There A Petal Silently Falls Three Stories By Choe Yun:

There a Petal Silently Falls Yun Ch'oe, 2008 At once experimental polyvocal and politically engaged the stories collected in There a Petal Silently Falls offer a rich evocative exploration of violence trauma and loss in divided Korea Ch oe s stories take us well beyond previous literary representations of national division and the 1980 Kwangju Massacre by probing the relationship among desire fantasy and memory all the while locating gender at the center of the making of history The Curious Tale of Mandogi's Ghost Sekihan Kin, 2010 The Curious Tale of Mandogi's Ghost incorporates Korean folk tales ghost stories and myth into a phenomenal depiction of epic tragedy Written by a zainichi a permanent resident of Japan who is not of Japanese ancestry the novel tells the story of Mandogi a young priest living on the island of Cheju do Mandogi becomes unwittingly involved in the Four Three Incident of 1948 in which the South Korean government brutally suppressed an armed peasant uprising and purged Cheju do of communist sympathizers Although Mandogi is sentenced to death for his part in the riot he survives in a sense to take revenge on his enemies and fully commit himself to the resistance Mandogi s indeterminate shapeshifting character is emblematic of Japanese colonialism s outsized impact on both ruler and ruled A central work of postwar Japanese fiction The Curious Tale of Mandogi's Ghost relates the trauma of a long forgotten history and its indelible imprint on Japanese and Korean memory The Penguin Book of Korean Short Stories Bruce

Fulton, 2023-04-27 An ever surprising and stylistically diverse anthology that will surely stand as the touchstone collection of Korean literature for decades to come Literary Review This eclectic moving and wonderfully enjoyable collection is the essential introduction to Korean literature Journeying through Korea s dramatic twentieth century from the Japanese occupation and colonial era to the devastating war between North and South and the rapid disorienting urbanization of later decades The Penguin Book of Korean Short Stories captures a hundred years of Korea s vibrant short story tradition Here are peddlers and donkeys travelling across moonlit fields artists drinking and debating in the tea houses of 1920s Seoul soldiers fighting for survival exiles from the war who can never go home again and lonely men and women searching for connection in the dizzying modern city The collection features stories by some of Korea s greatest writers including Pak Wanso O Chonghui and Cho Chongnae as well as many brilliant contemporary voices such as P yon Hyeyong Han Yujoo and Kim Aeran Curated by Bruce Fulton this is a volume that will surprise unsettle and delight Edited by Bruce Fulton With an introduction by Kwon Youngmin The Red Room , 2009-08-15 Modern Korean fiction is to a large extent a literature of witness to the historic upheavals of twentieth century Korea Often inspired by their own experiences contemporary writers continue to show us how individual Koreans have been traumatized by wartime violence whether the uprooting of whole families from the ancestral home life on the road as war refugees or the violent deaths of loved ones The Red Room brings together stories by three canonical Korean writers who examine trauma as a simple fact of life In Pak Wan so s In the Realm of the Buddha trauma manifests itself as an undigested lump inside the narrator a mass needing to be purged before it consumes her The protagonist of O Chong hui s Spirit on the Wind suffers from an incomprehensible wanderlust the result of trauma that has escaped her conscious memory In the title story by Im Ch or u trauma is recycled from torturer to victim when a teacher is arbitrarily detained by unnamed officials Western readers may find these stories bleak even chilling yet they offer restorative truths when viewed in light of the suffering experienced by all victims of war and political violence regardless of place and time

