Theological Dictionary Of The New Testament Volume VII:

Theological Dictionary of the New Testament Geoffrey William Bromiley, 1964 Substantial articles on 2000 Greek words that are theologically significant in the New Testament Traces usage in classical Greek literature the Septuagint intertestamental texts and the New Testament Theological Dictionary of the New Testament. Volume VII, 1971

Theological Dictionary of the Old Testament G. Johannes Botterweck, Helmer Ringgren, Heinz-Josef Fabry, 1974 Doing for the Old Testament what Kittel Friedrich does for the New this major multivolume reference work discusses all the key Hebrew and Aramaic words of the Old Testament beginning with A and proceeding through the alphabet Stressing meaning each word study begins with narrow everyday usages and proceeds toward more theologically significant concepts

Theological Dictionary of the New Testament, Vol. VII Gerhard Kittel, 1969 Theological Dictionary of the New Testament, Volume I Gerhard Kittel, Geoffrey William Bromiley, Gerhard Friedrich, 1964-03-18 Substantial articles on 2000 Greek words that are theologically significant in the New Testament Traces usage in classical Greek literature the Septuagint intertestamental texts and the New Testament The Pauline Concept of Supernatural Powers Kabiro wa

Gatumu, 2009-02-20 The study of supernatural powers is fraught with vexing hermeneutical challenges which aggravate further in the African context While on the one hand Western anthropology tends to discount the idea of supernatural powers by attempting to explain them away on the other Western biblical scholarship has mainly worked from the premise of demythologizing them But none of these approaches make tangible sense to African scholars for whom supernatural powers constitute an integral component of their spiritual psyche This book based on an examination of over a thousand documentary sources both classic and modern attempts to address the issue of interpreting supernatural powers from an African worldview The author analyzes identifies and critiques major hermeneutical errors and offers a bridging hermeneutic using the method of reader response criticism The Vision of Matthew John P. Meier, 2004-09-30 In this volume Father Meier explores how Matthew remodeled the form the Christological message and the moral demand of the gospel Part I shows Matthew's church in crisis It was experiencing a shift in its Christian existence from a narrow Jewish Christian past to a universal Gentile future To preserve yet reinterpret the particularistic traditions of that Jewish Christian past Matthew drew up a model of salvation history and then reshaped the gospel message to fit it Part II offers a mini commentary on the whole gospel to illustrate this reshaping of the message Pericope by pericope Matthew presents Jesus as Son of God and Son of Man and therefore as the definitive teacher of his Church Indeed the nexus between Christ and his Church emerges as the outstanding characteristic of Matthew's gospel Part III studies Matthew's construction of a unified moral vision on the basis of this connection between Christ and Church The basic stance of Jesus and his disciples towards the Mosaic Law is one of fulfillment a prophetic fulfillment which involves at times a deepening of at times the abrogation of the letter of the Law

The Psychotheology of Sin and Salvation Paul V. Axton, 2015-10-22 Through the employment of the work of Slavoj i ek and his engagement with the Apostle Paul Axton argues that Paul in Romans 6 8 understands sin as a lie grounding the subject outside of Christ and salvation is an exposure and displacement of this lie The theological significance of i ek along with Sigmund Freud and Jacques Lacan is his demonstration of the pervasive and systemic nature of this lie and its description as he finds it in Romans 7 The specific overlap of the two disciplines of psychology and theology is found in the psychoanalytic understanding that the human Subject or the psyche is structured in three registers the symbolic the imaginary and the real These three registers function like a lie analogous to the Pauline categories of law ego and the body of death which constitute Paul s dynamic of sin s deception Axton argues that if sin is understood as a lie grounding the Subject the exposure of the lie or the dispelling of any notion of mystery connected to sin is integral to salvation and the reconstructing of the Subject in Christ While the lie of sin is mediated by the law new life in the Spirit is not through the law but is a principle unto itself which though it accounts for the law is beyond the law

