The World That Made New Orleans Ned Sublette, 2008-01-01 STRONGNamed one of the Top 10 Books of 2008 by The Times Picayune STRONGWinner of the 2009 Humanities Book of the Year award from the Louisiana Endowment for the Humanities STRONG STRONGAwarded the New Orleans Gulf South Booksellers Association Book of the Year Award for 2008 New Orleans is the most elusive of American cities The product of the centuries long struggle among three mighty empires France Spain and England and among their respective American colonies and enslaved African peoples it has always seemed like a foreign port to most Americans baffled as they are by its complex cultural inheritance The World That Made New Orleans offers a new perspective on this insufficiently understood city by telling the remarkable story of New Orleans's first century a tale of imperial war religious conflict the search for treasure the spread of slavery the Cuban connection the cruel aristocracy of sugar and the very different revolutions that created the United States and Haiti It demonstrates that New Orleans already had its own distinct personality at the time of Louisiana's statehood in 1812 By then important roots of American music were firmly planted in its urban swamp especially in the dances at Congo Square where enslaved Africans and African Americans appeared en masse on Sundays to as an 1819 visitor to the city put it rock the city This book is a logical continuation of Ned Sublette's previous volume Cuba and Its Music From the First Drums to the Mambo which was highly praised for its synthesis of musical cultural and political history Just as that book has become a standard resource on Cuba so too will The World That Made New Orleans long remain essential for understanding the beautiful and tragic story of this most American of cities Creole New Orleans in the Revolutionary Atlantic, 1775-1877 Caryn Cossé

Bell, 2023-10-04 Nowhere in the United States did the Age of Democratic Revolution exert as profound an influence as in New Orleans In 1809 10 refugees of the Haitian Revolution doubled the size of the city In 1811 hundreds of Saint Dominguan African and Louisianan plantation workers marched downriver toward the city in the nation's largest ever slave revolt Itinerant revolutionaries from throughout the Atlantic congregated in New Orleans in the cause of Latin American independence Together with the refugee soldiers of the Haitian Revolution both Black and white their presence proved decisive in the Battle of New Orleans After defeating the British the soldiers rejoined the struggle against Spanish imperialism In Creole New Orleans in the Revolutionary Atlantic 1775 1877 Caryn Cossé Bell sets forth these momentous events and much more to document the revolutionary era's impact on the city Bell's study begins with the 1883 memoir of H. L. d'Aquin Allain a French Creole and descendant of the refugee community who grew up in antebellum New Orleans Allain's d'Aquin forebears fought alongside the Savarys a politically influential free family of color in the Haitian Revolution Forced from Saint Domingue Haiti the allied families retreated to New Orleans Bell's reconstruction of the d'Aquin family network interracial alliances and business partnerships provides a productive framework for exploring the city's presence at the crossroads of the revolutionary Atlantic Residing in New Orleans in the heyday of French Romanticism Allain experienced a cultural revolution that exerted an enormous influence on religious beliefs literature politics and even as Bell documents the practice of medicine in the city In France the highly politicized nature of the movement culminated in the 1848 French Revolution with its abolition of slavery and enfranchisement of freed men and women During the Civil War and Reconstruction the Afro Creole leaders of the diasporic community pointed to events in France and stood in the forefront of the struggle to revolutionize race relations in their own nation As Bell demonstrates their cultural and political legacy remains a formidable presence in twenty first century New Orleans

Sun, Sea, and Sound Timothy Rommen, Daniel Tannehill Neely, 2014 Within the circum Caribbean the ubiquity of tourism and the variety of musical life are hard to miss Scholars have long explored both of these themes in the Caribbean but have done so from disciplinary perspectives that tended until recently and for a variety of reasons to foreclose readings that considered tourism and music together This volume addresses itself to analyzing the dynamics and interrelationships between tourism and music throughout the region

Chief of Chiefs Al Kennedy, 2018-01-02 The inspiring true story of one of New Orleans s most beloved citizens whose remarkable life spanned most of the twentieth century From his birth in 1915 Robert Nathaniel Lee faced hardship and discrimination But the man who would one day be known as Big Chief Robbe always found a way to do what he believed in even if that meant using his fists to beat back bullies When he saw the Mardi Gras Indians for the first time he knew that he was going to be one of them part of the long tradition of song and dance processions held in ceremonial attire that enliven Fat Tuesday year after year Joining the Mardi Gras Indian community at only ten he quickly became known for his stunning sewing and singing abilities By the end of his life in 2001 he had been the Big Chief of four different tribes the first and only person to be named chief of chiefs by the Mardi Gras Indian Council given a lecture at Yale University and become a role model for generations of New Orleans black youth In this book Al Kennedy author of Big Chief Harrison and the Mardi Gras Indians enhances the story of Chief Robbe's life with extensive detail and interviews from their personal relationship creating a biography that reflects the rich history and personality of New Orleans Charter Schools, Race, and Urban Space Kristen L. Buras, 2014-07-17

Charter schools have been promoted as an equitable and innovative solution to the problems plaguing urban schools Advocates claim that charter schools benefit working class students of color by offering them access to a portfolio of school choices In Charter Schools Race and Urban Space Kristen Buras presents a very different account Her case study of New Orleans where veteran teachers were fired en masse and the nation's first all charter school district was developed shows that such reform is less about the needs of racially oppressed communities and more about the production of an urban space economy in which white entrepreneurs capitalize on black children and neighborhoods In this revealing book Buras draws on critical theories of race political economy and space as well as a decade of research on the ground to expose the criminal dispossession of black teachers and students who have contributed to New Orleans culture and history Mapping federal state and local policy networks she shows how the city's landscape has been reshaped by a strategic venture to privatize public education She likewise chronicles grassroots efforts to defend historic schools and neighborhoods against this assault revealing a commitment to equity and place and articulating a vision of change that is sure to inspire heated debate among communities nationwide The Palgrave Handbook of the Southern Gothic Susan Castillo Street, Charles L.

