The World Of Persian Literary Humanism:

The World of Persian Literary Humanism Hamid Dabashi, 2012-11-20 Humanism has mostly considered the question What does it mean to be human from a Western perspective Dabashi asks it anew from a non European perspective in a groundbreaking study of 1 400 years of Persian literary humanism He presents the unfolding of this vast tradition as the creative and subversive subconscious of Islamic civilization

The World of Persian Literary Humanism Hamid Dabashi, 2012-11-20 Humanism has mostly considered the question What does it mean to be human from a Western perspective Dabashi asks it anew from a non European perspective in a groundbreaking study of 1 400 years of Persian literary humanism He presents the unfolding of this vast tradition as the creative and subversive subconscious of Islamic civilization

The Shahnameh Hamid Dabashi, 2019-01-08 The Shahnameh an epic poem recounting the foundation of Iran across mythical heroic and historical ages is the beating heart of Persian literature and culture Composed by Abu al Qasem Ferdowsi over a thirty year period and completed in the year 1010 the epic has entertained generations of readers and profoundly shaped Persian culture society and politics For a millennium Iranian and Persian speaking people around the globe have read memorized discussed performed adapted and loved the poem In this book Hamid Dabashi brings the Shahnameh to renewed global attention encapsulating a lifetime of learning and teaching the Persian epic for a new generation of readers Dabashi insightfully traces the epic s history authorship poetic significance complicated legacy of political uses and abuses and enduring significance in colonial and postcolonial contexts In addition to explaining and celebrating what makes the Shahnameh such a distinctive literary work he also considers the poem in the context of other epics such as the Aeneid and the Odyssey and critical debates about the concept of world literature Arguing that Ferdowsi s epic and its reception broached this idea long before nineteenth century Western literary criticism Dabashi makes a powerful case that we need to rethink the very notion of world literature in light of his reading of the Persian epic

Iranian Identity and Cosmopolitanism Lucian Stone, 2014-07-31 Since cosmopolitanism has often been conceived as a tenet of Western civilization that emanates from its Enlightenment based origins in a humanist age of modernity Iranian Identity and Cosmopolitanism Spheres of Belonging advances a highly innovative gesture by contemplating the implications and relevance of the idea in a so called non Western cultural territory The particularities of the Iranian and Islamic context shed new light on advancements and obstacles to cosmopolitan praxis The volume provides four principle disciplinary assessments of cosmopolitanism philosophy political science sociology and cultural studies including literary criticism The authors in this collection critically examine topics including the historical encounter between Iranian and Western thinkers and its impact on Iranian political ideals the tension between maintaining apolitical theology rooted in metaphysical assumptions and the prerequisite of secularism in cosmopolitan and democratic philosophies This highly innovative volume will be of interest to scholars and students of Middle Eastern and Iranian Studies Islamic Studies Globalization Political Science and Philosophy

The Persian Prince Hamid Dabashi, 2023-06-06 With its title borrowed from Machiavelli The Persian Prince goes far beyond Machiavelli's wildest imagination as to how to rule the world Hamid Dabashi articulates a bold new idea of the Persian Prince a metaphor of political authority a figurative ideal deeply rooted in the collective memories of multiple nations and a literary construct that connected Muslim empires across time and space and continues to inform political debate today Drawing on works from Classical Antiquity and the vast Persianate worlds from India to the Mediterranean as well as the Hebrew Bible and European medieval mirrors for princes Dabashi engages a diverse body of political thought to reveal the construction of the Persian Prince as a potent archetype He traces this archetype through its varied historic gestations and finds it resurfacing in postcolonial political thought as a rebel a prophet a poet and a nomad Bringing poetics and politics together Dabashi shows how this archetypal figure has long defined political authority throughout the wider Iranian and Islamic worlds With meticulous attention to literary and poetic texts moral and philosophical treatises allegorical and anecdotal stories sacred and secular evidence visual and performing arts histories of global empires and colonial conquests this sweeping work offers a deeply learned richly erudite and transformative piece of critical thinking As Dabashi shows the Persian Prince remains the stuff of current debate across the Muslim and Persianate worlds in contestations over the public domain and the collective will to power and above all in the prospects of democratic institutions Constructing Nationalism in Iran Meir Litvak, 2017-04-21 Nationalism has played an important role in the cultural and intellectual discourse of modernity that emerged in Iran from the late nineteenth century to the present promoting new formulations of collective identity and advocating a new and more active role for the broad strata of the public in politics The essays in this volume seek to shed light on the construction of nationalism in Iran in its many manifestations cultural social political and ideological by exploring on going debates on this important and progressive topic Iran in the Early Islamic Period Bertold Spuler, 2014-11-06 This book presents a translation of Bertold Spuler's groundbreaking work on the transformation of Iran from a Persian Zoroastrian Empire to a province of the Arab Muslim Empire to a land divided by a number of Persian and Turkish kingdoms Recasting American and Persian Literatures Amirhossein Vafa, 2016-12-09 Reading literary and cinematic events between and beyond American and Persian literatures this book questions the dominant geography of the East West divide which charts the global circulation of texts as World Literature Beyond the limits of national literary historiography and neocolonial cartography of world literary discourse the minor character Parsee Fedallah in Herman Melville's Moby Dick 1851 is a messenger who travels from the margins of the American literature canon to his Persian literary counterparts in contemporary Iranian fiction and film above all the rural woman Mergan in Mahmoud Dowlatabadi's novel Missing Soluch 1980 In contention with Eurocentric treatments of world literatures and in recognition of efforts to recast the worldliness of American and Persian literatures this book maintains that aesthetic properties are embedded in their local histories and formative geographies Iranian Hospitality, Afghan Marginality Elisabeth

