The Work-Smart Academic Planner, Revised Edition Peg Dawson, Richard Guare, 2017-02-16 From executive skills experts Peg Dawson and Richard Guare this large format academic planner is specially designed for students in grades 6-12. It provides a system for keeping track of assignments and due dates while developing the crucial executive skills needed to succeed in school and beyond. Students are guided to build a daily study plan, manage their time, set short and long term goals, study for tests, and record their successes. They also get tools for evaluating their own executive skills in order to target their weaknesses and capitalize on strengths.

Women Leaders in School Psychology Carol S. Lidz, 2020-08-24 This book offers the autobiographical reflections of prominent women school psychologists who are at or near completion of their careers. It demonstrates the varied and diverse journeys of these women in their own words. The volume examines the ways in which leading women in the field have evolved from primarily frontline service providers to full contributors at all levels of the profession. Chapters offer insights into school psychology movers and shakers and explore how many found a home in academia where they became trainers of the next generation. In addition, chapters examine the opportunities and restraints that these women leaders confronted across the years. The book celebrates the success of these women and encourages both women and men to pursue roles in the profession. Women Leaders in School Psychology is an informative read for graduate students and scientist-practitioners as well as researchers, professors, and other professionals in child and school psychology, educational policy and politics, family studies, social work, public health, clinical and developmental psychology, and all related psychology, mental health, and education disciplines.

Smart but Scattered Peg Dawson, Richard Guare, Colin Guare, 2024-11-08 All kids occasionally space out, get sidetracked, run out of time, or explode in frustration, but some do it much more often than others. With over 425,000 in print, this encouraging bestselling parent guide is now in a revised and updated second edition. The authors explain the crucial brain-based skills that 4- to 12-year-olds need to get organized, stay focused, and control their impulses and emotions. Handy questionnaires help parents home in on their own child's executive strengths and weaknesses. Armed with a better understanding of their smart but scattered kid, readers can use proven strategies to boost skills that are lacking, fix everyday routines that don't work, and reduce everyone's stress. Including new research, new and updated vignettes, and a Good Place to Start suggestions for each skill, the second edition features a new chapter on technology and a greatly expanded school chapter. Readers can download and print a wealth of practical tools.
