The Anointed Son Myk Habets, 2010-01-01 Spirit Christology complements Logos Christology in the same way in which Christ and the Spirit are mutually constitutive Or at least this should be the case The history of Christian thought shows that Logos Christology has dominated resulting in both an eclipse of Trinitarian doctrine and a diminution of pneumatology Recently there have been calls to reclaim a theology of the Third Article in order to present a Trinitarian theology that is faithful to Scripture the Great Tradition and one that is existentially viable While studies examine various aspects of Spirit Christology there has yet to appear a work that introduces the doctrine examines the various mutually exclusive proposals and offers a constructive trinitarian proposal The present work does just this introducing the constituent features of a Spirit Christology that is Trinitarian orthodox and contemporary The current work proposes a model of Spirit Christology that complements rather than replaces Logos Christology and does so in a robustly Trinitarian framework Within contemporary theology a pneumatically oriented approach to Christology is being advanced across denominational and traditional lines Those wanting to navigate their way through the many competing proposals for a Third Article theology will find a comprehensive map here

"Education Has Nothing to Do with Theology" Edward J. Newell, 2006-08-01 Does education have any relation to theology How do the educator s worldview commitments speak to his or her practice of education James Michael Lee brought a definite answer to these questions a firm no to the relations question and an advocacy for empirical findings over and against any speculative or theoretical positions in reply to the commitments question Lee claimed to have a universal neutral metatheory for all religious education a theory that would apply to all religious educators in any and every religion But in proposing his theory he overlooked the way that empirical facts express worldviews This book is a detective story tracing commitments that lay underneath empirical neutrality In the process the reader will see avenues that unmistakably link education to theology Education turns out to be a thoroughly worldview conditioned process This new work is essential reading for professors and students in both religious and general education The Need for Creeds Today J. V. Fesko, 2020-11-03 This brief accessible invitation to the historic creeds and confessions makes a biblical and historical case for their necessity and shows why they are essential for Christian faith and practice today J V Fesko a leading Reformed theologian with a broad readership in the academy and the church demonstrates that creeds are not just any human documents but biblically commended resources for the well being of the church as long as they remain subordinate to biblical authority He also explains how the current skepticism and even hostility toward creeds and confessions came about A Textbook of Christian Ethics, 3rd Edition Robin Gill, 2006-09-14 Robin Gill s Textbook of Christian Ethics has been a popular course book with students and lecturers for over 20 years Now in its third edition this classic textbook has been completely revised to bring it up to date with recent developments in the field of Christian Ethics All the popular features of the previous editions have been retained in this new edition The book s main strength has always been its layout and structure Integrating primary texts with explanatory material from the author the book provides the student with a reader and textbook combined The new edition focuses more strongly on current debates in all sections and expands on a variety of topics with contributions on natural law approaches virtue ethics in a pluralistic postmodern world the influential notion of the common good just war theory genetics and biotechnology euthanasia and global justice and sex and gender issues Important modern contributions to Christian ethics are set out alongside classical texts from Augustine Aquinas and Luther The modern writers range from thinkers such as Niebuhr Barth and Bonhoeffer to recent liberation and Third World theologians Each series of texts is systematically analysed The differing ethical positions and arguments are examined together with the social and historical factors which shaped them Eastern Orthodox Mission Theology Today James J. Stamoolis, 2001-11-02 The purpose of the ASM Series is to publish without regard for disciplinary national or denominational boundaries scholarly works of high quality and wide interest on missiological themes from the entire spectrum of scholarly pursuits e g theology history anthropology sociology linguistics health education art political science economics and development to articulate but a partial list Always the focus will be on Christian mission By mission in this context is meant a cross cultural passage over the boundary between faith in Jesus Christ and its absence In this understanding of mission the basic functions of Christian proclamation dialogue witness service fellowship worship and nurture are of special concern How does the transition from one cultural context to another influence the shape and interaction of these dynamic functions Missiologists know that they need the other disciplines And other disciplines we dare to suggest need missiology perhaps more than they sometimes realize Neither the insider s nor the outsider s view is complete in itself The world Christian mission has through two millennia amassed a rich and well documented body of experience to share with other disciplines Interaction will be the hallmark of this Series It desires to be a channel for talking to one another instead of about one another Secular scholars and church related missiologists have too long engaged in a sterile venting of feelings about one another often lacking in full evidence Ignorance of and indifference to one another s work has been no less harmful to good scholarship The promotion of scholarly dialogue among missiologists may at times involve the publication of views and positions that other missiologists cannot accept and with which members of the Editorial Committee do not agree The manuscripts published reflect the opinions of their authors and are not meant to represent the position of the American Society of Missiology or the Editorial Committee of the ASM Series We express our warm thanks to various mission agencies whose financial contributions enabled leaders of vision in the ASM to launch this new venture The future of the ASM series will we feel sure fully justify their confidence and support William J Danker Chairperson ASM Series Editorial Committee