Yarbaksh,2021-02-11 In Iranian Hospitality Afghan Marginality Elisabeth Yarbaksh unpacks ideas around culture identity and the relationship between Iranian citizens and Afghan refugees living in Shiraz Iran and surrounding areas Yarbaksh highlights the ways in which shifting policies and practices toward refugees over the past forty years have run parallel to the transitive notions of what it means to be Iranian Yarbaksh exposes the complex interplay of identity and hospitality as it emerges out of variously competing and intersecting Islamic historical and literary narratives of Iranian identity carefully illustrating how these factors circumscribe Afghan refugee life in the city of Shiraz

Polymaths of Islam

James Pickett,2020-09-15 Polymaths of Islam analyzes the social and intellectual power of religious leaders who created a shared culture that integrated Central Asia Iran and India from the mid eighteenth century through the early twentieth James Pickett demonstrates that Islamic scholars were simultaneously mystics and administrators judges and occultists physicians and poets This integrated understanding of the world of Islamic scholarship unlocks a different way of thinking about transregional exchange networks Pickett reveals a Persian language cultural sphere that transcended state boundaries and integrated a spectacularly vibrant Eurasia that is invisible from published sources alone Through a high cultural complex that he terms the Persian cosmopolis or Persianate sphere Pickett argues that an intersection of diverse disciplines shaped geographical trajectories across and between political states In Polymaths of Islam he paints a comprehensive colorful and often contradictory portrait of mosque and state in the age of empire

Literature of the Early Twentieth Century:

From the Constitutional Period to Reza Shah A. A. Seyed-Gohrab,2015-07-22 The eleventh volume in this ground breaking series pays special attention to politically engaged poetry written during a turbulent period which saw the Constitutional Revolution in Iran as well as the rise to power of Reza Shah and his attempts to implement reform Throughout this time poets began to turn their attention towards the country s ordinary people rather than concentrate on its elites This volume also examines the prose fiction of the period which saw the rise of the novel and short story Additionally Persian satire began to grow in importance especially with the increased popularity of poets and novelists such as Iraj Mirza and Sadeq Hedayat This wide ranging volume is an invaluable companion for anyone who wants to understand how the Persian literary scene changed at the beginning of the twentieth century reflecting the social and political contexts in which this literature was created

