Halfyard, Nicholas Reyland, 2024-12-17 The Palgrave Handbook to Music and Sound in Peak TV charts the transformation of television's sonic storytelling during the new golden age of televisual narrative from the late 1990s to the early 2020s Grounded in close analytical critical and theoretical work identifying the key traits of music and sound in this peak TV period the book casts its critical net wider to develop interpretations of significance not just for screen music studies and musicology but for screen and media studies too By theorizing peakness with respect to sound and music and by drawing together contributions from a diverse collection of prominent musicologists media scholars and practitioners this handbook provides the authoritative guide to the role music has played in creating the success of some of the most culturally and commercially significant popular art of the early twenty first century The volume contains 25 essays in three main sections Concepts and Aesthetics Practices and Production and Audiences and Interpretations Topics discussed include peakness complexity ostentatious scoring antiheroes memory franchises worldbuilding nostalgia maternity trauma actor's voices title sequences library music branding queer camp scoring kids TV captioning industry practices HBO and sound design Shows examined include The Sopranos The Wire Game of Thrones Battlestar Galactica Westworld Buffy the Vampire Slayer Stranger Things The Bridge Dexter Killing Eve Mad Men American Horror Story Rings of Power Fargo Peaky Blinders Call the Midwife Twin Peaks and Twin Peaks The Return

Culture: Raise 'low', Rethink 'high.' A Representation of the Academic Potential of So-Called 'Low' Culture

Emma Buchanan, 2020-11-15 Despite or more likely due to being the culture which most affects and interacts with the masses the broad and definition evading category of popular culture remains a second class citizen in academia relegated to a position of low below a culture deemed high and worthy of scholarly inquiry This eclectic collection of essays aims to convince that this inequality must be addressed by exploring a variety of supposedly low cultural types and texts through an academic lens proving that so called low culture can be a valuable contribution to academic research That said raising the low does not mean making it high turning it into an elite category to be accessed only by experts Rather the authors are unswerving in their approach that academic writing and fan writing are not mutually exclusive On the contrary it is their knowledge and passion as fans of their subject matter that has inspired their chapters all of which draw upon their considerable experience of engaging as fans in what they discuss All the chapters have been written by postgraduate students seeking to inspire a new empiricism through which their interests might be fully pursued in their futures as scholars Emma Buchanan is a British postgraduate researcher and television fan who is currently writing up her PhD thesis on the topic of gender and change in AMC's The Walking Dead as understood from the point of view of Jungian depth psychology