Crow, 2016-07-26 This book examines Southern Gothic a term that describes some of the finest works of the American Imagination But what do Southern and Gothic mean and how are they related Traditionally seen as drawing on the tragedy of slavery and loss Southern Gothic is now a richer more complex subject Thirty five distinguished scholars explore the Southern Gothic under the categories of Poe and his Legacy Space and Place Race Gender and Sexuality and Monsters and Voodoo The essays examine slavery and the laws that supported it and stories of slaves who rebelled and those who escaped Also present are the often neglected issues of the Native American presence in the South socioeconomic class the distinctions among the several regions of the South same sex relationships and norms of gendered behaviour This handbook covers not only iconic figures of Southern literature but also other less well known writers and examines gothic imagery in film and in contemporary television programmes such as True Blood and True Detective The Cambridge History of

Latina/o American Literature John Morán González, Laura Lomas, 2018-02-22 The Cambridge History of Latina o American Literature emphasizes the importance of understanding Latina o literature not simply as a US ethnic phenomenon but more broadly as an important element of a trans American literary imagination Engaging with the dynamics of migration linguistic and cultural translation and the uneven distribution of resources across the Americas that characterize Latina o literature the essays in this History provide a critical overview of key texts authors themes and contexts as discussed by leading scholars in the field This book demonstrates the relevance of Latina o literature for a world defined by the migration of people commodities and cultural expressions      Eurojazzland Luca Cerchiari, Laurent Cugny, Franz Kerschbaumer, 2012 The critical role of Europe in the music personalities and analysis of jazz      Interconnections Carol Faulkner, Alison M. Parker, 2014 Explores gender and race as principal bases of identity and locations of power and oppression in American history This collection builds on decades of interdisciplinary work by historians of African American women as well as scholars of feminist and critical race theory bridging the gap between well developed theories of race gender and power and the practice of historical research It examines how racial and gender identity is constructed from individuals lived experiences in specific historical contexts such as westward expansion civil rights movements or economic depression as well as by national and transnational debates over marriage citizenship and sexual mores All of these essays consider multiple aspects of identity including sexuality class religion and nationality among others but the volume emphasizes gender and race as principal bases of identity and locations of power and oppression in American history Contributors Deborah Gray White Michele Mitchell Vivian May Carol Moseley Braun Rashauna Johnson H l ne Quanquin Kendra Taira Field Michelle Kuhl Meredith Clark Wiltz Carol Faulkner is Associate Professor and Chair of History at Syracuse University Alison M Parker is Professor and Chair of the History Department at SUNY College at Brockport      After Katrina Anna Hartnell, 2017-01-25 Argues that post Katrina New Orleans is a key site for exploring competing narratives of American decline and renewal at the beginning of the twenty first century Through the lens provided by the tenth anniversary of Hurricane Katrina After Katrina argues that the city of New Orleans emerges as a key site for exploring competing narratives of US decline and renewal at the beginning of the twenty first century Deploying an interdisciplinary approach to explore cultural representations of the post storm city Anna Hartnell suggests that New Orleans has been reimagined as a laboratory for a racialized neoliberalism and as such might be seen as a terminus of the American dream This US disaster zone has unveiled a network of social and environmental crises that demonstrate that prospects of social mobility have dwindled as environmental degradation and coastal erosion emerge as major threats not just to the quality of life but to the possibility of life in coastal communities across America and the world And yet After Katrina also suggests that New Orleans culture offers a way of thinking about the United States in terms that transcend the binary of national renewal or declension The post Hurricane city thus emerges as a flashpoint for reflecting on the contemporary United States      Southscapes Thadious M. Davis, 2011-11-21 In this innovative approach to southern literary cultures Thadious Davis analyzes how black southern writers use their spatial location to articulate the vexed connections between society and environment particularly under segregation and its legacies Basing her analysis on texts by Ernest Gaines Richard Wright Alice Walker Natasha Trethewey Olympia Vernon Brenda Marie Osbey Sybil Kein and others Davis reveals how these writers reconstitute racial exclusion as creative black space rather than a site of trauma and resistance Utilizing the social and political separation epitomized by segregation to forge a spatial and racial vantage point Davis argues allows these writers to imagine and represent their own subject matter and aesthetic concerns Focusing particularly on Louisiana and Mississippi Davis deploys new geographical discourses of space to expand analyses of black writers relationship to the South and to consider the informing aspects of spatial narratives on their literary production She argues that African American writers not only are central to the production of southern literature and new southern studies but also are crucial to understanding the shift from modernism to postmodernism in southern letters A paradigm shifting work Southscapes restores African American writers to their rightful place in the regional imagination while calling for a more inclusive conception of region