The Political Economy of Iran Farhad Gohardani,Zahra Tizro,2019-03-07 This study entails a theoretical reading of the Iranian modern history and follows an interdisciplinary agenda at the intersection of philosophy psychoanalysis economics and politics and intends to offer a novel framework for the analysis of socio economic development in Iran in the modern era A brief review of Iranian modern history from the Constitutional Revolution to the Oil Nationalization Movement the 1979 Islamic Revolution and the recent Reformist and Green Movements demonstrates that Iranian people travelled full circle This historical experience of socio economic development revolving around the bitter question of Why are we backward and its manifestation in perpetual socio political instability and violence is the subject matter of this study Michel Foucault's conceived relation between the production of truth and production of wealth captures the essence of hypothesis offered in this study Foucault 1980 93 94 maintains that In the last analysis we must produce truth as we must produce wealth indeed we must produce truth in order to produce wealth in the first place Based on a hybrid methodology combining hermeneutics of understanding and hermeneutics of suspicion this monograph proposes that the failure to produce wealth has had particular roots in the failure in the production of truth and trust At the heart of the proposed theoretical model is the following formula the Iranian subject's confused preference structure culminates in the formation of unstable coalitions which in turn leads to institutional failure creating a chaotic social order and a turbulent history as experienced by the Iranian nation in the modern era As such the society oscillates between the chaotic states of socio political anarchy emanating from irreconcilable differences between and within social assemblages and their affiliated hybrid forms of regimes of truth in the springs of freedom and repressive states of order in the winters of discontent Each time after the experience of chaos the order is restored based on the emergence of a final arbiter Iranian leviathan as the evolved coping strategy for achieving conflict resolution This highly volatile truth cycle produces the experience of socio economic backwardness and violence The explanatory power of the theoretical framework offered in the study exploring the relation between the production of truth trust and wealth is demonstrated via providing historical examples from strong events of Iranian modern history The significant policy implications of the model are explored This monograph will appeal to researchers scholars graduate students policy makers and anyone interested in the Middle Eastern politics Iran development studies and political economy

An Iranian Childhood Hamid Dabashi, 2023-04-13 A vibrant unique and personal examination of the overlap between history and memory focusing on Iranian childhoods

Disenchanted the Caliphate Hayrettin Yücesoy, 2023-08-08 The political thought of Muslim societies is all too often defined in religious terms in which the writings of clerics are seen as representative and ideas about governance are treated as an extension of commentary on sacred texts Disenchanted the Caliphate offers a groundbreaking new account of political discourse in Islamic history by examining Abbasid imperial practice illuminating the emergence and influence of a vibrant secular tradition Closely reading key eighth century texts Hayrettin Yücesoy argues that the ulema's discourse of religious governance and the political thought of lay intellectuals diverged during this foundational period with enduring consequences He traces how notions of good governance and reflections on prudent statecraft arose among cosmopolitan literati who envisioned governing as an art Competent in nonreligious branches of knowledge and trained in administrative professions these belletrists articulated and defended secular political practices reimagining the caliphal realm as politically constituted rather than natural They sought to improve administrative efficiency and bolster state control for an empire made up of diverse cultures Their ideas about moral cultivation temporal reasoning and governmental rationality endured for centuries as a counterpoint to religious rulership Drawing on this history Yücesoy critiques the concept of Islamic political thought calling for decolonizing debates about secular and religious politics Theoretically rich and historically grounded Disenchanted the Caliphate is an insightful and provocative reconsideration of key strands of political discourse in the intellectual history of Muslim societies

Persophilia Hamid Dabashi, 2015-10-12 From antiquity to the Enlightenment Persian culture has been integral to European history Interest in all things Persian shaped not just Western views but the self image of Iranians to the present day Hamid Dabashi maps the changing geography of these connections showing that traffic in ideas about Persia did not travel on a one way street Routledge Handbook on the Sciences in Islamicate Societies Sonja Brentjes, 2023-01-24 The Routledge Handbook on the Sciences in Islamicate Societies provides a comprehensive survey on science in the Islamic world from the 8th to the 19th century Across six sections a group of subject experts discuss and analyze scientific practices across a wide range of Islamicate societies The authors take into consideration several contexts in which science was practiced ranging from intellectual traditions and persuasions to institutions such as courts schools hospitals and observatories to the materiality of scientific practices including the arts and craftsmanship Chapters also devote attention to scientific practices of minority communities in Muslim majority societies and Muslim minority groups in societies outside the Islamicate world thereby allowing readers to better understand the opportunities and constraints of scientific practices under varying local conditions Through replacing Islam with Islamicate societies the book opens up ways to explain similarities and differences between diverse societies ruled by Muslim dynasties This handbook will be an invaluable resource for both established academics and students looking for an introduction to the field It will appeal to those involved in the study of the history of science the history of ideas intellectual history social or cultural history Islamic studies Middle East and African studies including history and studies of Muslim communities in Europe and South and East Asia The End of Two Illusions Hamid Dabashi, 2022-04-19 Dismantling the myths that divide Islam and the West this cutting edge work of critical thinking proposes new ways to reread Islamic and world histories Extending from the front page news coverage of our daily lives back into the deepest and most revelatory histories of the last two hundred years and earlier Hamid Dabashi's The End of Two Illusions is a daring provocative and groundbreaking work that dismantles the most dangerous delusions manufactured between two vastly fetishized abstractions Islam and the West With this book Dabashi shows how the civilizational divides imagined between these two cosmic binaries have defined their entanglement in ways that have nothing to do with the lived experiences of either Muslims or the diverse and changing communities scarcely held together by the myth of the West Through detailed historical and contemporary analysis The End of Two Illusions untangles the motivations that produced this global fiction Dabashi demonstrates how the West was an ideological commodity and civilizational mantra invented during the European Enlightenment serving as an epicenter for the rise of globalized capitalist modernity In turn Orientalist ideologues went around the world manufacturing equally illusory abstractions in the form of inferior civilizations in India China Africa Latin America and the Islamic world The result was the projection of Islam and the West as the prototype of a

