Theological Dictionary of the Old Testament Helmer Ringgren, 1974 Theological Dictionary of the Old Testament G. Johannes Botterweck, Helmer Ringgren, Heinz-Josef Fabry, 1974 Doing for the Old Testament what Kittel Friedrich does for the New this major multivolume reference work discusses in depth all the key Hebrew and Aramaic words of the Old Testament Stressing meaning each word study moves from narrow everyday senses of words toward more significant theological concepts Theological Dictionary of the Old Testament G. Johannes Botterweck, Helmer Ringgren, 1974 Theological Dictionary of the New Testament, Volume X Geoffrey William Bromiley, 1964 Substantial articles on 2000 Greek words that are theologically significant in the New Testament Traces usage in classical Greek literature the Septuagint intertestamental texts and the New Testament The Jewish Temple Robert Hayward, 2002-06 Robert Hayward offers a careful analysis of surviving accounts of the Temple and its service All the central texts are provided in translation with a detailed commentary While descriptions of the Temple and its service are available discussions of the meaning of these things are less easily found This study clearly illustrates how the Temple was seen as a meeting point between heaven and earth its service being an earthly representation of heavenly reality Jews regarded the Temple service therefore as having significance for the whole created world The Jewish Temple offers a valuable collection of materials both for those looking for an introduction to the topic and for the scholar interested in grasping the meanings beyond those texts

Biblical Theology of prayer in the Old Testament Albert J. Coetsee, Francois P. Viljoen, 2023-08-31 Prayer is a major topic within Christian theology The biblical text has various references to various recorded and reported prayers In fact references to prayer are found within the rich diversity of the various books corpora and genres of Scripture As can be expected much has been written about prayer in the biblical text However a comprehensive Biblical Theology dealing with the concept of prayer in Scripture has not been published before and this book intends to fill this gap assuming that such an approach can provide a valuable contribution to the theological discourse on prayer and related concepts This book aims to investigate prayer and its related elements including worship praise thanksgiving adoration petition intercession lament and confession in the Old Testament on a book by book or corpus by corpus basis The investigation follows a Biblical Theological approach reading the Old Testament on a book by book basis in its final form to uncover the Old Testament s overarching theology of prayer understanding the parts in relation to the whole By doing this the discrete nuances of the prayers of the different Old Testament books and corpora can be uncovered letting the books and corpora speak for themselves In addition the advantage of this approach is that it provides findings that can benefit the modern Christian community and contribute to the practice of Reformed theology in Africa This book is of significant value to scholars It will inspire scholars to think about prayer and use the Bible as the major prayer handbook in their spiritual lives The Torah in Matthew Francois Viljoen, 2018 Jesus relation to the Torah forms a significant motif in Matthew s Gospel This relation is taken up as an important theme in the Sermon on the Mount with its strong Sinai typology and disputes about the Torah are repeated throughout the Gospel Jesus is depicted as the last and greatest expositor of the Torah When reading this Gospel the central role of the Torah must be seriously considered This present study is furthermore relevant in the light of new insights that have developed in recent years on the diversity and dynamics within the Judaism that confronted Matthew This diversity within Judaism is usually related to Judaist attitudes towards the Torah To complicate this oral traditions were strong and lively Questions arose about the status of the written Scriptures and oral traditions and the authority ascribed to these The Matthean community developed within this turmoil of developing Judaism

God the Trinity Malcolm B. Yarnell,2016-04-15 Is the Trinity biblical Is it necessary to affirm God as three persons in one being Despite a renewed interest in the Trinity in recent years many Christians including most evangelicals either relegate the Son of God to creaturely status or repudiate the personhood of the Holy Spirit In addition numerous scholars affirm that the doctrine of the Trinity is not clearly revealed in Scripture Is the Trinity merely a philosophical construction or is it essential to orthodox Christianity Drawing on hermeneutics and biblical and historical theology Malcolm Yarnell crafts a careful and clear response to these issues through exegesis of pivotal texts from both testaments He meticulously examines the foundational Hebrew confession known as the Shema Matthew s great commission the divine relations in the Gospel of John Paul s Corinthian benediction the opening hymn of Ephesians and the throne room vision of the Apocalypse Also considered are the relationships of language to revelation and history to metaphysics along with recent appeals to recover patristic exegesis and the Christian imagination He also challenges the reader to discern the implications of the Trinity for personal salvation as well as corporate worship

Modern Moral Problems William B. Smith,2012-01-01 Modern Moral Problems addresses moral quandaries that can beguile and confuse faithful Catholics Written in a question and answer format the book covers questions regarding sexuality medical ethics business practices civic responsibilities and the sacramental life of the Church

