There Are Jews In My House:

There Are Jews in My House Lara Vapnyar, 2007-12-18 There Are Jews in My House is one of the most striking debuts of recent years. Tracing the lives and aspirations of Russians living in Moscow and Brooklyn, these poignant, sad and funny stories create a luminous new literary world. In the title story, set during the Second World War, Galina, a gentile, offers refuge to a Jewish friend and her daughter, only to find herself increasingly resentful of their presence in her home. In Mistress, a nine-year-old boy new to America escorts his grandmother to her weekly doctors' appointments to interpret her myriad complaints. At the same time, he becomes aware that his grandfather may be involved with another woman. And in Love Lessons, Mondays 9 A.M., a young math teacher assigned to teach a sex education class becomes all too aware that her students are more experienced than she is.

The Posen Library of Jewish Culture and Civilization, Volume 5 Posen Library of Jewish culture and civilization (Lucerne, Switzerland), 2023-03-21 The fifth volume of the Posen Library demonstrates through a rich array of texts and images the extraordinary diversity of Jewish life during the early modern period. A rich and varied gateway into the primary source material of early modern Jewish history that is very strong on geographical diversity. A magnificent achievement. Adam Sutcliffe, King's College London. The Posen Library of Jewish Culture and Civilization Volume 5 covering the early modern period 1500-1750 presents a variety of Jewish texts to demonstrate the diversity of Jewish culture and life. These texts originate from Eastern and Western Europe, the Americas, the Ottoman Empire, North Africa, Kurdistan, Persia, Yemen, India, in short, a worldwide diaspora. They embrace historical writing and religious scholarship, liturgical expression and economic records, ethics and personal devotion, correspondence and communal regulations, art and music, architecture and poetry. The simultaneous centrifugal and centripetal character of Jewish communities during this era illustrates the distinctiveness of the early modern period in Jewish history and informs developments in world history at large. Including texts written by women, a robust collection of images and extensive material not previously accessible to English language readers, this volume is rich, deep and enlightening.

The Writer Uprooted Alvin H. Rosenfeld, 2008-06-18 The Writer Uprooted is the first book to examine the emergence of a new generation of Jewish immigrant authors in America, most of whom grew up in formerly communist countries. In essays that are both personal and scholarly, the contributors to this collection chronicle and clarify issues of personal and cultural dislocation and loss, but also affirm the possibilities of reorientation and renewal. Writers, poets, translators and critics such as Matei Calinescu, Morris Dickstein, Henryk Grynberg, Geoffrey Hartman, Eva Hoffman, Katarzyna Jerzak, Dov Ber Kerler, Norman Manea, Zsuzsanna Ozsvath, Lara Vapnyar and Bronislava Volkova describe how they have coped creatively with the trials of displacement and the challenges and opportunities of resettlement in a new land and for some, authorship in a new language.

The New Diaspora Avinoam Patt, Mark Shechner, Victoria Aarons, 2015-05-01 Readers of contemporary American fiction and Jewish cultural history will find The New Diaspora enlightening and deeply engaging.