civilizational hostility that has given false explanations and flawed prognoses of our contemporary history with weaponized Islamophobia on one side and militant Islamism on the other as its most palpable manifestations Dabashi argues it is long past time to dismantle this dangerous liaison expose and overcome its perilous delusions and reimagine the world beyond its shimmering mirage The End of Two Illusions is the most iconoclastic work of critical thought and scholarship to emerge in recent memory clearing the way toward a far more liberating imaginative geography of the world we share Iranian Culture Nasrin Rahimieh,2015-08-27 Throughout modern Iranian history culture has served as a means of imposing unity and cohesion onto society The Pahlavi monarchs used it to project an image of Iran as an ancient civilisation re emerging as an equal to Western nations while the revolutionaries deployed it to remake the country into an Islamic nation Just as Iranian culture has been continually re interpreted the representations and avocations of Iranian identity vary amongst Iranians across the world Iranian Culture Representation and Identity demonstrates these fissures and the incompatibilities that refuse to be written out of national culture analysing works of literature popular music graphic art and film as well as oral narratives Using works produced before and after the 1979 revolution created both inside and outside of Iran this study reveals neglected complexities and contradictions in the field of Iranian cultural production It considers how contested claims to culture whether they originated in Iran or the Iranian diaspora shape our understanding of this culture and what spaces they create for new articulations of it and in doing so offers an important re examination of our collective concept of culture This book would be an excellent resource for students and scholars of Middle East Studies and Iranian Studies specifically Iranian culture including film and contemporary literature and the Iranian diaspora Iran Hamid Dabashi,2016-10-05 In this unprecedented book Hamid Dabashi provides a provocative account of Iran in its current resurrection as a mighty regional power Through a careful study of contemporary Iranian history in its political literary and artistic dimensions Dabashi decouples the idea of Iran from its colonial linkage to the cliché notion of the nation state and then demonstrates how an aesthetic intuition of transcendence has enabled it to be re conceived as a powerful nation This rebirth has allowed for repressed political and cultural forces to surface redefining the nation's future beyond its fictive postcolonial borders and autonomous from the state apparatus that wishes but fails to rule it Iran's sovereignty Dabashi argues is inaugurated through an active and open ended self awareness of the nation's history and recent political and aesthetic instantiations as it has been sustained by successive waves of revolutionary prose poetry and visual and performing arts performed categorically against the censorial will of the state Mystical Traditions Muhammad Shafiq,Thomas Donlin-Smith,2023-05-16 This book discusses mysticism and its possible contributions to a positive common human future It is organized into three parts Studies of Mystical Traditions Comparative Studies of Mystical Traditions and Social and Ethical Implications The approach is philosophical and critical The contributors differ on whether or not mystical traditions would restore peaceful living and peaceful coexistence However the problem before this manuscript is the growing pain and suffering caused by greed in the world greed causing economic disequilibrium racism and divisiveness causing social unrest resulting in mass migration and refugees crisis Through the lens of mystical traditions the manuscript proposes a balance approach between material and spiritual needs of people To strengthen human spirituality the manuscript emphasizes practicing meditation music prayers zikr yoga mindfulness fasting and other methods of spiritual revival for peace within self and with others
