most pressing challenge for the reasonable defence of the Christian hope in liberal democracies public theologians have focused on social ethics ecclesiology or Soteriology with the aim to strengthen the virtues needed for democratic citizenship Here attention is being paid to Protestant Catholic and Orthodox perspectives The volume further illustrates the characteristics of the discourse by introducing the ways in which public theologians have responded to concrete challenges arising in the spheres of politics economics ecology sports culture and religion To highlight the international scope of the public theological discourse the volume concludes with a summarizing overview of public theological debates in Africa Asia Australia Europe North America and Latin America
