Soul Loss and the Shamanic Story Michael Berman, 2009-03-26 Stories from various cultures and periods of time can be identified which deal with a concept of soul loss that is essentially shamanic In shamanism soul loss is the term used to describe the way parts of the psyche become detached when we are faced with traumatic situations In shamanic terms these split off parts can be found in non ordinary reality and are only accessible to those familiar with its topography Case studies are presented to show how the way soul loss is dealt with by indigenous shamans differs from the way it is treated by neo shamanic practitioners Stories have traditionally been classified as epics myths sagas legends folk tales fairy tales parables and fables However the definitions of the terms have a tendency to overlap making it difficult to classify and categorize material For this reason a case can be made for the introduction of a new genre termed the shamanic story a story that has either been based on or inspired by a shamanic journey a numinous experience in non ordinary reality or one that contains a number of the elements typical of such a journey Within this new genre it is proposed that there exists a sub genre shamanic stories that deal specifically with soul loss and examples are presented and analysed to support this hypothesis      New Theatre Quarterly 76: Volume 19, Part 4 Simon Trussler, Clive Barker, 2003-05-24 Provides an international forum where theatrical scholarship and practice can meet      Current Approaches in Drama Therapy David Read Johnson, Renée Emunah, 2020-11-18 This third edition of Current Approaches in Drama Therapy offers a revised and updated comprehensive compilation of the primary drama therapy methods and models that are being utilized and taught in the United States and Canada Two new approaches have been added Insight Improvisation by Joel Gluck and the Miss Kendra Program by David Read Johnson Nisha Sajani Christine Mayor and Cat Davis as well as an established but not previously recognized approach in the field Autobiographical Therapeutic Performance by Susana Pendzik The book begins with an updated chapter on the development of the profession of drama therapy in North America followed by a chapter on the current state of the field written by the editors and Jason Butler Section II includes the 13 drama therapy approaches and Section III includes the three related disciplines of Psychodrama and Sociodrama Playback Theatre and Theatre of the Oppressed that have been particularly influential to drama therapists This highly informative and indispensable volume is structured for drama therapy training programs It will continue to be useful as a basic text of drama therapy for both students and seasoned practitioners including mental health professionals such as counselors clinical social workers psychologists creative arts therapists occupational therapists theater and drama teachers school counselors and organizational development consultants
