Theories Of Local Economic Development Linking Theory To Practice:

Theories of Local Economic Development James E. Rowe, 2016-12-05 In economic development theory and practice exist as two seemingly separate realities Academics strive to develop or refine theory by drawing on abstract concepts about the way people behave and institutions work while practitioners draw from a stock of experiences By bringing together leading theorists and practitioners such as Blakely Blair McCann Luger Gunder Stough and Stimson this book provides the first comprehensive overview of local economic development theories for over fifteen years It explores the theory behind the key concepts that every economic practitioner must understand and in doing so ties together the various theories from across the disciplines to practice      Controversies in Local Economic Development Martin Perry, 2010-07-02 Efforts to promote the economic development of individual localities engage the attention of academics students and professionals Many such analysts argue that competitive advantage can be fostered within local economies complimenting the advent of a more globalised economy Intensified efforts to build new economic foundations show no sign of abating despite the apparent increase in the international mobility of businesses and employment Unpicking the arguments supporting different strategies for promoting local economic development Controversies in Local Economic Development is an introductory guide to some of the major ideas and policy tools that have influenced academic debate and development practice Taking the view that economic processes are mechanisms that promote desired outcomes only in particular contexts the book asks questions of both academic debates and the prescriptions of policy experts      Understanding Local Economic Development Emil Malizia, Edward J. Feser, Henry Renski, Joshua Drucker, 2020-10-05 This book offers insights into the process and the practice of local economic development Bridging the gap between theory and practice it demonstrates the relevance of theory to inform local strategic planning in the context of widespread disparities in regional economic performance The book summarizes the core theories of economic development applies each of these to professional practice and provides detailed commentary on them This updated second edition includes more recent contributions regional innovation agglomeration and dynamic theories and presents the major ideas that inform economic development strategic planning particularly in the United States and Canada The text offers theoretical insights that help explain why some regions thrive while others languish and why metropolitan economies often rise and fall over time Without theory economic developers can only do what is politically feasible This text however provides them with a logical tool for thinking about development and establishing an independent basis from which to build the local consensus needed for evidence based action undertaken in the public interest Offering valuable perspectives on both the process and the practice of local and regional economic development this book will be useful for both current and future economic developers to think more profoundly and confidently about their local economy The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license      Handbook of Local and

Regional Development Andy Pike, Andres Rodriguez-Pose, John Tomaney, 2010-11-17 The Handbook of Local and Regional Development provides a comprehensive statement and reference point for local and regional development The scope of this Handbook's coverage and contributions engages with and reflects upon the politics and policy of how we think about and practise local and regional development encouraging dialogue across the disciplinary barriers between notions of local and regional development in the Global North and development studies in the Global South This Handbook is organized into seven inter related sections with an introductory chapter setting out the rationale aims and structure of the Handbook Section one situates local and regional development in its global context Section two establishes the key issues in understanding the principles and values that help us define what is meant by local and regional development Section three critically reviews the current diversity and variety of conceptual and theoretical approaches to local and regional development Section four address questions of government and governance Section five connects critically with the array of contemporary approaches to local and regional development policy Section six is an explicitly global review of perspectives on local and regional development from Africa Asia Pacific Europe Latin America and North America Section seven provides reflection and discussion of the futures for local and regional development in an international and multidisciplinary context With over forty contributions from leading international scholars in the field this Handbook provides critical reviews and appraisals of current state of the art conceptual and theoretical approaches and future developments in local and regional development

