Warlike Woolwich: a history & guide William Thomas Vincent, 1875 Borstal Boys David Clarke, 2013-11-18 The story portrays a remarkable change that took place in the life of David when he was 20 years old on the night of the 16th January 1970 His brother Michael was left untouched This story was originally published under the title Converted on LSD but this edition has been specially written for prison inmates These brothers influenced each other during the 50 s 60 s and resulted in both David and Michael serving time in prison David was sent to Dover Borstal and Michael Maidstone Prison for charges of malicious wounding and carrying a firearm without a license The story speaks in detail of all the significant events in David s life from being a child through to the time of his conversion to Christ and then recounts the consequent difficulties that he experienced as he tried to follow the way of Christ This led David to make a confession to the Police about his 24 crimes and the recovery of much stolen property The story appeared as news headlines in the Bucks Herald on 11th February 1971 and led to a remarkable conditional discharge It was believed by many of Aylesbury s criminal world that Dave had gone mad after taking LSD or the story was an ingenious plan devise by David to prevent him from being sent to prison again for crimes against society This was not the case as the story will tell Index to Selected Outdoor Recreation Literature: Citation item number 60001-60991, covering calendar year 1966
