Hanhardt, 1982 Nam June Paik, 1982 Nam June Paik Nam June Paik, 2019 The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M. Marter, 2011 Arranged in alphabetical order these 5 volumes encompass the history of the cultural development of America with over 2300 entries Making Images Move Gregory Zinman, 2020-01-03 Making Images Move reveals a new history of cinema by uncovering its connections to other media and art forms In this richly illustrated volume Gregory Zinman explores how moving image artists who worked in experimental film pushed the medium toward abstraction through a number of unconventional filmmaking practices including painting and scratching directly on the film strip deteriorating film with water dirt and bleach and applying materials such as paper and glue This book provides a comprehensive history of this tradition of handmade cinema from the early twentieth century to the present opening up new conversations about the production meaning and significance of the moving image From painted film to kinetic art and from psychedelic light shows to video synthesis Gregory Zinman recovers the range of forms tools and intentions that make up cinema's shadow history deepening awareness of the intersection of art and media in the twentieth century and anticipating what is to come

Avant-garde Performance Günter Berghaus, 2017-09-16 How did the concept of the avant garde come into existence How did it impact on the performing arts How did the avant garde challenge the artistic establishment and avoid the pull of commercial theatre gallery and concert hall circuits How did performance artists respond to new technological developments Placing key figures and performances in their historical social and aesthetic context Günter Berghaus offers an accessible introduction to post war avant garde performance Written in a clear engaging style and supported by text boxes and illustrations throughout this volume explains the complex ideas behind avant garde art and evocatively brings to life the work of some of its most influential performance artists Covering hot topics such as multi media and body art performances this text is essential reading for students of theatre studies and performance Smile of the Buddha Jacquelyn Baas, 2005 The relations between eastern and western cultures have long been a neglected topic and this careful and intelligent look at a small but significant part of those relations is most welcome Thomas McEvilley author of The Shape of Ancient Thought How wonderful that Jacquelyn Baas has seen the light of the Buddha's smile shining from faraway Asia into the realm of the art of modern times in what we think of as the West Her work reveals how some of our most influential artists explored and expressed the sophisticated perceptions and joyful energy emanating from the realm of Buddhist Asia Robert A F Thurman As a Buddhist scholar and artist I welcome this thoughtful and richly detailed study of how many aspects of Buddhism have stimulated invigorated and enriched Western arts over the past 150 years Stephen Addiss author of The Art of Zen A crucial contribution to modern art studies this high spirited text surveys Western artists awakened by the wisdom of the East from Monet and Duchamp to O Keeffe to Martin It is a thoughtful book about thoughtful artists their values and their visions with a lot to offer general readers and specialists alike Charles Stuckey Associate Professor of Art History at the School of the Art Institute of Chicago

Art + DIY Electronics Garnet Hertz, 2023-05-30 A systematic theory of DIY electronic culture drawn from a century of artists who have independently built creative technologies Since the rise of Arduino and 3D printing in the mid 2000s do it yourself approaches to the creative exploration of technology have surged in popularity But the maker movement is not new it is a historically significant practice in contemporary art and design This book documents tracks and identifies a hundred years of innovative DIY technology practices illustrating how the maker movement is a continuation of a long standing creative electronic subculture Through this comprehensive exploration Garnet Hertz develops a theory and language of creative DIY electronics drawing from diverse examples of contemporary art including work from renowned electronic artists such as Nam June Paik and such art collectives as Survival Research Laboratories and the Barbie Liberation Front Hertz uncovers the defining elements of electronic DIY culture which often works with limited resources to bring new life to obsolete objects while engaging in a critical dialogue with consumer capitalism Whether hacking blackboxed technologies or deploying culture jamming techniques to critique commercial labor practices or gender norms the artists have found creative ways to make personal and political statements through creative technologies The wide range of innovative works and practices profiled in Art DIY Electronics form a general framework for DIY culture and help inspire readers to get creative with their own adaptations fabrications and reimaginings of everyday technologies

We Are in Open Circuits Nam June Paik, 2019-10-01 Essays project plans and correspondence from across Nam Jun Paik's career much of it previously out of print or unpublished Nam June Paik 1932 2006 is a pivotal figure in the history of modern art Arguably the most important video artist of all time and certainly among the most influential and prolific Paik was a legendary innovator who transformed the electronic moving image into an artist's medium He wrote incessantly corresponding with friends composing performance scores making production notes for television projects drafting plans for video installations writing essays and articles Celebrated for his visionary development of new artistic tools and for his pioneering work in video and television Paik often wrote to sharpen his thinking and hone his ideas He used the typewriter to fashion sentences that broke apart and reassembled themselves as he wrote producing both poetic texts and aesthetic objects on the page This first extensive collection of Paik's writings includes many previously unpublished and out of print texts Drawing on materials from the Smithsonian American Art Museum's Nam June Paik Archive and from a range of international publications We Are in Open Circuits offers important but long unavailable essays including Global Groove and Video Common Market unpublished writings on such topics as his creative partnership with the cellist Charlotte Moorman and the role of public television a substantial part of his compilation Scrutable Chinese and detailed plans for some of his groundbreaking broadcast works including the trio Good Morning Mr Orwell 1984 Bye Bye Kipling 1986 and Wrap Around the World 1988 It also includes nearly 150 pages that reproduce Paik's original typed and handwritten pages letting readers see his writing in various stages of inspiration and execution Experimentalism Otherwise Benjamin Piekut, 2011-04-04 In Experimental Otherwise Benjamin Piekut takes the reader into the heart of what we mean by experimental in avant garde music Focusing on one place and time New York City 1964 Piekut examines five disparate events the New York Philharmonic's disastrous performance of John Cage's Atlas Eclipticalis Henry Flynt's demonstrations against the downtown avant garde Charlotte Moorman's Avant Garde Festival the founding of the Jazz Composers Guild and the emergence of Iggy Pop Drawing together a colorful array of personalities Piekut argues that each of these examples points to a failure and marks a limit or boundary of canonical experimentalism What emerges from these marginal moments is an accurate picture of the avant garde not as a style or genre but as a network defined by disagreements struggles and exclusions