Entrepreneurial Universities Marta Peris-Ortiz, Jaime Alonso Gómez, José M. Merigó-Lindahl, Carlos Rueda-Armengot, 2016-12-13 This book analyses the importance of the entrepreneurial university specifically in relation to the creation of entrepreneurial ideas and attitudes in students and entrepreneurial initiatives in academic institutions The aim of the editors and contributing authors is to provide the reader with a set of experiences illustrating the advantages of communicating and encouraging entrepreneurship among students thereby highlighting the third mission of the university the need to adopt entrepreneurial strategy without disrupting the quality of teaching and research Featuring initiatives from institutions around the world the authors argue that the increasing importance of knowledge in the technical and social dimensions of today's world provides greater relevance to the entrepreneurial university In this context universities transcend their traditional focus on teaching and basic research to carry out technology transfers marketing ideas and patent registrations and incorporate spin off companies that contribute to industrial innovations economic growth and job creation In the teaching dimension the entrepreneurial university represents a focus on programs which train students in the applications and most advanced practices in knowledge driven fields The book addresses such questions as Can marketing ideas deteriorate the quality of research in the long term What importance does the cultural framework have for an entrepreneurial education What circumstances and programs facilitate spin offs in universities What are the key features of entrepreneurial universities In reference to entrepreneurship education in its broadest sense then it corresponds to the framework of ideas and general features on which entrepreneurship is founded in depth knowledge of the projects or ventures which they wish to carry out capacity to perceive the relevant characteristics of the environment and the leadership and goal setting skills to achieve success      Regional Development Dialogue ,2012 An international journal focusing on third world development problems      The Transnational State Thomas Lacroix,2024-05-23 This work in two parts examines the relations between transnational societies and states The second volume of this work contends that current policies meant to control or enhance transnational flows have led to the emergence of a transnational policy apparatus coined the transnational state This book proposes an innovative conceptual framework to grasp the transformations of the contemporary state in both sending and receiving countries It shows how states expand beyond national territorial limits by reaching out to migrants where they are In response to the migrants endeavours to circumvent the constraints imposed by selective migration policies public authorities expand the reach of their control beyond externalisation within internalisation and at expansion borders A totalitarian temptation seems to have seized contemporary state bureaucracies affecting the very nature of borders and societies The core argument of this research is that the development of the transnational state is not random It is a process shaping and shaped by the structures of the transnational society      Poverty and Development Kumar Aryal ,2019-06-06 Are you concerned about the problem of poverty in the world Do you want to do something about it This book is for you      Planning in Ten Words or Less Michael Gunder,Jean Hillier,2016-12-05 This book takes a Lacanian and related post structuralist perspective to demythologize ten of the most heavily utilised terms in spatial planning rationality the good certainty risk growth globalization multi culturalism sustainability responsibility and planning itself It highlights that these terms and others are mere empty signifiers meaning everything and nothing Based on international examples of planning practice and process Planning in Ten Words or Less suggests that spatial and urban planning is largely based on the construction and deployment of ideological knowledge claims      Globalization, Planning and Local Economic Development Andrew Beer,Terry L. Clower,2019-08-21 This textbook looks at economic development at the local community or regional scale It provides students with a comprehensive introduction to contemporary thinking about locally based economic development how growth can be planned and how that development can be realized Globalization Planning and Local Economic Development Provides students with a thorough understanding of current debates around local and regional development and how that body of work can assist them in helping communities grow Equips students with a toolkit of strategies that enable them to both plan for development and deliver that development through their professional lives Offers a roadmap for economic development that helps students make sense of place based development by providing a meta narrative of how regions grow and how those processes can be enhanced This integrating perspective will be organized around the concept of competitiveness and how that concept can be understood and operationalized in various ways Introduces students to a range of techniques essential to success in economic development planning In addition to a wealth of case studies and pedagogical features in the book this text is also complemented by online resources In offering a full toolkit of economic development knowledge techniques and strategies this text will thoroughly prepare students for a career in urban planning transport planning human geography applied economic analysis geographic information systems or work as an economic development practitioner

Rezagos de la economía de Jalisco en la apertura económica (1980-2015) Carlos Riojas López, Antonio Sánchez Bernal, Carlos Fong Reynoso, Luis Ernesto

Ocampo Figueroa, Moisés Alejandro Alarcón Osuna, Ana Rosa Moreno Pérez, Graciela López Méndez, María Elena Peyro Beltrán, Rubén Antonio Chavarín Rodríguez, José Martín Chagollán Ramírez, Martha Virginia González Medina, Jesús Gerardo Ríos Almodóvar, 2018-08-23 Rezagos de la economía de Jalisco en la apertura económica 1980-2015 es el tercer volumen de la edición conmemorativa del XXX aniversario del Departamento de Estudios Regionales INESER. Los investigadores del Centro de Estudios de las Instituciones y las Organizaciones CIO ponen a consideración de los lectores cinco estudios que abordan desde distintas perspectivas el análisis de los factores considerados más relevantes al respecto del rezago de Jalisco con respecto a otras entidades federativas de México durante las últimas tres décadas. No obstante que existan otras interpretaciones, estamos convencidos de que los factores institucionales y organizacionales siempre estarán en el centro del debate. Los trabajos que conforman esta publicación son resultado de una serie de seminarios que se llevaron a cabo en el Departamento de Estudios Regionales INESER.

Theory and History in Regional Perspective Masamichi Kawano, Karima Kourtit, Peter Nijkamp, Yoshiro Higano, 2022-05-14 This collection of essays presents insight and methodology that are highly relevant for readers today as they consider the future of the world they live in. Experiencing the COVID-19 pandemic, people have realized how fragile the current economy is and the necessity for reconstructing the socio-economic system. That system, which was considered the default for so long, was succeeded by the analytical framework of economics and regional science. The contents of this book are diversified as are the achievements of Prof. Yasuhiro Sakai, to whom this volume is dedicated, and cover a wide area from mathematical and experimental economics to conventional and emerging fields of regional science. Some are timeless topics that have had new life breathed into them. Part I deals with, among other areas, risk management with uncertain events, the effectiveness and impacts of regulation and friction related to trading, the stability of strategic behavior and market equilibrium, and sustainable regional development and urban planning from the long-term perspective. Part II also presents a diversity of subjects including input-output analysis and computable general equilibrium (CGE) modelling for internal as well as external structure and network linkage, such as a value chain, openness and creativity as related to competition among cities and regions, dispersion versus concentration and inequality versus equality.

