Modern American Drama: Playwriting in the 1950s Susan C. W. Abbotson,2019-11-14 The Decades of Modern American Drama series provides a comprehensive survey and study of the theatre produced in each decade from the 1930s to 2009 in eight volumes. Each volume equips readers with a detailed understanding of the context from which work emerged: an introduction considers life in the decade with a focus on domestic life and conditions; social changes; culture; media; technology; industry; and political events; while a chapter on the theatre of the decade offers a wide-ranging and thorough survey of theatres, companies, dramatists, new movements, and developments in response to the economic and political conditions of the day. The work of the four most prominent playwrights from the decade receives in-depth analysis and re-evaluation by a team of experts, together with commentary on their subsequent work and legacy. A final section brings together original documents such as interviews with the playwrights and with directors, drafts of play scenes, and other previously unpublished material. The major writers and their works to receive in-depth coverage in this volume include William Inge Picnic 1953, Bus Stop 1955, and The Dark at the Top of the Stairs 1957; Stephen Sondheim, Arthur Laurents, and Jerome Robbins West Side Story 1957 and Gypsy 1959; Alice Childress Just a Little Simple 1950; Gold Through the Trees 1952, and Trouble in Mind 1955; Jerome Lawrence and Robert Lee Inherit the Wind 1955; Auntie Mame 1956, and The Gang's All Here 1959.

Performing Age in Modern Drama Valerie Barnes Lipscomb, 2016-07-14. This book is the first to examine age across the modern and contemporary dramatic canon, from Arthur Miller and Tennessee Williams to Paula Vogel and Doug Wright. All ages across the life course are interpreted as performance and performative, both on page and on stage, including professional productions and senior theatre groups. The common admonition 'act your age' provides the springboard for this study, which rests on the premise that age is performative in nature and that issues of age and performance crystallize in the theatre. Dramatic conventions include characters who change ages from one moment to the next, overtly demonstrating on stage the reiterated actions that create a performative illusion of stable age. Moreover, directors regularly cast actors in these plays against their chronological ages. Lipscomb contends that while the plays reflect varying attitudes toward performing age as a whole, they reveal a longing for an ageless self, a desire to present a consistent, unified identity. The works mirror prevailing social perceptions of the aging process as well as the tension between chronological age, physiological age, and cultural constructions of age.