Asian American History and Culture: An Encyclopedia Huping Ling, Allan W. Austin, 2015-03-17 With overview essays and more than 400 A-Z entries this exhaustive encyclopedia documents the history of Asians in America from earliest contact to the present day Organized topically by group with an in depth overview essay on each group the encyclopedia examines the myriad ethnic groups and histories that make up the Asian American population in the United States Asian American History and Culture covers the political social and cultural history of immigrants from East Asia Southeast Asia South Asia the Pacific Islands and their descendants as well as the social and cultural issues faced by Asian American communities families and individuals in contemporary society In addition to entries on various groups and cultures the encyclopedia also includes articles on general topics such as parenting and child rearing assimilation and acculturation business education and literature More than 100 images round out the set Ausstellung u.d.T.: Nam June Paik : music for all senses Nam June Paik, 2009 In 1963 with his first individual show Exposition of Music Electronic Television at the legendary Galerie Parnass in Wuppertal Germany the young Nam June Paik literally created a new genre of exhibition The visitors who were greeted in front of the entrance with a freshly slaughtered ox head were not only confronted with the newness of the electronic image but also found themselves integrated into a Dadaist scenario staged with prepared pianos mechanical sound objects along with record players and audio tape installations Together with documents photographs and the works of Paik this catalogue recreates scenes from the original show letting the works again come to life in their original context Published on the occasion of the exhibition Nam June Paik Music for All Senses at Museum Moderner Kunst Stiftung Ludwig Wien February ndash May 2009 English and German text Art and Dance in Dialogue Sarah Whatley, Imogen Racz, Katerina Paramana, Marie-Louise Crawley, 2020-11-07 This interdisciplinary book brings together essays that consider how the body enacts social and cultural rituals in relation to objects spaces and the everyday and how these are questioned explored and problematised through and translated into dance art and performance The chapters are written by significant artists and scholars and consider practices from various locations including Central and Western Europe Mexico and the United States The authors build on dialogues between for example philosophy and museum studies and memory studies and post humanism and engage with a wide range of theory from phenomenology to relational aesthetics to New Materialism Thus this book represents a unique collection that together considers the continuum between everyday and cultural life and how rituals and memories are inscribed onto our being It will be of interest to scholars and practitioners students and teachers and particularly those who are curious about the intersections between arts disciplines

Sounding the Gallery Holly Rogers, 2013-03-13 Becoming commercially available in the mid 1960s video quickly became integral to the intense experimentalism of New York City's music and art scenes The medium was able to record image and sound at the same time which allowed composers to visualize their music and artists to sound their images But as well as creating unprecedented forms of audiovisuality video work also produced interactive spaces that questioned conventional habits of music and art consumption This book explores the first decade of creative video work focusing on the ways in which video technology was used to dissolve the boundaries between art and music

Corporate Imaginations Mari Dumett, 2017-08-22 The first extended study of the renowned artists collective Fluxus Corporate Imaginations examines the group as it emerged on three continents from 1962 to 1978 in its complexities contradictions and historical specificity The collective's founder George Maciunas organized Fluxus like a multinational corporation simulating corporate organization and commodity flows yet it is equally significant that he imagined critical art practice in this way at that time For all its avant garde criticality Fluxus also ambivalently shared aspects of the rising corporate culture of the day In this book Mari Dumett addresses the business of Fluxus and explores the larger discursive issues of organization mediatization routinization automation commoditization and systematization that Fluxus artists both manipulated and exposed A study of six central figures in the group George Brecht Alison Knowles George Maciunas Nam June Paik Mieko Shiomi and Robert Watts reveals how they developed historically specific strategies of mimicking the capitalist system These artists appropriated tools occupied spaces revealed operations and ultimately performed the system itself via aesthetics of organization communication events branding routine and global mapping Through corporate imaginations Fluxus artists proposed strategies for living as conscious creative subjects within a totalizing and increasingly global system demonstrating how these strategies must be repeated in an ongoing negotiation of new relations of power and control between subject and system
