Entertaining Judgment Greg Garrett, 2015 Nowadays references to the afterlife angels strumming harps demons brandishing pitchforks

God enthroned on heavenly clouds are more often encountered in New Yorker cartoons than in serious Christian theological reflection. Speculation about death and its sequel seems to embarrass many theologians however as Greg Garrett shows in Entertaining Judgment. Popular culture in the U S has found rich ground for creative expression in the search for answers to the question What lies in store for us after we die. The lyrics of Madonna's Lonely Boys and Sean Combs' plotlines of TV's Lost, South Park and The Walking Dead the implied theology in films such as The Dark Knight, Ghost and Field of Dreams the heavenly half light of Thomas Kinkadee's popular paintings the ghosts shades and after life way stations in Harry Potter and the characters situations and locations in the Hunger Games saga all speak to our hopes and fears about what comes next. In a rich survey of literature and popular media Garrett compares cultural accounts of death and the afterlife with those found in scripture. Denizens of the imagined afterlife whether in heaven hell on earth or in purgatory speak to what awaits us at once shaping and reflecting our deeply held if often somewhat nebulous beliefs. They show us what rewards and punishments we might expect offer us divine assistance and even diabolically attack us. Ultimately we are drawn to these stories of heaven hell and purgatory and to stories about death and the undead not only because they entertain us but because they help us to create meaning and to learn about ourselves our world and perhaps the next world. Garrett's deft analysis sheds new light on what popular culture can tell us about the startlingly sharp divide between what modern people profess to believe and what they truly hope and expect to find after death and how they use those stories to help them understand this life.

The Flat Earth as Key to Decrypt the Book of Enoch Zen Garcia, 2015-10-25 Shortly after accepting the flat earth as a model for the world I decided to revisit the Book of the Courses of the Heavenly Luminaries to see if my new understanding would somehow mirror what Enoch was sharing as a motion for the sun and moon As I began to read chapters 71 82 I found to my utter amazement that I was able to grasp those passages I knew then that the vision that the angel Uriel had shown to Enoch could only be deciphered if one were to imagine Enoch s description of the revolution of the sun and the moon As seen from above the flat circular plane of the earth as described by Isaiah and that Enoch must have been taken up to perhaps where Polaris is centered directly above the North Pole and while looking down at the backdrop of the earth was instructed on the motions of both the sun and moon Without such conception it is in my opinion impossible to apply these descriptions to the model of the earth as a spherical planet Special Report of the Great Lakes Research Division, University of Michigan University of Michigan.