Cross Veneration in the Medieval Islamic World Charles Tieszen, 2016-02-28 One of the most common religious practices among medieval Eastern Christian communities was their devotion to venerating crosses and crucifixes Yet many of these communities existed in predominantly Islamic contexts where the practice was subject to much criticism and often resulted in accusations of idolatry How did Christians respond to these allegations Why did they advocate the preservation of a practice that was often met with confusion or even contempt

Baptist Foundations Mark Dever, Jonathan Leeman, 2015-06-15 In this volume representatives of several North American Baptist seminaries and a Baptist university make the exegetical and theological case for a Baptist polity Right polity they argue is congregationalism elder leadership diaconal service regenerate church membership church discipline and a Baptist approach to the ordinances

Wilderness in the Bible Robert Barry Leal, 2004 Wilderness in many parts of the globe is under considerable threat from human development This has important ramifications not only for fauna and flora but also for human well being Wilderness in the Bible addresses this ecological crisis from a biblical and theological perspective It first establishes the context of a biblical study of wilderness and then passes to an analysis of the attitudes towards in the canonical biblical record This provides the biblical basis for the development of a theology of wilderness for the twenty first century The Australian wilderness is taken as an illuminating case study

The Liberating Spirit Eldin Villafane, 2021-03-23 This book takes a giant step both in theology and in social ethics It forces theologians to examine the worship and spirituality of Hispanic Pentecostals as a source of theological construction and pushes the Pentecostals themselves to see the broader social implications of their own faith expressions With both Hispanic peoples and Pentecostals forming a larger and larger portion of the American cultural and religious reality this is a vital book indeed an indispensable one for any person knowledgeable about our society to read and ponder Harvey Cox Harvard Divinity School Here is a pioneering book Villafane works a synthesis of the cultural and the spiritual and celebrates the capacity of Pentecostalism to appeal to Hispanic Americans The time is ripe for this important book which delves into the very passion of the human heart and offers an ethic of hope and liberation It should be read by anyone interested in the spiritual condition of Hispanics in a pluralistic society Jesse Miranda Azusa Pacific University The Liberating Spirit should be required reading for anyone interested in the study of social ethics Pentecostal theology or Hispanic American theology Dr Villafane has broken the long standing bifurcation of the profane and the sacred so often associated with Pentecostal theology The Liberating Spirit introduces us to a new and liberating way of being Christians led by the spirit in the modern world Samuel Solivan Andover Newton Theological School Fully aware of the pitfalls and promises of oral theology Villafane approaches his topic from inside an Hispanic Pentecostal understanding of the Spirit vividly describing the pains and joys of an Hispanic Pentecostal in the United States After reading this book it is impossible to paint the whole Pentecostal movement with the brush of right wing theological and political conservatism Walter Hollenweger University of Birmingham England

Mark and Literary Materialism Niall McKay,2022-07-26 The interpretation of the Bible is intricately interwoven with the history of and rhetoric of European colonization During the modern era the traditions of biblical interpretation played a crucial framing role in the emergence of industrialized nation states the capitalist mode of production and the colonial enterprises of European powers While the Bible has been used to justify the power of ruling classes and dominating nations it has also been a source of liberative and resistant political discourse In this book Niall McKay uses the tools of literary materialism to read the gospel of Mark and build upon the representational epistemology and patterns of interpretation of the rich Marxism of the Frankfurt school This reading is framed against and around the liberative biblical movements of late colonial and post colonial South Africa in order to develop ways of reading which are generative of liberation As a consequence the author makes a valuable contribution to an ongoing politics and practice of resistance that is attentive to issues of religious collaboration liberation colonialism and the ends of late capitalism

