The Bloomsbury Companion to Holocaust Literature Jenni Adams, 2014-10-23 The Bloomsbury Companion to Holocaust Literature is a comprehensive reference resource including a wealth of critical material on a diverse range of topics within the literary study of Holocaust writing At its centre is a series of specially commissioned essays by leading scholars within the field these address genre specific issues such as the question of biographical and historical truth in Holocaust testimony as well as broader topics including the politics of Holocaust representation and the validity of comparative approaches to the Holocaust in literature and criticism. The volume includes a substantial section detailing new and emergent trends within the literary study of the Holocaust, a concise glossary of major critical terminology and an annotated bibliography of relevant research material. Featuring original essays by Victoria Aarons, Jenni Adams, Michael Bernard Donals, Matthew Boswell, Stef Craps, Richard Crownshaw, Brett Ashley Kaplan, and Fernando Herrero Matoses, Adrienne Kertzer, Erin McGlothlin, David Miller, and Sue Vice.

What Do We Tell the Children? Critical Essays on Children's Literature Ciara Ní Bhroin, Patricia Kennon, 2012-03-15. This peer-reviewed collection of critical essays on children's literature addresses contemporary debates regarding what constitutes suitable texts for young audiences. The volume examines what adult writers tell their child readers with particular focus on the following areas: the representation of sexuality, gender, and the body; the treatment of death and trauma; concepts of race, prejudice, and national identity; and the use of children's literature as a tool for socializing, acculturating, politicizing, and educating children. The focus of the collection is on Irish and international fiction addressed at readers from mid childhood to young adulthood. One section of the book examines what child readers were told in the past, while another section examines young readers' capacity for self-invention through the participatory culture of the twenty-first century. Topics explored include the controversial issue of teenage prostitution and the commodification of the male body in contemporary young adult fiction; the allure of celebrity; and the impact of today's surveillance culture on young people; the representation of the Holocaust for young readers; and representations of Muslim characters and culture in a post-9/11 mediascape. This collection, which offers insights into a range of literary constructions and representations of childhood, will be a valuable resource for students and scholars working in children's literature, youth culture, and childhood studies.

Mastering Writing at Greater Depth Adam Bushnell, Angela Gill, David Waugh, Rob Smith, 2023-02-09. To master the teaching of writing at greater depth, teachers first need to know: What makes writing greater depth? What does it look like? How do I support children to develop the skills and creativity to be able to write at greater depth? Official guidance lacks the substance and clarity that is needed, so where do teachers go for support? This book provides teachers with support, guidance, background theory, examples, and practical advice for the teaching of writing at greater depth. The text highlights the need to take writing beyond transcription into creative composition and not only shows how this is possible but also explores why it matters The second edition is updated with new questions for discussion supporting teacher professional learning and links to the ITT Core Content Framework for trainee teachers      Adaptation: Theory, Criticism, Pedagogy Ljubica Matek, Jelena Pataki, Jasna Poljak Rehlicki, Sanja Runtić, Jadranka Zlomislčić, 2017-02-24 Book of Abstracts from the Adaptation Theory Criticism Pedagogy conference held at the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences University of Osijek Croatia Feb 23 25 2017      The English Quarterly ,2002      The Pleasure of Reading Antonia Fraser, Victoria Gray, 2015-10-20 In this delightful collection forty three acclaimed writers explain what first made them interested in literature what inspired them to read and what makes them continue to do so First published in 1992 in hardback only original contributors include Margaret Atwood J G Ballard Melvyn Bragg A S Byatt Catherine Cookson Carol Ann Duffy Germaine Greer Alan Hollinghurst Doris Lessing Candia McWilliam Edna O'Brien Ruth Rendell Tom Stoppard Sue Townsend and Jeanette Winterson The new edition will include essays from ten new writers      The Children's Buyer's Guide ,2005      Lit & Media Tests in Sec English Andrew Goodwyn, 1999-01-01 Examining how to make English teaching exciting and relevant in a modern technological and culturally diverse society this text explores poetry and classic texts and media and multicultural texts It gives approaches to unexpected texts and explores gender issues in adolescent fiction      Becoming a Teacher of Reading Margaret Perkins, 2015-03-10 Learning to read is one of the most important life skills teachers can help a child develop Teaching reading is a vital part of a career in the classroom and engaging with the range of different learning styles children have is a real challenge Trainee teachers need to learn how to address this variety of learning needs and also meet the wider demands of the curriculum Margaret Perkins helps students meet these challenges to become a confident reflective teacher of reading by providing An in depth explanation of phonics teaching alongside other teaching approaches empowering trainees to choose the right approach for each individual child Key research findings so students can apply the latest thinking to their teaching practice School based activities and independent learning tasks to help apply theory to practice and develop teaching skills through self reflection Classroom scenarios of teacher child interactions that demonstrate how children learn and respond to different teaching strategies      Young Adult Literature in Action Rose Brock, 2019-06-14 Taking a genre approach this overview of young adult literature shows new librarians and library science students the criteria to use for selecting quality books including recommended titles This third edition of Young Adult Literature in Action draws on the success of the previous two editions authored by Rosemary Chance updating and expanding on them to meet the needs of today's librarians and library science students It includes a new focus on diverse books LGBTQ selections the role of book formats and the relevance of librarians serving teen populations and is an ideal resource for teaching young adult literature courses Organized by major genre divisions this easy to use book includes new information on timely topics such as audio and e books accessible books and graphic novels Each chapter includes revised and updated information on collaborative activities featured books special topics and programs selected awards and celebrations historical connections recommended