The extraordinary assortment of issues forming a single organized collection is a valuable reference for anyone seeking clear and concise answers to tough moral questions. Written in a conversational tone often spiced with humor, this work by a highly respected moral theologian will be read with fascination for its clarity of argument and fundamental good sense. Originally published as a monthly question and answer column in a magazine for priests, these selections by Msgr William B Smith retain a striking current topicality. Msgr Smith often tackled matters of controversy in the Catholic Church, ones which continue to draw conflicting opinions. Interesting, informative, and eminently practical, this book conveys an overall impression that sound thinking about morality is rooted in a tradition within the Catholic Church, even when the answers to particular moral questions cannot be found in catechisms or Vatican documents. Msgr Smith offers a clear-headed approach to the quandaries of our time precisely because of his training in traditional moral principles and his fidelity to the Catholic magisterium. This book should be in the possession of all seminarians and priests who are bound to confront moral matters that are not so easily decided at first glance. But lay people too will find here rich responses to the challenging and sometimes unresolved moral questions they encounter in their own lives.

The New Covenant Torah in Jeremiah and the Law of Christ in Paul Femi Adeyemi, 2006 Original Scholarly Monograph Burn for Christ Just . . . Don't Burn Out! Chi Eng Yuan, 2019-04-15 At one time or another all ministers ask the questions or face the challenges of losing their passion for ministry. This author contends that the major contributor to a loss of passion or interest in ministry in general is burnout. This book consists of two major sections. In the first major section, chapters 2 through 4 are about our vertical relationship with God in terms of our passion to serve, our spirituality, our understanding and practice of rest, Sabbath, and our compatibility. In the second major section, chapters 5 through 7 are about our horizontal relationship with others in terms of our confidence, our management of conflict with others, and our approach to the culture around us.

A Biblical Theology of Gerassapience Joel A. A. Ajayi, 2010 Ancient cultures such as that of the Hebrews commonly associated wisdom with advanced years. In A Biblical Theology of Gerassapience, the author investigates the validity of this correlation through an eclectic approach including linguistic, semantic, tradition, historical, and socio-anthropological methods to pertinent biblical and extra-biblical texts. There are significant variations in the estimation of gerassapience or old age wisdom in each period of ancient Israel's life: that is, in pre-monarchical, monarchical, and post-monarchical Israel. Throughout this study, appropriate cross-cultural parallels are drawn from the cultures of ancient Israel's neighbors and of modern societies such as the West African Yoruba tribe. The overall results are bi-dimensional. On the one hand, there are semantic elements of gerassapience such as the elusiveness of wisdom and the mild fluidity of old age. Both terms have strong contextual affinity with minimal exceptions. Thus, the attribution of wisdom to old age is evident but not absolute in the Hebrew Bible/Old Testament. On the other hand, gerassapience is depicted as primarily didactic through direct and indirect instructions and counsels of the elderly, fostering the saging fear of Yahweh's legacies. On the whole, socio-anthropocentric tendencies of gerassapience that is of making old age a repertoire of wisdom are checked by theological warrants of theosapience Yahwistic wisdom Therefore in the Hebrew Bible the fear of Yahweh is also the beginning of growing old and wise What's the Truth About Heaven and Hell? Douglas A. Jacoby, 2013-04-01 Recent books about heaven and hell have aroused the interest of committed Christians and curious seekers alike But the wide range of viewpoints has also created confusion and left many people wondering what they are to believe This user friendly guide presents the most popular views on heaven hell purgatory judgment and related topics followed by brief easy to follow analysis Readers will be equipped to make their own well informed decisions about questions like these What happens when we die Where did the idea of purgatory come from Will our bodies be resurrected someday If so does cremation offend God Will unbelievers be judged by God and punished in hell forever Or will they be annihilated What about those who never heard the gospel message This summary of the latest Evangelical teaching and traditional mainstream scholarship provides readers with tools to assess each position in the light of Scripture Jesus as the Fulfillment of the Temple in the Gospel of John Paul M. Hoskins, 2007-02-01 This study examines John's portrayal of Jesus as the fulfillment and replacement of the Temple It also shows how a traditional conception of typology can be helpful for understanding the nature of the relationship between Jesus and the Temple Interpreters often associate John 1 14 1 51 2 18 22 and 4 20 24 with Jesus replacement of the Temple Based on these texts one can already begin to see that he fulfills and replaces the Temple in that he is the new locus of God's presence glory revelation and abundant provision for his people In particular John 2 18 22 clearly associates Jesus' role as the Temple with his death and resurrection According to Isaiah part of God's decisive action on behalf of his people and for revealing himself to the nations is the lifting up of the Temple above all other temples In John this expectation finds its fulfillment in Jesus John's language of lifting up and glorification marks Jesus' death resurrection and exaltation as climactic events through which God lifts up and glorifies Jesus the true Temple Jesus' death resurrection and exaltation are also the means by which God provides for his people Jesus offers his flesh and blood for the life of the world and sends the Spirit to enrich believers with the benefits of his sacrificial death In doing so he simultaneously fulfills prophecies and patterns associated with the Passover Feast of Tabernacles Feast of Dedication and the Temple Commission Narratives István Czachesz, 2007 Commission Narratives is based on the author's doctoral dissertation in Groningen 2002 The monograph offers the first overarching comparative treatment of commission narratives in the canonical and apocryphal Acts of the Apostles analysing them in their ancient literary setting Following a survey of this widespread narrative theme in the cultural environment of early Christianity Czachesz establishes a threefold social typology of divine commission institutional prophetic and philosophical and explores the occurrences of the three types in the canonical and apocryphal Acts The central chapters of the book provide a close reading of the textual evidence investigating intertextual relations the function of commission in the narrative structure and the biographical models of self definition that commission stories offered to the ancient readers in their changing social and ecclesiastical environments Based on this textual analysis Czachesz makes new proposals about the reconstruction Sitz im Leben and dating of several apocryphal Acts Finally he examines the synchronic structure of commission showing that the variety of commission narratives emerges from a constant set of motifs that are generated by interactions among the characters Spanning the Abyss Angel M.

