The Year Of My Miraculous Reappearance:

The Year of My Miraculous Reappearance Catherine Ryan Hyde, 2009-03-12 Cynn timer takes care of herself and more importantly she takes care of her little brother Bill So it doesn't matter that her mom is drunk all the time Cynn timer's got her own life Cynn timer's the one Bill loves more than anyone Cynn timer's the real mother in the house And if there's one thing she knows for sure it's that she'll never ever sink as low as her mother But when things start to fall apart Cynn timer needs a way to dull the pain Never say never This unflinching look at the power of addiction is the story of one girl's fall into darkness and the strength trust and forgiveness it takes to climb back out again Dear Author Joan F. Kaywell, 2007 A collection of today's most celebrated authors such as Laurie Halse Anderson and Chris Crutcher respond to an array of tough and meaningful questions by their young fans giving a glimpse into the hearts and souls of kids today and the writers who have changed their lives Mental Illness in Young Adult Literature Kia Jane Richmond, 2018-12-07 This book explores how mental illness is portrayed in 21st century young adult fiction and how selected works can help teachers librarians and mental health professionals to more effectively address the needs of students combating mental illness Mental Illness in Young Adult Literature Exploring Real Struggles through Fictional Characters highlights American young adult literature published since the year 2000 that features characters grappling with mental illness Chapters focus on mental disorders identified by the most recent Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders DSM 5 including anxiety depression bipolar disorder schizophrenia ADHD and OCD Each chapter begins with a description of a mental illness that includes its prevalence demographic trends symptoms related disorders and treatment options before examining a selection of young adult texts in depth Analysis of the texts explores how a mental illness manifests for a particular character how that character perceives him or herself and is perceived by others and what treatment or support he or she receives The connections between mental illness and race ethnicity gender sexuality and identity are examined and relevant research from education psychology and adolescent health is thoroughly integrated Each chapter also provides a list of additional readings An appendix offers strategies for integrating young adult literature into health curricula and other programs The Day I Killed James Catherine Ryan Hyde, 2010 Seventeen year old Theresa tries to get past the guilt she feels over the death of a neighbor who loved her first through a journal her therapist tells her to keep then by transforming herself and starting a new life

Curriculum and the Life Erratic Leslie B. Nissen, 2013-10-30 Curriculum and the Life Erratic The Geographic Cure lays bare the untold damage done to children who are forced to endure the toxic combination of fermented parenting as author Leslie Nissen has termed it and frequent family moves at the hands of alcoholic parents who perpetually seek the elusive Geographic Cure While such parents deceive themselves that in the next new place sobriety will prevail their children know better Alcoholics who chronically uproot their families for a fresh start usually carry along every reason to drink For the school age children of such cure seeking alcoholics the torment of life with a volatile unpredictable and chronically intoxicated parent is intensified by the anguish of being the new kid who changes schools at the whim of the parent Highly mobile children bearing an alarmingly long list of prior schools may be part of a group which Nissen calls Geographic Cure Children whose chances of finding help are nearly non-existent despite their acute need for care The dilemma of this unique subset of Children of Alcoholics is examined via autobiographical psychoanalytic and fictional lenses Nissen also recounts her own urge to hit the road when diagnosed with cancer and explores the Geographic Cure writ large observing how the current testing frenzy and clamor for cures for low test scores dominate educational policy Could teachers panic about accountability cause them to resent new students who appear at their classroom doors mid-year Is education encumbered because at the hands of policy makers educators are working the Life Erratic unsaid Teaching Young Adult Literature Today Judith A. Hayn, Jeffrey S. Kaplan, 2012-03-15 Teaching Young Adult Literature Today introduces the reader to what is current and relevant in the plethora of good books available for adolescents. More importantly, literary experts illustrate how teachers everywhere can help their students become lifelong readers by simply introducing them to great reads: smart, insightful, and engaging books that are specifically written for adolescents. Hayn, Kaplan, and their contributors address a wide range of topics: how to avoid common obstacles to using YAL; selecting quality YAL for classrooms while balancing these with curriculum requirements; engaging disenfranchised readers; pairing YAL with technology as an innovative way to teach curriculum standards across all content areas. Contributors also discuss more theoretical subjects such as the absence of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and questioning LGBTQ young adult literature in secondary classrooms and contemporary YAL that responds to the changing expectations of digital generation readers who want to blur the boundaries between page and screen.