The Reincarnated Giant Mingwei Song, Theodore Hutters, 2018-09-04 A new wave of Chinese science fiction is here This golden age has not only resurrected the genre but also subverted its own conventions Going beyond political utopianism and technological optimism contemporary Chinese writers conjure glittering visions and subversive experiments ranging from space opera to cyberpunk utopianism to the posthuman and parodies of China s rise to deconstructions of the myth of national development This anthology showcases the best of contemporary science fiction from Taiwan Hong Kong and the People s Republic of China In fifteen short stories and novel excerpts The Reincarnated Giant opens a doorway into imaginary realms alongside our own world and the history of the future Authors such as Lo Yi chin Dung Kai cheung Han Song Chen Qiufan and the Hugo winner Liu Cixin some alive during the Cultural Revolution others born in the 1980s blur the boundaries between realism and surrealism between politics and technology They tell tales of intergalactic war decoding the last message sent from an extinct human race the use of dreams as tools to differentiate cyborgs and humans poets strange afterlife inside a supercomputer cannibalism aboard an airplane and unchecked development that leads to uncontrollable catastrophe At a time when the Chinese government promotes the Chinese dream the dark side of the new wave shows a nightmarish unconscious The Reincarnated Giant is an essential read for anyone interested in the future of the genre

Humans, Beasts, and Ghosts Zhongshu Qian, 2011 This book brings together the essay collection Written in the margins of life Xie zai ren sheng bian shang and the short story collection Human beast ghost Ren shou gui Kiku's Prayer Shusaku Endo, 2012-12-25 This translation is dedicated to the memory of Hondo Shun 1936 1997 a kind and gentle man who was nothing like his namesake in this novel

The Routledge Companion to Korean Literature Heekyoung Cho, 2022-03-15 The Routledge Companion to Korean Literature consists of 35 chapters written by leaders in the field who explore significant topics and who have pioneered innovative approaches The collection highlights the most dynamic current scholarship on Korean literature presenting rigorous literary analysis interdisciplinary methodologies and transregional thinking so as to provide a valuable and inspiring resource for researchers and students alike This Companion has particular significance as the most extensive collection to date of English language articles on Korean literature it both offers a thorough intellectual engagement with current scholarship and addresses a broad range of topics and time periods from premodern to contemporary It will contribute to an understanding of literature as part of a broad sociocultural process that aims to put the field into conversation with other fields of study in the humanities and social sciences While presenting rigorous and innovative academic research that will be useful to graduate students and researchers the chapters in the collection are written to be accessible to the average upper level undergraduate student and include only minimal use of academic jargon In an effort to provide substantially helpful material for researching teaching and learning Korean literature this Companion includes as an appendix an extensive list of English translations of Korean literature The Publishers Weekly, 2008 A History of Korean Literature Peter H. Lee, 2003-12-18 This is a comprehensive narrative history of Korean literature It provides a wealth of information for scholars students and lovers of literature Combining both history and criticism the study reflects the latest scholarship and offers a systematic account of the development of all genres Consisting of twenty five chapters it covers twentieth century poetry fiction by women and the literature of North Korea This is a major contribution to the field and a study that will stand for many years as the primary resource for studying Korean literature Questioning Minds, 2009-10-15 Available for the first time in English the ten short stories by modern Korean women collected here touch in one way or another on issues related to gender and kinship politics All of the protagonists are women who face personal crises or defining moments in their lives as gender marked beings in a Confucian patriarchal Korean society Their personal dreams and values have been compromised by gender expectations or their own illusions about female existence They are compelled to ask themselves Who am I Where am I going What are my choices Each story bears colorful and compelling testimony to the life of the heroine Some of the stories celebrate the central character's breakaway from the patriarchal order others expose sexual inequality and highlight the struggle for personal autonomy and dignity Still others reveal the abrupt awakening to mid life crises and the seasoned wisdom that comes with accepting the limits of old age The stories are arranged in chronological order from the earliest work by Korea's first modern woman writer in 1917 to stories that appeared in 1995 approximately one from each decade Most of the writers presented are recognized literary figures but some are lesser known voices The introduction presents a historical overview of traditions of modern Korean women's fiction situating the selected writers and their stories in the larger context of Korean literature Each story is accompanied by a biographical note on the author and a brief critical analysis A selected bibliography is provided for further reading and research Questioning Minds marks a departure from existing translations of Korean literature in terms of its objectives content and format As such it will contribute to the growth of Korean studies increasing the availability of material for teaching Korean literature in English and stimulate readership of its writers beyond the confines of the peninsula
