The Problem of the Actress in Modern German Theater and Thought S. E. Jackson, 2021 Reconstructs the constitutive role that German actresses played on and off the stage in shaping not only modernist theater aesthetics and performance practices but also influential strains of modern thought Around 1900 German and Austrian actresses had allure and status apparent autonomy and unconventional lifestyles They presented a complex problem socially and aesthetically one tied to the so called Woman Question and to the contested status of modernity For modernists the actress's socioeconomic mobility and defiance of gender norms opened space to contest social and moral strictures and her mutability offered a means to experiment with identity For conservatives on the other hand female performance could support antifeminist convictions and validate masculine authority by positing woman as nothing but a false surface shaped by productive male forces Influential male authored texts from the period thereby disavowed female subjectivity per se by equating woman and actress S E Jackson establishes the actress as a key figure in a discursive matrix surrounding modernity gender and subjectivity Her central argument is that because the figure of the actress bridged such varied fields of thought women who were actresses had a consequential impact that resonated in and far beyond the theater but has not been explored Examining archival sources such as theater reviews and writing by actresses in direct relation to canonical aesthetic and philosophical texts The Problem of the Actress reconstructs the constitutive role that women played on and off the stage in shaping not only modernist theater aesthetics and performance practices but also influential strains of modern thought

Hirsch, 2011-12-27 Examines the complicated history of a Jewish cultural organization supported by Nazi Germany The Post-traumatic Theatre of Grotowski and Kantor Magda Romanska, 2014-10-01 Despite its international influence Polish theatre remains a mystery to many Westerners This volume attempts to fill in current gaps in English language scholarship by offering a historical and critical analysis of two of the most influential works of Polish theatre Jerzy Grotowski's Akropolis and Tadeusz Kantor's Dead Class By examining each director's representation of Auschwitz this study provides a new understanding of how translating national trauma through the prism of performance can alter and deflect the meaning and reception of theatrical works both inside and outside of their cultural and historical contexts Stage of Emergency Gonda Aline Hector Van Steen, 2015 This volume offers a critique of cultural and intellectual life in Greece during the dictatorship of 1967-1974 discussing how Greek playwrights directors and actors reconceived the role of culture in a state of crisis and engaged with questions of theater's relationship to politics and community In the early 1970s several bold new plays appeared resonating with the concerns of Greek public and private life The reinvigorated Greek stage displayed an extraordinary degree of historical consciousness and embraced revisionist cultural critique as well leading to a drastic reshaping of the Greek theatrical landscape Stage of Emergency is the first study to focus on these particular theatrical developments of the so called junta era shedding light not only on the messages and impact of the plays themselves but also on the politics of culture and censorship affecting the Greek public during this period In Person Ivone Margulies, 2018-12-05 In Person Reenactment in Postwar and Contemporary Cinema delineates a new performative genre based on replay and self awareness The book argues that in person reenactment an actual person reenacting her past on camera departs radically from other modes of mimetic reconstruction In Person theorizes this figure's protean temporality and revisionist capabilities and it considers its import in terms of social representativity and exemplarity Close readings of select historicized examples define an alternate confessional performative vein to understand the self reflexive nature of postwar and post holocaust testimonial cinemas The book contextualizes Zavattini's proposal that in neorealism everyone should act his own story in a sort of anti individualist public display Love in the City and We the Women It checks the convergence between verité experiments a heightened self critique in France and the reception of psychodrama in France Chronicle of a summer and The Human Pyramid in the late fifties And through Bazin it reflects on the quandaries of celebrity biopics how the circularity of the star's iconography is checked by her corporeal limits Sophia her Own Story and the docudrama Torero In Person traces a shift from the exemplary and transformative ethos of fifties reenactment towards the un redemptive stance of contemporary reenactment films such as Lanzmann's Shoah Zhang Yuan's Sons Andrea Tonacci's Hills of Chaos It defines continuities between verite testimony Chronicle and Moi un Noir and later para juridical films such as the Karski Report and Rithy Panh's S21 the Khmer Rouge Killing Machine suggesting the power of co presence and in person actualization for an ethics of viewership