Distress Greg Egan, 1995-12-08 Andrew Worth is a science journalist with optic nerve taps and a gut full of memory chips. Burnt out after completing a documentary on controversial developments in biotechnology, he turns down a chance to report on a baffling new mental disorder known as Distress and instead takes an assignment covering the Einstein Centenary Conference on the artificial island of Stateless. There, a young South African physicist, Violet Mosala, is expected to unveil her candidate for a Theory of Everything. But the assignment is not the tropical respite Worth was expecting. While the politics surrounding the creation of Stateless grows more turbulent and ignorance cults stage protests against the gathering scientists, a secretive group known as the Anthrocosmologists, with some very strange ideas about the Theory of Everything, begin to enact their own agenda.

Good Friday Tony Wolk, 2007 Joan Matcham has just discovered that she's pregnant by a man who died ninety years earlier, Abraham Lincoln. His brief sojourn to the Illinois of 1955 ended; he is returned to his own time and place, leaving Joan to deal with the consequences of their night together. Even as friendship, impending motherhood, and a new love revive Joan, she is haunted by recurring visions of the last week of Lincoln's life. Good Friday, the sequel to Abraham Lincoln: A Novel, is the second of Wolk's novels published by Ooligan Press, the teaching press at Portland State University. A remarkable work, Good Friday is sure to leave readers eagerly anticipating the final installment of Wolk's Lincoln trilogy.

The Anatomy of Bibliomania Holbrook Jackson, 2001 Inspects the allure of books, their curative and restorative properties, and the passion for them that leads to bibliomania. This title comments on why we read, where we read, on journeys at mealtimes, on the toilet, this has a long but mostly unrecorded history in bed and in prison, and what happens to us when we read.

The Wilderling Claire Lorrimer, 2011-06-02 Like a wilderling, a cultivated flower that manages to live in the wild, Lucienne Rochford has survived her terrible early years in France. Although born into the British aristocracy, Lucy was raised in obscurity: first in a French convent and then in a Parisian brothel. At sixteen, she is restored to her rightful place as the daughter of the Rochford family, but a devastating betrayal by her father fires her determination to seek wealth and independence at any cost. She learns the ways of society and catches the eye of the handsome and noble Count Alexis Zemski who swears his love and agrees to marry Lucy even after learning of her past As World War I shatters Europe Lucy Rochford begins to learn what life and love are all about Children's Free Play and Participation in the City Raymond Lorenzo,2022-06-03 This book presents an interplay of imaginative memoir telling action research data and future projection that reminds and inspires experiences academics researchers professionals as well as a wider public to recognize the fundamental importance and the impellent need for more and better work in favour of true political and societal recognition of the needs and rights of children to play freely to participate to live fully and enjoy their neighbourhoods and cities and to imagine and construct alternative futures together with adults The book s abundant spoken dialogue is in effect storytelling between children and youth on their own and with adults especially the elderly It conveys an appreciation of children s special capacities to think critically about their everyday places and the greater world around them and to develop solutions or projects for the problems they identify This book serves an effective catalyst for stimulating rich discussion of the theoretical and practical bases of the many themes or areas of study which are treated in the story The Horn Book Guide to Children's and Young Adult Books ,2007