Rodriguez,2008 Patristic Perspectives on Luke's Transfiguration Peter Anthony,2022-03-24 Peter Anthony explores how visionary elements in Luke's Gospel had a particular influence on early interpretation of the Transfiguration by examining the rich hermeneutical traditions that emerged particularly in the Latin West as the Transfiguration was first depicted visually in art Anthony begins by comparing the visual and visionary culture of antiquity with that of the present and their differing interpretations of the Transfiguration He then examines the Transfiguration texts in the synoptic gospels and their interpretation in modern scholarship and the reception of the Transfiguration in 2 Peter the Apocalypse of Peter and the Acts of Peter Tertullian and Origen Proceeding to look at interpretations found in the Greek East and the Latin West Anthony finally discusses the earliest visual depictions of the Transfiguration from the sixth century onward drawn from a wealth of different art forms Anthony concludes that early commentators and artists understanding of how we see and visualise and therefore how the Transfiguration was apprehended is closer to that of the writers of the New Testament than many modern interpreters is Church and School in Early Modern Protestantism Jordan Ballor,David Sytsma,Jason

Zuidema,2013-08-08 A great deal of scholarship has too often juxtaposed scholasticism and piety resulting in misunderstandings of the relationship between Protestant churches of the early modern era and the theology taught in their schools But more recent scholarship especially conducted by Richard A Muller over the last number of decades has remapped the lines of continuity and discontinuity in the relation of church and school This research has produced a more methodologically nuanced and historically accurate representation of church and school in early modern Protestantism Written by leading scholars of early modern Protestant theology and history and based on research using the most relevant original sources this collection seeks to broaden our understanding of how and why clergy were educated to serve the church Contributors include Yuzo Adhinarta Willem van Asselt Irena Backus Jordan J Ballor J Mark Beach Andreas Beck Joel R Beeke Lyle D Bierma Raymond A Blacketer James E Bradley Dariusz M Bryko Amy Nelson Burnett Emidio Campi Heber Carlos de Campos Jr Kiven Choy R Scott Clark Paul Fields John V Fesko Paul Fields W Robert Godfrey Alan Gomes Albert Gootjes Chad Gunnoe Aza Goudriaan Fred P Hall Byung Soo Paul Han Nathan A Jacobs Frank A James III Martin Klauber Henry Knapp Robert Kolb Mark J Larson Brian J Lee Karin Maag Benjamin T G Mayes Andrew M McGinnis Paul Mpindi Adriaan C Neele Godfried Quaadtvielig Sebastian Rehnman Todd Rester Gregory D Schuringa Herman Selderhuis Donald Sinnema Keith Stanglin David Steinmetz David Sytsma Yudha Thianto John L Thompson Carl Trueman Theodore G Van Raalte Cornelis Venema Timothy Wengert Reita Yazawa Jeongmo Yoo and Jason Zuidema