Local and Regional Development Andy Pike, Andrés Rodríguez-Pose, John Tomaney, 2016-07-15 Actors and institutions in localities and regions across the world are seeking prosperity and well-being amidst tumultuous and disruptive shifts and transitions generated by an increasingly globalised, knowledge-intensive capitalism, global financial instability, volatility and crisis, concerns about economic, social and ecological sustainability, climate change and resource shortages, new multi-actor and multi-level systems of government and governance, and a re-ordering of the international political economy, state austerity and retrenchment, and new and reformed approaches to intervention policy and institutions for local and regional development. Local and Regional Development provides an accessible critical and integrated examination of local and regional development theory, institutions and policy in this changing context. Amidst its rising importance, the book addresses the fundamental issues of what kind of local and regional development and for whom its purposes principles and values frameworks of understanding approaches and interventions and integrated approaches to local and regional development throughout the world The approach provides a theoretically informed critical analysis of contemporary local and regional development in an international and multi disciplinary context grounded in concrete empirical analysis from experiences in the global North and South It concludes by identifying what might constitute holistic inclusive progressive and sustainable local and regional development and reflecting upon its limits and political renewal

Reflections on African Cities in Transition Purshottama Sivanarain Reddy, Henry Wissink, 2020-09-15 This volume describes African cities in transition and the economic socio political and environmental challenges resulting from rapid post colonial urbanization As the African continent continues to transition from urban configurations inherited from colonial influences and history it faces issues such as urban slum expansion increased demands for energy and clean water lack of adequate public transportation high levels of inequality among different socio economic population strata and inadequate urban governance planning and policies African cities in transition need to reconsider current policies and developmental trajectories to facilitate and sustain economic growth and Africa's strategic repositioning in the world Written by an international team of scholars and practitioners this volume uses case studies to focus on key issues and developmental challenges in selected African cities Topics include but are not limited to smart cities changing notions of democracy the city's role in attaining the SDGs local governance alternative models for governance and management corruption urbanisation and future cities

Governance, Institutional Change and Regional Development Mike Danson, Henrick Halkier, Greta Cameron, 2024-11-01 This title was first published in 2000 This volume addresses the prominent role given to institution building institutional change and governance in the regional development strategies and policies The establishment of the Scottish Parliament Welsh and Northern Ireland Assemblies and the arrival of regional development agencies in England highlighted the need to put the initiatives into some context drawing on experience from across Europe on the critical factors in the determination of the potential and success of regions Central to the discussions presented here by a group of European experts are the question of governance how does an ongoing process of institution building affect the ways in which regions and localities are governed including questions of democracy participation regional self determination public private partnerships networks and accountability and the consequences of new modes of governance and institutional change for regional development strategies and policies particularly in the context of large scale industrial restructuring and city region and urban regeneration

Community Forestry in Canada Sara Teitelbaum, 2016-07-28 In recent decades community forestry has taken root across Canada Locally run initiatives are lauded as welcome alternatives to large corporate and industrial logging practices yet little research has been done to document their tangible outcomes or draw connections between their ideals of local control community benefit ecological stewardship and economic diversification and the realities of community forestry practice This book brings together the work of over twenty five researchers to provide the first comparative and empirically rich portrait of community forestry policy and practice in Canada Tackling all of the forestry regions from Newfoundland to British Columbia it unearths the history of community forestry revealing surprising regional differences linked to patterns of policy making and cultural traditions Case studies celebrate innovative practices in governance and ecological management while uncovering challenges related to government support and market access The future of the sector is also considered including the role of institutional reform multiscale networks and adaptive management strategies Drivers of Innovation, Entrepreneurship and Regional Dynamics Karima Kourtit, Peter Nijkamp, Roger R. Stough, 2011-06-10 The need for informed and effective insights into key concepts and models of regional development and growth from an endogenous growth perspective has risen over the past decade These recent advances address in particular local and regional assets and characteristics comprising inter alia creativity knowledge innovation forces and entrepreneurship Access to and exploitation of these modern forms of human and social capital are of paramount importance for the dynamic regional economic environment in a city or region This volume offers an overview and critical treatment of the spatial economic roots opportunities and impacts of new growth strategies mainly from an evidence based perspective In the various contributions to this volume relevant findings and strategic options are interpreted and discussed from both an analytical and a policy perspective to help cultivate creativity human capital development and innovation as well as entrepreneurial activity with a view to exploit the drivers of economic development in order to strengthen the competitive edge of cities and regions
