Schuurman,2019-06-30

Evangelicals have been scandalized by their association with Donald Trump their megachurches summarily dismissed as religious Walmarts In The Subversive Evangelical Peter Schuurman shows how a growing group of reflexive evangelicals use irony to critique their own tradition and distinguish themselves from the stereotype of right wing evangelicalism Entering the Meeting House an Ontario based Anabaptist megachurch as a participant observer Schuurman discovers that the marketing is clever and the venue a rented movie theatre is attractive to the more than five thousand weekly attendees But the heart of the church is its charismatic leader Bruxy Cavey whose anti religious teaching and ironic tattoos offer a fresh image for evangelicals This charisma Schuurman argues is not just the power of one individual it is a dramatic production in which Cavey his staff and attendees cooperate cultivating an identity as an irreligious megachurch and providing followers with a more culturally acceptable way to practise their faith in a secular age Going behind the scenes to small group meetings church dance parties and the homes of attendees to investigate what motivates these reflexive evangelicals Schuurman reveals a playful and provocative counterculture that distances itself from prevailing stereotypes while still embracing a conservative Christian faith Catholic Women Confront Their Church Celia Viggo Wexler,2024-11-05 Catholic Women Confront Their Church tells the stories of nine exceptional women who have chosen to remain Catholic despite their deep disagreements with the institutional church From Barbara Blaine founder of Survivors Network of Those Abused by Priests SNAP to Sister Simone Campbell whose Nuns on the Bus tour for social justice generated national attention the book highlights women whose stories illustrate not only problems in the church but also the promise of reform The women profiled span a diverse range of ages ethnicities and experiences single and married lesbian and straight mothers and sisters The women profiled share one trait that faith is bigger than the institutional church The book s Introduction provides readers with an essential overview of the history of women in the church and the Conclusion looks at the potential for future change

Ideal for anyone who has struggled with the Catholic church's relationship with women this moving book offers hope Aka Bp nichol Charles B. Swayne, Frank Davey, 2012 Patience and aggression are key elements of a successful poker strategy but also as this innovative and accessible guide reveals to a successful leadership strategy in business decisions Acclaimed poker instructor Charles Swayne presents down to earth career advice using a language that makes the valuable guidance both relatable and understandable the language of poker The logic based viewpoint built upon proven strategies will be a welcome relief to individuals who have been turned off by self help books that use empty metaphors and promises and are looking to give their professional cir

The Uncomfortable Pew Bruce Douville, 2021-05-20 In The Uncomfortable Pew Bruce Douville explores the relationship between Christianity and the New Left in English Canada from 1959 to 1975 Focusing primarily on Toronto he examines the impact that left wing student radicalism had on Canada's largest Christian denominations and the role that Christianity played in shaping Canada's New Left Based on extensive archival research and oral interviews this study reconstructs the social and intellectual worlds of young radicals who saw themselves as part of both the church and the revolution Douville looks at major communities of faith and action including the Student Christian Movement Kairos and the Latin American Working Group and explains what made these and other groups effective incubators for left wing student activism He also sheds light on Canada's Roman Catholic Anglican and United churches and the ways that progressive older Christians engaged with radical youth and the issues that concerned them including the Vietnam War anti imperialism around the globe women's liberation and gay liberation Challenging the idea that the New Left was atheistic and secular The Uncomfortable Pew reveals that many young activists began their careers in student Christian organizations and these religious and social movements deeply influenced each other While the era was one of crisis and decline for leading Canadian churches Douville shows how Christianity retained an important measure of influence during a period of radical social change

Spirits of Protestantism Pamela E. Klassen, 2011-07-14 Spirits of Protestantism reveals how liberal Protestants went from being early twentieth century medical missionaries seeking to convert others through science and scripture to becoming vocal critics of missionary arrogance who experimented with non western healing modes such as Yoga and Reiki Drawing on archival and ethnographic sources Pamela E Klassen shows how and why the very notion of healing within North America has been infused with a Protestant supernatural liberalism In the course of coming to their changing vision of healing liberal Protestants became pioneers three times over in the struggle against the cultural and medical pathologizing of homosexuality in the critique of Christian missionary triumphalism and in the diffusion of an ever more ubiquitous anthropology of body mind and spirit At a time when the political and anthropological significance of Christianity is being hotly debated Spirits of Protestantism forcefully argues for a reconsideration of the historical legacies and cultural effects of liberal Protestantism even for the anthropology of religion itself

Crosstalk Diana Brydon, Marta

Dvořák,2012-08-07 What are the fictions that shape Canadian engagements with the global What frictions emerge from these encounters In negotiating aesthetic and political approaches to Canadian cultural production within contexts of global circulation this collection argues for the value of attending to narratorial lyric and theatrical conventions in dialogue with questions of epistemological and social justice Using the twinned framing devices of crosstalk and cross sighting the contributing authors attend to how the interplay of the verbal and the visual maps public spheres of creative engagement today Individual chapters present a range of methodological approaches to understanding national culture and creative labour in global contexts Through their collective enactment of methodological crosstalk they demonstrate the productivity of scholarly debate across differences of outlook culture and training In highlighting convergences and disagreements the book sharpens our understanding of how literary and critical conventions and theories operate within and across cultures