Beautiful Unbroken Mary Jane Nealon,2011-07-19 An unflinching memoir by a working nurse As a child Mary Jane Nealon dreams of growing up to become a saint or failing that a nurse She idolizes Clara Barton Kateri Tekakwitha and Molly Pitcher whose biographies she reads and rereads But by the time she follows her calling to nursing school her beloved younger brother is diagnosed with cancer which challenges her to bring hope and healing closer to home His death leaves her shattered and she flees into her work and into poetry Beautiful Unbroken details Nealon s life of caregiving from her years as a flying nurse untethered and free to follow friends and jobs from the Southwest to Savannah to more somber years in New York City treating men in a homeless shelter on the Bowery and working in the city s first AIDS wards In this compelling and revealing memoir Nealon brings a poet s sensitivity to bear on the hard truths of disease and recovery life and death The Archer's Sequel Daniel Burden,2012-01-12 BIGGER FASTER STRONGER Well our nameless hero is none of those things Trying to recover from earlier catastrophes he retreats to the Greek island of Sanmythos for some rest and relaxation He finds neither drinks too much sleeps with beautiful women and ends up battling a vicious smuggler Predictably this ends in disaster He returns home to a world full of ghosts and woe His past present and future are colliding Forced to pick up his bow and try once more to be a real hero the Archer will meet new friends and lovers before dealing with the ultimate opponent Death himself My Family's Other Recipes Ian Nunn,2011-12-01 Bullied by his second daughter into putting the family s favourite recipes into book form this subject became a sub theme in what turned out to be an autobiography but one written about an ordinary life although with an ability to find the humorous side of most events For serious foodies this book may be a little thin on content but there are some interesting pieces of food history and it is very much a personal view of the last sixty years The book is set out in four sections based loosely on four periods of the author s life and given titles based on a four course meal of hors d'oeuvres fish meat and dessert entitled horses doovers fishy tales butcher's meat and just desserts If you want a relaxing read on an inconsequential life which may make you smile buy this book If you want a serious cookery book or autobiography of someone famous or important then you will have to look elsewhere What does come through is here is a book written by a guy with a love of life a beard more appropriate to a mad badger and a slightly quirky sense of humour who writes for his own enjoyment but with a warmth others may find undemanding

Atoned Olivia Ward, 2020 Set in a Medieval background Atoned is a story of love murder revenge and atonement Darias son of a high ranking Northern Realm Wolf Lord has been betrothed since childhood to Keara who is from a noble Southern Realm family Dreading the forthcoming marriage that will be thrust upon him Darias would much rather be wed to his childhood sweetheart the sly Rowena His dismay turns to delight upon hearing Keara and her family have been treacherously murdered by outlaws However Keara's body is not found amongst the dead Mercenaries hired by her grandfather who has never given up hope locate Keara years later The soldiers paid a handsome sum in gold by a shadowy figure to do away with Keara double cross the individual and return Keara safely to her grandfather in the Southern Realm Much to the displeasure of both Darias and Keara the marriage contract between the two has remained valid and to their displeasure are forced to marry against their will Bitterness and hatred turn into a flaming brand of passion only to be marred by uncertainty as villages are plundered by mysterious outlaws assassination attempts on both and the persistent return of the wily Rowena who continuously attempts to seduce Darias and will stop at nothing to have him When Keara is kidnapped and a plot is uncovered to overthrow the governments of both Realms Darias races to rescue his wife before the Realms and their lives are destroyed

Eric Rohmer Fiona Handyside, 2013-01-17 The 1969 film Ma Nuit chez Maud catapulted its shy academic film director Eric Rohmer 1920-2010 into the limelight selling over a million tickets in France and earning a nomination for an Academy Award Ma Nuit chez Maud remains his most famous film the highlight of an impressive range of films examining the sexual romantic and artistic mores of contemporary France the temptations of desire the small joys of everyday life and sometimes the vicissitudes of history and politics Yet Rohmer was almost fifty years old when Maud was released and had already had a career as the editor of Cahiers du Cinéma a position he lost in a political takeover in 1963 The interviews in this book offer a range of insights into the theoretical critical and practical circumstances of Rohmer's remarkably coherent body of films but also allow Rohmer to act as his own critic providing us with an array of readings concerning his interest in setting season color and narrative Alongside the application of a theoretical rigor to his own films Rohmer's interviews also discuss directors as varied as Godard Carné Renoir and Hitchcock and the relations of film to painting architecture and music This book reproduces little known interviews such as a debate Rohmer undertakes with Women and Film concerning feminism alongside detailed discussions from Cahiers and Positif many produced in English here for the first time
