Theologie Der Revolutie:

Practical Theology Gerben Heitink, 1999 This work by a leading figure in the field offers one of the first attempts to formulate a complete theory of practical theology for scholars teachers students and those directly involved in pastoral ministry Designed to serve as a reference tool this volume provides the necessary theoretical discussion for work in the entire discipline of practical theology Gerben Heitink first surveys the historical development of practical theology from the thought of Schleiermacher to the present He then outlines the theoretical aspects of practical theology looking especially at the hermeneutical empirical and strategic points of view Finally Heitink discusses the various contexts in which practical theology takes place The Theologian and His Universe N. M. Wildiers, 1982 Reformatie en revolutie Johannes Jacobus van Oosterzee, 1867 Liberty and Concord in the United Provinces Joris Van Eijnatten, 2003 This study based on a large number of sources and treating a broad variety of topics offers an outline of developments in the early modern intellectual debate on religious liberty religious toleration and religious concord in the eighteenth century Netherlands

Church, Change and Revolution Jan van den Berg, Paul G. Hoftijzer, 2023-08-14 In 1988 the year of the commemoration of the Glorious Revolution it was fitting that the fourth Anglo Dutch Church History colloquium should have as its central theme the Church and Revolution and be held at the University of Exeter In the course of its almost two thousands year s history the Church has been no stranger to reformation political change and revolution Set in the world it could not but be affected by the world nor could it itself given its nature fail to exert a variety of influences on social and political as well as on ecclesiastical events Its life has been profoundly affected and the course of its history directed all of the great revolutions in the Western world while the Church has itself brought to bear on every period of change its own distinctive and often determinative contribution Aspects of these twin features blend together in the essays that make up this record of Anglo Dutch academic exchange and cooperation Tijdschrift voor theologie , 1997 Opera omnia Cornelis Winkler, 1918

Neo-Calvinism and the French Revolution James Eglinton, George Harinck, 2014-08-28 The French Revolution was the scene of much intellectual and social upheaval Its impact touched a wide range of subjects the relationship of the church to the state social relationships science literature fashion philosophy and theology Although the French Revolution s momentum was felt across Europe and North America it met a particularly interesting response in the Netherlands at that time the scene of a burgeoning neo Calvinist movement In that context the likes of Groen van Prinsterer Abraham Kuyper and Herman Bavinck responded to the French Revolution s ideals and influence in a variety of intellectual and practical ways This book approaches that Dutch response from a range of historical and theological perspectives and in so doing explores the relationship between the French Revolution and the development of neo Calvinism Beginning with historical portraits of Bavinck and Kuyper in relation to the Revolution the perspectives offered also include amongst others the place of multilingualism in neo Calvinism and the Revolution neo Calvinist and Revolutionary approaches to fashion a dialogue between Kuyperian theology and Kieslowski's Three Colours trilogy and a contemporary neo Calvinist critique of French laïcité. This book forms part of a wider Project neo Calvinism supported by the Theologische Universiteit Kampen and the VU University Amsterdam.

Augustine, the Harvest, and Theology (1300-1650) Kenneth Hagen, 2023-11-27. The theme of this Festschrift dedicated to Heiko Oberman is Augustine reception in theology 1300-1650. Contemporary discussions about an Augustinian school prior to Luther and about Luther's possible relation to such have been intensified by the work of Heiko Oberman. Thirteen invited scholars produced new work. William Courtenay wrote on late medieval discussions of psychic states and human motivations and volitions. Christoph Burger on Hugolin of Orvieto. Tarald Rasmussen on Jacob Perez of Valencia. Manfred Schulze on Johannes von Staupitz. Bernard Hamm on Jerome reception in Nuremberg. Scott Hendrix on Luther's loyalties. Kurt Victor Selge on Luther's ecclesiology. M. A. Screech on Augustine reception in Rabelais. David Steinmetz on Rom 7. Arthur Olsen on Martin Chemnitz. James Tanis on Abraham van der Heyden. Suse Rau and Elsie Vezey compiled the Heiko Augustine Oberman Bibliography. Essays are published in their original English or German. English summaries are provided for the German entries. The general student of the period 1300-1650 should gain an overview of the appropriation of Augustine during that time and Professor Oberman's colleagues should profit from the new research contained herein.

H. ter Schegget 1927-2001, had vanwege zijn loopbaan en zijn theologische en maatschappelijke opvattingen een veelbesproken leven. Zijn ervaringen als predikant met de armoede in Venezuela leidden tot een proefschrift waarin hij op bijbelse gronden pleitte voor revolutionaire veranderingen in denken en doen. Het riep verzet. Na terugkeer in Nederland was Ter Schegget achtereenvolgens predikant in Berlijn en Varese, docent ethiek en filosofie aan een HBO-instelling in Driebergen en als atheïst verbonden aan de theologische faculteit van de Leidse universiteit als kerkelijk hoogleraar ethiek. Hermeneutics remains a divisive and polarizing topic within scholarly and ecclesiastical communities in South Africa These tensions are not limited to theoretical differences but often crystallize on a grassroots level when local churches and church assemblies have to make important decisions on controversial ethical topics such as ordaining women in church offices assessing the ethics of gay marriages and taking a stance on the land debate in South Africa This book makes a unique contribution in two ways firstly it focuses on the uniquely South African hermeneutical landscape secondly it relates theories to practical ethical application The unique scholarly contribution of this consists in it relating hermeneutics to ethics within the South African landscape A diverse group of scholars have been invited to partake in the project and the views expressed are often quite diverse This allows readers to develop an understanding and sensitivity of the various angles employed and the interests at stake in addressing difficult societal problems

The picture that pastors have of themselves and of their experiences in the ministry is ambivalent On the one hand they find the pastoral work which they perform meaningful important and relevant On the other hand pastors suffer from chronic stress of some sort caused by different factors on the micro meso and macro level of religion church and society Many pastors experience the modernization and subsequently the secularization process as a very serious problem which negatively influences religious life within the parish Pastors are bowed down by uncertainty over how their work contributes to the parish mission in today's society and even more so by doubts over what that mission is in particular the diaconal mission Which direction can shall should the pastor take if neither the church nor the theological institutions are able to provide him or her with a clear frame of reference an attractive perspective a convincing policy a plausible course of action and a meaningful set of aims goals and objectives There is no alternative but to risk taking responsibility for oneself and choosing one's own course of action To take this risk is not reckless or foolhardy as long as the choices are always informed by a religious self reflection that is open to tradition as well as to the future This allows the pastor to be his own guide to transgress useless customs and habits and cross the boundaries into as yet unknown territory The task of education must be to provide the foundation that enables the pastor to make those choices and take those risks in a well considered prudent and truly religious manner This study represents not only an interpretative description of some of the education for ministry in today's societal cultural and ecclesiastical context in the western world but also a proposal for a new model the reflective ministry model