John Macquarrie's Natural Theology Georgina Morley,2017-11-30 Title first published in 2003 John Macquarrie has been a major contributor in the theological world for more than forty years but as yet very little secondary material on his work has appeared This book offers an insightful introduction to Macquarrie s theology arguing that at its heart is a systematic theology of gift Tracing the development of his thought from its early existentialism to the social and world affirming perspectives of later writings this book shows how these developments emerge in dialogue with contemporary thinkers Morley demonstrates how Macquarrie s theology mediates between two traditionally opposing theologies of gift and being centring on the doctrines of God and of human being and reaching its fullest expression in Christology with Christ as the focal point of two personal movements of self giving divine and human Macquarrie himself contributes a Foreword Living Waters from Difficult Passages Thomas Moore,2019-11-14 This book is an unforgettable journey that is a must read for every believer As the days grow darker it is essential everyone who desires to live for Jesus understand the difference between Churchianity and Christianity This book clears a path through the religious jungle and clearly identifies the Way of Salvation This necessarily involves the full extraction of the common religious practice of tithing from Christian doctrine What is this book about It is about everything that pertains to Godliness and everything that frustrates Godliness It is about growing in Christ and blossoming in faith as well as dying to pride and rejecting the world We are shown the difference between the treasures of Grace and the treasures of the world as we learn a new appreciation for our Lord Jesus Christ and all He won on the cross for us This book is a guide to spiritual maturity where we learn to say along with John the Baptist He must increase but I must decrease John 3 30 KJV Something involved in these issues is dealing with questions that have plagued many believers about how Malachi 3 8 11 has been taught to them Am I really cursed as a robber of God for failing to pay my tithes Will I really open up new Heavenly windows of blessing by faithfully paying my tithes The answers to these questions involve all the schools of systematic theology which requires a deep thorough inspection into the contents of the Gospel of Grace the plan of salvation and the Priesthood of Christ The Collected Works of Edward Schillebeeckx Volume 7 Edward Schillebeeckx,2014-09-25 Christ The Christian Experience in the Modern World focuses on the question of salvation for all people Using seven anthropological constants Schillebeeckx innovatively shows the social and political relevance of faith Inspired by liberation and feminist theologies he puts strong emphasis on human experience and on the importance of examining church teaching in its historical context This volume is a testimony of Schillebeeckx ground breaking attempt to rethink doctrine in the light of the research on the historical Jesus Instead of starting with Christianity s great creedal statements about Christ and the Trinity he focuses on the subjective experience of the first generations of believers as expressed in the New Testament This choice stirred considerable controversy and a Vatican investigation but inspired and still keeps to inspire readers in their personal approach to Christian faith The Concept of Self in Hinduism, Buddhism, and Christianity and Its Implication for Interfaith Relations Kiseong Shin,2017-05-05 This is the first comparative study of the self and no self in Hinduism Buddhism and Christianity In spite of doctrinal differences within these three belief systems they agree that human beings are in a predicament from which they need to be liberated Indian religions including Hinduism and Buddhism share the belief that human nature is inherently perfectible while the epistemological and psychological limitation of the human being is integral to Christian belief Regarding the immortality of the human being Hinduism and Christianity traditionally and generally agree that human beings as atman or soul possess intrinsic immortality On the contrary Buddhism teaches the doctrine of no self anatta Further in their quest to analyze the human predicament and attempt a way out of it they employ different concepts such as sin and salvation in Christianity attachment tanka and enlightenment nirvana in Buddhism and ignorance avidya and liberation moksa in Hinduism This volume seeks to show that behind these concepts are deep concerns related to human existence and its relationship with the whole creation These common concerns can be a basis for a greater understanding and dialogue between Christians Hindus and Buddhists ›Dionysiac‹ Dialogues Georgia Xanthaki-Karamanou, 2022-03-07 This book consists of two main interrelated thematic units the reception of Aeschylus Dionysiac plays in Bacchae and the refiguration of the latter in the Byzantine drama Christus Patiens In both sections the common denominator is Euripides Bacchae which is approached as a receiving text in the first unit and as a source text in the second Each section addresses dramatic ideological and cultural facets of the reception process yielding insight into pivotal Dionysiac motifs that the ancient and Byzantine treatments share Different pieces of evidence mythographic stylistic and iconographic are interrogated so that light is shed on aspects of the storyline the concepts and the imagery of Aeschylus two tetralogies At the same time Bacchae provides a valuable exemplum for aspects of dramatic technique plot patterns and concepts refigured in Christus Patiens This exploration thoroughly and systematically focuses on the ways in which the pagan play was transformed to bring forward new pillars of thought and innovative values in different cultural and ideological contexts over a wide time span from Greek Antiquity to Byzantium
